Preface

I just want to say that over the years God has given me many prophetic visions and many were first published and copyrighted as far back as 30 years ago and they have come to pass very accurately; while others are still coming to pass at this very hour. God does not make mistakes! Also, when it comes to other people's visions I have shared very few of them, even as I do here. I am very much a skeptic when it comes to all the so called prophets who are out there trying to make a name for themselves! I always ask the question, what is motivating them: Even as I have to ask myself? Are they in it because they have a revelation of God's Life and God's Kingdom within them? Or are they motivated by the things of this world and this life? Because the mixture we have in our generation is phenomenal!

I want to emphatically declare that the Great Shakings we are now beginning to experience are all designed to shake the world and our worldly way of thinking out of us. How we need to Fear God, for in God's Kingdom the time is quickly coming when there will no longer be the mixture of man's undoing in all that is taking place now in the church world of not only America but also around the earth.

If we truly have the Revelation of Jesus Christ within our heart and life, then the entire motivation of our heart as leaders of God's People will truly be to gather God's People into the Fullness of the Life that God the Father and His Son have reserved for all those that truly Love God! "For unto Him (the Father and the Son, Jesus) Shall the Gathering of the People Be." 2Thess.2:1 And that gathering will also be designed to bring glory to God the Father and His Son Jesus Christ, and nothing for man.

I have a problem when I see man, or the ministry or the preacher's name being magnified and/or glorified. Our ministry has to be in not only the true love of God but also in the purity of the motivation of the heart and humility. When man is big – I have to ask the question, WHY IS GOD NOT BIG? Because the true manifestation of the Holy Spirit will #1 Glorify the Father, #2. Magnify the Son, which is the very life of Jesus Christ being magnified within us, and will reveal Him to us even as gold and silver is purified in the fire.

It takes the power of God's Holy Spirit to bring us into conformity with the sufferings of Jesus Christ so that by His Grace God can create in us His very own likeness and image: As his eternal glory is being revealed in us (into our heart mind and soul) and into every fiber of our beings, by Christ Jesus. The power and glory of God's Holy Spirit was primarily given to us so that we may become even as Jesus unto the people so that after we have suffered a while, we may truly become perfected within Christ's love, established, strengthened and settled in His Peace and Rest where our lives are truly becoming Fixed in Him.

Today we have had so many wrong interpretations put into the book called the Revelation of Jesus Christ as well as the apostles' letters, even as they have misinterpreted 2Thessalonians chapter 2. The Gospel that Jesus preached and the warnings in the Apostles' letters will not be misinterpreted from the message of God's kingdom for there is only One Revelation of Jesus Christ that we all need to know, and also to come into conformity with! The church world today must come into repentance if they are to become the Bride of Jesus Christ. When the Harlot Systems of men's private interpretations and the church systems of man (Revelation 18) are not even able to consider the warnings that are in that precious book: as found in Revelation 22:18-19 there is something terribly wrong. Those warnings are very serious warnings because they make direct reference not only to the plagues written in the book, but also the danger of having our own names taken out of the book of Life. The fear of the Lord in these areas have completely been ignored in the generation that we are living in.

The track record of the true watchmen, that God has ordained and is sending out, will not only share the prophecies and warnings given, but they will also be able to share the need there is for God's people to truly come to know both the Father and His Son through the Revelation of Jesus Christ. We live in a day when many share only the prophecies and know little to nothing about the true Revelation of Jesus Christ and at the very best, all they do is pervert the prophecies with their own private interpretations written in that Glorious Book called the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

That book will bring God's people into the fullness of relationship that has been made available by Father God and His Son Jesus Christ and this is why Revelation 22:7,10 "Behold I come quickly: Blessed is he that keeps the sayings of the prophecy of this book. ... And he said seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand."

As soon as the carnal mind and natural mind of man reads this passage (even if they have been born again) immediately they think it is talking about the book of Daniel which was sealed up unto the end: and so it was. But the Revelation of Jesus Christ has been left open only because all that is written in the other books of the Bible, including the book of Daniel will all point to one thing: and that is the Revelation of Jesus Christ made manifested in the lives of God's holy people.

It is all about relationship, where God's Holy Spirit will expose the works of darkness within our own life as well as the works of iniquity, and if we are willing seek for the true baptism of God's Holy Spirit to empower us, he will not only take us through the crucified life but he will also bring us into the Glorious Gospel of God's Kingdom. This is where the Revelation of Jesus Christ is no longer hidden from those who are truly willing to ask, seek and keep knocking until the Door of the Revelation knowledge of Jesus Christ truly becomes opened to us, and made alive within our heart, life and understanding. Are we willing to pray and to pay the price?

Many today are not even aware of the things that the church world today needs to repent of, or the things that God's Holy Spirit is saying unto the churches. The Spirit and the bride say Come. And let him that hears the saying of this prophecy say Come. And let him that is thirsty say Come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely." And even though I share prophecies and visions of people that I have met personally, the main purpose of this book is to bring a holy awareness that more than anything else we all need the Revelation of Jesus Christ, and to truly come to know Father God and Jesus in the power of God's Holy Spirit, abiding and living within us. REPENTANCE IS A MUST!

Some of the following visions were sent out by the late David Wilkerson on Email in February 2009. My wife and I met David Wilkerson personally when he ministered at the Queensway Cathedral in Toronto, Canada in 1985-86. David proved to be a tremendous encouragement to me personally concerning the Prophecies God had given to me (Desi) during 1979 and 1981.

Regarding the visions that were sent to me the end of February 2009, David Wilkerson went on to say: "If I have ever heard from God, I definitely did this time." Part of that vision says, "One country will default on paying back its debts to the European Union." (We are very close to that now - June 20, 2011: Greece, Spain, Portugal, Ireland, Italy, etc., all have been faltering very badly! However, I personally believe it will be more than one, but according David it will start with one.) "Following the first country to default on the EU, within a two week period another South American country will default on that country's loans from the USA. But before the end of the second week Mexico is also going to default on its loans from the USA. The day after this happens, Arab and South American countries are going to be pulling out billions of dollars from US Banks, and before the day ends, the USA will close all banks and call it a Bank Holiday, and they will be closed for the next 6 months with no money available!"

According to David Wilkerson's visions and article, the riots, the fires and lootings will be like an implosion taking place throughout the USA, "with no money available for the next 6 months! It will take the entire US Army to bring the USA out of the chaos. The USA will recover but will never be the same as before!" David also mentioned in one of his books published in 1974 called The Vision that Japan would be hit by a major earthquake to be followed by one of the greatest earthquakes in modern history that is also coming to the USA and "will be many times more severe than the San Francisco quake." In March 2011 Japan experienced not only a giant earthquake but a most terrifying tsunami as well. Then again between August 30th and September 4, 2011 – 1800 millimeters of rain (70.7 inches of rain = 5.89 feet of water) came down drenching several areas of western Japan. God is now dealing with 'the pride and the spirit of Japan' and out of the Great Shakings once God is able to humble 'the pride of Japan' there will come a Great Spiritual Awakening! Isaiah 2 and 24:14-16.

The vision God gave me in August 2010 for Canada is contained in Isaiah chapter 1. The entire chapter is speaking very clearly about the condition Canada is in (especially verses 5 and 7) and calling God's people to repentance and to pray for the salvation of the millions that have come from other nations, who otherwise are "devouring our country in front of our faces" God has a promise for Canada but not without repentance! As I was in the vision during the middle of the night, and reading verses 5 and 7 the name CANADA appeared. I immediately said, "Lord I know that Canada is not in Isaiah chapter one: but the message is definitely for our nation, with extreme urgency!"

Welcome to the last Great Shakings of God in the history of mankind to be climaxed by the promise of God that "Out of the Great Shakings there is also coming a Great Harvest"—the second coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, the True and Only Messiah the Jewish people will ever see, and the only true Prophet the World will ever behold as the King of all kings and Lord of all lords! In Luke 21:25-27 Jesus Christ prophesied,

*And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations (as every nation is being shaken), with perplexity (bewilderment and confusion); the sea and the waves roaring (the nations of the world in uproar as major disasters, civil unrests and wars are taking place); Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

On January 28, 2010 God's Holy Spirit spoke to me (Desi) and said, God He Himself is going to send forth His Glory by the Power of His Own Right Arm. Until now God has not been able to trust man with the Glory of His Power, but at the set time of God's economy God is going to send forth His Glory, and no man and no woman on earth is going to be able to take the glory belonging to God alone unto their own selfish desires, ambitions, or material gains. In 1987 God spoke and said, "A Genuine Spiritual Awakening is coming, but it will not come UNTIL HARD TIMES COME." How seriously hard and difficult do things have to get before God is able get the attention of His People as well as the attention of the world? This book casts much light on these topics as well as the false teachings of men's private interpretations. God help North America and the people of the World to turn to Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior while there is still time!

Prophecy and vision given October 5, 2011 at 2:30 am:
regarding the nation of Israel

“I was very suddenly awakened with a jolt and did not expect to see the following: In a terrifying and shocking vision, as if this will take place in the not too distant future, the armies of Turkey were literally moving against Israel. It was a most horrifying sight to see these massive armed forces coming from the north against the small nation. As, I saw this taking place, the words also came, that Israel would have no choice but to resort to defend itself with weapons the world has not yet seen.”

No matter how the Devil tries to destroy the Jewish people God will keep the Covenant that He made with the Fathers (Abraham, Isaac and Jacob). It was not Russia that was shown moving against Israel, (In chapters 5 and 6 I share the visions God gave to me concerning Russia over 30 years ago) but it was Turkey and according Ezekiel 38:3-9 tells us:

Thus says the Lord God; Behold I am against you, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: And I will turn you back ... I will bring you forth and all your army, horses and horsemen ALL OF THEM CLOTHED WITH ALL SORTS OF ARMOUR, even a great number of them handling swords (weapons of war): (From east to) Persia, (and west to) Ethiopia and Libya all of them ... Gomer and all his bands; the house of Togarma (Turkey) of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with you ... You shall ascend and come like a storm, you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you and all your bands and many people with you.

In Ezekiel 39:2-7 we also find,

I will turn you back and leave only 1/6th part of you as I will cause you to come up from the north parts and will bring you upon the mountains of Israel: I will cause your weapons of war to fall out of your right hand (they will not succeed)! And you shall die upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your bands, and the people that are with you, ... you shall die in the open fields for I have spoken it says the Lord God. And I will send fire on Magog and among them that live carelessly in the Isles (including the western world) and they shall know that I am the Lord. So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel: and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One of Israel.

In the end we find in Zechariah 14:5 telling us that the enemies of Israel are going to flee even as they did during the earthquake that took place during King Uzziah's time: "and the Lord God is going to come bringing all His saints with Him."

How can anyone argue with what God has already spoken through His prophets, 2500 years ago? Throughout the last 30 plus years when ever God has given me visions, I have always found the answers in the Word of God – the Holy Bible, and He would show me things that I would never have learned otherwise.

Word of Appreciation

A Big Thank You to Michael Kerry from Abbotsford, B.C. Canada for his kindness and hard work in helping us with the editing of the book.

Next: Martha and I (Desi) are so glad and so thankful that Dr. J. Edward Morris and his dear wife Cindy were able to make this book a reality. We are so glad and so thankful to the Lord for you both. We are very glad to know you.

Special thanks also to our pastor and his wife, Dennis and Marion Guenther and family of God at the Mission Zion Christian Fellowship Church (our home church since 1993) in Mission, BC Canada and all our friends that have known us for many years: including all the saints that did radical intercession for me on Thanksgiving Day on October 8, 2006 at the former Global Harvest Church (Transform Central) in Abbotsford, BC when I was dying in the hospital in Amsterdam. My heart had been racing over 140 per minute, causing serious chest pains, my body full of poison, and crippled up in both legs with extreme pain and very high fever: all of these for several days. They actually stopped the service on Sunday morning to storm heaven, when the dramatic turnaround came to all of the above conditions. Also want to thank all our friends in Ontario, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia. Thank you!

We also want to thank the Lord for His provision financially that made the publication of this book possible. We truly trust that it will bring Glory to the Wonderful and Lovely

Name of Jesus Christ and bear much fruit in these last days as the Gospel of God's Kingdom is being preached to all nations. We probably couldn't have found better people to work with - thank you!

Martha and I pray every day that the money that has been donated and is being sent to help the poor, and distributed from the ministry God has entrusted us with; Feeding the Hungry Global Ministries - Our ministry is dedicated 100% to help those in need and we pray that all who contribute, will be rewarded greatly as they help to generate God's blessings.

We see many gifts that come from unexpected sources to help the poor, the widows and the orphans. We are in the process of expanding the work in Malawi, as well as neighboring countries only as God's Holy Spirit enables and directs us (October 2011 - Until Jesus Comes). We are so glad that God cares about the orphans and the poor widows even as James 1:27 says, "True Christianity and one that is undefiled before God and the Father is this; to help and to visit the fatherless (the orphans) and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world." God bless you for being the true servants of the Lord that you truly are. On behalf of Feeding the Hungry Global Ministries and the board of directors thank you all once again!

Finally, if there is any glory, honor and praise we encourage every single one of us to give it all to Father God. His Son Jesus Christ (The Precious Lamb of God) who sacrificed His own life for the Salvation of humankind, and the Blessed Holy Spirit of God. Thank you Heavenly Father and thank you Lord Jesus!

Introduction

“Rise up and Walk” How glorious and wonderful that the same Jesus who healed a crippled man and said, “Rise up and Walk” was able to speak into a small 9 year old boy’s life: And with the help of God’s divine guidance and protection, Dezso (Desi) was able to miraculously walk into freedom from Russian Communism (the Iron Curtain) all by himself. To God Be the Glory, Great things He has done! This is my story and humble beginnings.

Communist Hungary, 1947—the year and place my life began. My dad was born in 1904; my mother in 1910. They lived through two World Wars. During the first Great War they were still young, but by the time the Second World War came, they were married with six children. During the latter part of 2nd World War, their seventh child was born - my sister Marika; it was a time of terrible hardships.

Wars, as I know them, have always been the judgment of God upon the nations. The book of Proverbs tells us, "The blessing of the Lord makes rich and it adds no sorrow with it." Wars do just the opposite and bring only heartache. Through war the enemy of our souls comes to steal the blessings of God, to kill, and to destroy. That is what wars do! Nothing good has ever come out of war except maybe to cause people to rethink their lives and to repent before God regarding the works of their hands, and at times to get rid of evil and wicked dictators.

My mother told us how my father fought flames on one occasion in their hometown in eastern Hungary. During the fighting and shelling that was going on by the enemy armies the roof of our home caught fire. As far as I know he was able to save the house from burning.

Another time they were able to take cover in the basement of one of the larger town buildings during the heavy fighting between the Germans and Russians. This took place in their home town of Mezőszemere, Eastern Hungary, during World War II. They heard a live shell hiss its way into the ground next to them, but it never did explode. My mother apparently aborted a pair of twins during the war, a sad result of the hard times.

It was after World War II in 1946, that my parents decided to move across the country from the area of Eger to the town of St. Peter, which was close to the Austrian border. Before I was born, they moved with their six children, and one baby (Marika). They had two rickety wooden wagons, each pulled by two horses. Can you imagine coming across Hungary, traveling over 200 miles on muddy and dirt roads that had been for the most part been destroyed during the war, from east to west all the way to the western area of the country? The trip took several days with a baby and six children. This took place in the spring of 1946; I was born 15 to 16 months later at end of August 1947.

I grew up in a communist country that was basically anti- God, but I always had a healthy belief and fear of God in my life. No one in our family ever went to church except for my sister Marika (Maria) and me. As far as I know there was no interest in God on the part of the rest of my family. My mother apparently used to be quite a pious woman before the Second World War, but I guess the hardships and bad experiences caused her to be disillusioned with the things of God. As for myself I knew there was a God, and even though I was never taught in the ways of God, no one could ever convince me that there was no God. One friend, when I was around five years old, tried to tell me that God did not exist, only to receive a very sharp rebuke. Don't be so foolish, I told him. If there was no God then where did everything come from? I also went on to tell him never to talk that way—and to the best of my memory, he never dared to mention such foolishness to me again.

On another occasion as two of our neighbors were sweeping the sidewalks in front of their homes on opposite sides of the street, one yelled across the street to the other that if God willed it her broomstick would be able to fire off like a rifle. Even though she meant it as a joke, her words caught my attention and spun me around completely, and within my spirit I could hear myself say, "I believe that with all of my heart!" Other than my strong faith in God, I lived quite a normal life like any other child.

The only thing that was not appreciated was the older boys in our neighborhood who used to beat me up. And when I heard that one of them parachuted off his dad's barn in a wooden crate and hit his head when he landed, I was overjoyed to hear that he got back what he deserved.

My parents were basically good to me. The only thing I was afraid of was the violent temper that my dad had. On one occasion he got upset with me. As he chased me, I ran out onto our street in front of the house, and then looked back as he hollered to me, "Don't you ever come home!" Of course he didn't mean it, but in his rage it just came out that way. I finally came home, but only when it was dark and tried to sleep on our porch in between the dried beanstalks, which gave very little comfort or warmth. I remember the long night and waiting for morning to come and going several times to see if the night was going to soon be over. I must have made quite a racket because my mother finally came out to see what was going on around 1:30 in the morning. Realizing it was me she was very upset with my dad both for saying what he did, as well as scaring me half to death. My poor dad had his problems.

Here are some of the other things I remember about my childhood. First, there was the brown dog we had. Then, the neighbor's geese chased me one day in their yard, and I ran screaming and hollering as they bit my backside. It really hurt! Another time my mother took me to the doctor to cut a boil on my rump to get rid of the poison. They had a hard time holding me down as he was trying to cut it open. The last time I remember having such a trauma was when my brother Barnabas took me to the doctor to get a bad tooth pulled. I kicked and screamed and fussed all over that one as my brother carried me home on his shoulder. I mean this doctor took a pair of pliers, took hold of my tooth, and just yanked it out. My brother just laughed at me and so did the doctor. I was both hurting and upset with them for being so mean to me.

We used to go to the homes of the little girls and sprinkle them with scented water. One Easter, I was the only one among my friends who had the courage to go into the doctor's home. I came out a winner as I received the biggest coin of the day, while my friends waited on the far side of the street, to see if I would return or not.

I remember my mother sending me to the store if she needed something because my sister would usually forget to bring back some of the things my mother asked her to get. I liked going—especially when I would bring home vinegar. Before I would enter my yard, I would sit down on our front steps on the street and gulp down a few mouths full. For me vinegar was great stuff and I loved to taste it.

On hot summer days when my dad was out with the men from the collective farm harvesting the grain fields, I was generally appointed to take him his hot lunch that my mother had prepared for him. I guess this was because of the long days that the men would often put in.

At other times, I would just play on the road in front of my house wearing nothing but my black trunks. I would sit down on the ground and fill my shorts up with the fine dust on the road, and then I would get up and run full speed ahead leaving a giant dust storm behind me and must have been quite a site by the end of the day, covered with dust from head to toe. This was one of my favorite pass-times. In my younger years spent in Hungary, I loved to run and play (even if by myself) and it seemed like I was always running.

I will never forget the day our neighbor's barn caught on fire due to being struck by lightning, and set the hay on fire.

Another time, my sister, Marika, was walking home in the dark, decided to take a short cut and fell into a poorly covered toilet from the demolished neighbors' house across the street from us. I had the laugh of my life as she came in crying her face off, covered with you know what past her waist and up to her elbows.

There are two or three more situations I would like to mention. One was the way the Communists treated the people. One day the tax collectors came. I can still see the retired neighbor lady in tears begging the men not take their only pig away because it was their food for Christmas and the coming year. We quickly ran to tell our mother who was washing clothes inside the house. She barricaded herself inside, closed all the shutters on the windows, and told us to tell the men there was nobody at home. As long as our parents were not present, they would not take anything away. So we were very fortunate that they left empty handed that day. Because most people were too poor to give money, the tax collectors would suddenly come and confiscate things and the people never knew what they would take ahead of time.

I was close to six years old when Joseph Stalin, the wicked dictator of the Soviet Union, died in 1953. I remember so clearly the announcement of his death. Then there was the long line up that my mother had to go to early in the morning, when it was announced that there would be some meat in the local store. Meat was a rare commodity in those days after the war years and especially after the Communists had taken over the country. I guess much of what was produced first went to feed the Communists and the Red Army.

Suicides were always very high in Hungary—at times the highest in the world. On one occasion I remember someone complaining that one of our neighbors was about to commit suicide. As children we went running into his barn and seeing him throw a rope over the beam to hang himself with his wife frantically crying and pleading. Then, we went running to our parents and neighbors to stop the man.

In 1956 the people of my country had become completely disillusioned with the Communist regime and the lies they had promised the people, saying how much better things would be with them in power. Of course there were no elections, so the people in Budapest decided to take to the streets in peaceful demonstrations. On October 23, 1956, the machine guns of the AVO (Allami Vedo Osztyaly—the government's police force) opened fire on the people. Needless to say the situation instantly turned into an all out revolution and blood bath. It soon spread to all the major cities in the country. It was one week later that the Soviets came with their tanks and armored vehicles and crushed the rebellion that had formed against their foreign domination of Hungary. Many of the AVO were captured and regarded as traitors, and were mercilessly and ruthlessly tortured to death or hanged

One interesting situation took place prior to the revolution. During the summer of 1956 the government of Hungary for no apparent reason except that it was the sovereign intervention of God, ordered all the land-mines taken up that had been buried along the border of Austria and Hungary. Thus when the exodus of refugees began in November, as the revolution was being crushed, and thousands of people began fleeing the country into Austria and the free world, thousands of lives were saved as a result of God's intervention. All of my brothers, who were more than a decade older than me, became involved in helping the refugees across the border and into the free world.

By the end of November three of my brothers had left the country permanently. I remember clearly the neighbors in our hometown encouraging one another, "Why don't you go. It is much better over in the free world than it was in Hungary". To my thinking, if it was much better then why were we staying? I also tried to convince my parents by saying to them, "Why don't we go?" Soon there were things like oranges showing up at our house and things that we had never seen as my bother Joseph would come back from one of his trips across the border. To me it was Canaan land and I was determined to go and wanted to be in the Promised Land, even though I knew nothing about those things, or the Bible.

At the beginning of December 1956, I tried to escape across the border with my sister Marika. As we had left our home and began to walk in the direction of the border, she began to cry. It was already night and being scared of the dark, she used the excuse that she was going to miss our mom and dad, so we turned back. I was very upset with her to say the least that she was such a big chicken! My brother Barnabas told me many weeks later when he found me in Austria, had both Marika and I been there, he would have sent us back to Hungary.

It was after that experience that God put it in my heart to leave, and I also knew that I would have to leave by myself, but I had no idea when. Nor, did I say anything about it to anyone. It was very much like when God sent the angel Gabriel to Mary the mother of Jesus, and we are told that she pondered the things that were told her in her heart.

During the last week I was in Hungary, and already knowing that I was going to go, it was at my oldest sister's house that I cried on two separate occasions. She had two little girls whom I was always with—a one-year old and the other two, and I hated to leave those two behind. I wasn't going to miss anyone else, but those two were very special to me. As I stood in front of the playpen in their kitchen, my sister saw me crying and asked what was wrong. I simply said to her, "Oh, it is nothing," and walked out. This happened twice during that last week.

On December 11, 1956 as I woke up and saw the sunbeams coming through our bedroom window, I heard the voice of the Holy Spirit of God, or God's angel, speak these words to me: "Today is the day for you to leave." (In Hungarian, "Most az a nap hogy elkel meni.") Upon hearing those words I got up and prepared an extra lard sandwich for the day in case I got hungry.

I would always make one sandwich for my school break, but this time decided to make the second sandwich out of the red grease that my mother had used for cooking. At school I boldly told my classmates I was leaving the country. They all thought it was the biggest joke they had ever heard, and laughed me to scorn. Not shaken by their behavior, I simply said nothing more, and left them alone. On the way home from school, I made sure I was by myself. Coming up to our house, my dad and brother in law were just going past with a team of horses pulling a wagonload of hay. I waved to them, and once they were out of sight, I simply walked down my street and began my trek out of my hometown of St. Peter where I was born, and headed for the border area of my country.

I remembered overhearing my brother Barnabas explaining to my parents that they had to be careful which direction they went to cross the border because at one of the large lookout towers there was an army base. I honestly had no idea at which one of the two lookout towers was the army base. Commonsense just dictated to me to go for the one that was the farthest from my home. Unknown to me however, I began to head straight toward the one that was located next to the army base. After walking about 3 or 4 kilometers across the open fields toward the lookout tower, suddenly I saw three soldiers coming toward me. At this same time, I had come to a road on my left-hand side. On the far side of the road a group of farmers were bringing together the lose hay from off the fields and creating this giant haystack which even today can be found in parts of Europe. Immediately I walked across the road to where the farmers were and seeing the soldiers coming, one of them told me to get under the wagon and hide.

The soldiers arrived exchanged some words with the farmers and called me out and took me aside to talk to me privately. Turning out to be Hungarian border guards, the first thing one of them said to me was that they had all thought I was a soldier. “Had we known you were a child,” he continued, “we would have not bothered.” It was the large green overcoat that my mother had purchased for me after the summer of 1956, which was much the same as theirs in color, and because of the open fields they were unable to tell the difference between a grown up and a small boy. They seemed disgusted with themselves and embarrassed at first, but then proceeded to ask me where I had come from.

Because of the people my parents had in our home prior to my brothers helping them escape, we heard many stories about the fighting and the revolution. Needless to say, I was terrified of the soldiers, and the situation I had now gotten myself into. As they asked where I was from, the following story, to my amazement, began to just roll out of my mouth, and off the top of my tongue. I proceeded to tell them how I had come from Budapest. I was at home with my parents, all of my brothers and sisters had left the country permanently, and when the Russians came into our area, our house got hit by a bomb, and both my parents were killed. Because of fear, I began to cry. I continued, telling them my aunt had brought me out here and told me to try somehow to get across the border, for it would be better for me to find the rest of my family than to be left behind as an orphan.

Chapter One

Austrian Adventure!

The miracle of the whole situation was that the soldiers walked with me another 3.5 kilometers to the other lookout tower, and they never once looked inside my handbag containing my schoolbooks. Once we got to the border they simply let me go and waved me across the border. I spent the next seven weeks all by myself in Austria, a foreign country, and had one of the most wonderful times in my entire life being there.

The Bible tells about Abraham and how God spoke to him in Genesis 12:1: The Lord said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household and go to the land I will show you."

Then in Hebrews 11:8-10, we read again,

By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. By faith he made his home in the Promised Land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. Abraham was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

These scriptures bless my soul, because they describe a parallel between my life and the life of Abraham.

Little did I know that I would end up over 10,000 miles away from my homeland, and I would never see my family for another 18 years by which time I had lived twice as long in Canada as in Hungary. By then I was also married to a lovely wife who immigrated to Canada with her family from Finland, and we had two wonderful sons of our own.

As I arrived at the border, one of the border guards walked toward the bushes, another was on his way toward the lookout tower and had his field glasses strapped around his neck, and the third one simply waved me on across the border. On the left-hand side, I could see the Austrian border guard dressed in his gray-blue army uniform and a rifle on his shoulder pacing back and forth. Going across a ditch and past a torn down fence, I was now in Austria. Walking across the fields, I finally started to get hungry. The second lard sandwich, made from the used grease that my mother cooked with, tasted terrible. I can still see it flying through the air like a flying saucer as I threw it past a bomb shelter.

I finally came across an Austrian farmer who was plowing his field with a large, black horse. That man proved to be very kind and helpful to me. He knew enough Hungarian that we were able to understand each other, and he told me he was taking me over to his neighbor who would give me a ride into one of the border towns called Andau. The famous American writer, the late James Michener, spent the entire month of November at the Refugee camp there to witness what was called "The Great Escape." He was compiling material for his book "The Bridge at Andau." I am certain that my brothers had met the man because they spent a lot of time helping people escape. Years later when I finally read the book, I remembered some of the stories shared in it because we had heard the same stories in my parents' home.

The Austrian farmer was very kind to me. When he stopped plowing, he walked me to his neighbor and made arrangements to have me taken to the refugee camp or 'lager' as they called it. His neighbor had a luxury wagon with two beautiful spotted gray horses.

The wagon was equipped with rubber wheels and a large comfortable seat that was also mounted on springs. To me this was really something. We proceeded to the nearest town.

Arriving at the refugee camp, he stopped, pointed to the small gate in the picket fence, and told me to go in. As I walked into the compound, it had just started to get dark.

I had left school around one in the afternoon, and now it must have been getting close to 5 o'clock. No sooner had I walked to the far end of the compound, when one of my countrymen made a remark that the refreshment stand was now open. As I turned to look, sure enough they were just beginning to give out some food. I walked to the stand toward the back corner of the compound, and found them giving out sweet black tea and rye bread with a nice thick slice of white cheese on it. Did it ever taste good! Feeling refreshed, I was full of curiosity and wanted to see everything there was to explore.

I walked back to the front of the camp and on the left-hand side I came to a door that opened up into what looked to me like a barn, but as my mother informed me many years later, it actually was a dance hall. There was hay all over the floor, and right next to the door again on my left-hand side was a group of women sitting and talking. Sitting sideways from me was a lady whom I recognized, and who also had been in our home just two days earlier. My brother Joseph was the one who helped smuggle the people across the border because he was still involved in helping people escape. Seeing the lady frightened me, and I sure did not want her to recognize me. Not wanting to jeopardize my trip, I got out of there as fast as my legs could carry me.

Next I came to a very large door. To my delight it led out on to the street in front of the refugee camp. Walking through the door, and turning to my left, I decided to go and see the town, not considering that it was already dark out and that something bad could happen to me.

I hardly began to make my way down the street when suddenly behind me I heard a large commotion. Turning around I could see three full sized buses with a large number of people standing on the sidewalk beside them. From the distance I was not able to make out whether these people were speaking German or Hungarian. Finding this to be very interesting, I began to walk toward them and was delighted to find them to be my own people. Within a minute they all started to board the buses. I simply got in line with them and boarded one of the buses as well. This was proving to be quite exciting for me!

After traveling approximately 40 minutes, the buses stopped in front of a large building. Everyone began to leave the buses and to pour into the building. There was a large flight of stairs that went straight up to a landing. Next to the landing was a large room, with wooden floor and hay around the perimeter of the room. Every person was given a blanket, and they immediately were asked to please lie down, side by side—just like sardines—around the perimeter. For the first time, as all the people filed in and went past me, I really felt lost. I just stood there, not knowing what to do? One of the men in charge seeing the puzzled look on my face asked, “Where are your parents?”

“Don’t have any.” I replied.

He asked again, “Then who are you with?”

I said, “Nobody”.

He could hardly believe what he had heard, and turning to a man who was also helping him, exclaimed, “Look this boy is all by himself!” He immediately asked one of the young, married couples who were close by if they would mind taking care of me. They agreed and were given an extra blanket. As soon as everyone was settled, the lights were turned out—except for the hall light. The next thing I knew it was time to get up—morning had come.

This was all really exciting for a nine-year old boy but I hadn’t seen anything yet! I do not remember very much about the rest of the day except having breakfast in a large cafeteria. The next exciting thing was going across the Danube River somewhere in Vienna, which I had never seen before. Upon arriving at a very large refugee camp (the place was called Traiskirchen) somewhere on the outskirts of Vienna, I was put in the care of an older man and woman. They gave me a bath, and brand new clothes and new shoes. The coat given to me was actually a sports coat, and looked like a miniature suit.

I spent the next several weeks at this refugee camp that was apparently a former Russian army base during Second World War. There were still Russian writings on the walls of the camp that separated the base from the rest of the town. I was kept separate from the other refugees and slept in the hospital ward of the base. I remember having a crush on a very pretty Hungarian-Jewish nurse (the crush was mostly because she was Jewish) with long black hair who took care of me and made my bed in the mornings. I also got to know the older couple that took care of me the first day I arrived there because they had me come to their house and visit them. The house had a closed in porch filled with the most beautiful birds I had ever seen. Years later I realized the birds were actually budgies that they raised to help subsidize their income.

Then there was the food line. Everybody had received a food ticket that would be punched for the meals received, so that no one would cheat on the amount they were given to eat. Even here I was treated in a special way. I was never given a ticket, and everybody seemed to know that I was the little boy who was all by himself. Even the Austrian cooks and chefs, as they helped dish out the food, just gave me a giant smile as they dished out my portion.

Also there was an ambulance driver who not only got to know me from sleeping in the hospital ward, but who became my best friend while I was at the base. He often took me to his home for dinner and I enjoyed the delicious food his wife prepared. He had two beautiful little girls that could not have been more than 3 or 4 years of age. My first ride in an automobile was actually his ambulance in which several times he took me to the hospital for tours. On one occasion I remember him having to go out into the country area where he had to pick up a sick lady. I was his co-pilot since I always sat up front in the passenger's seat. On this day he was telling me how that area of the country used to be a part of Hungary, and the border was less than 50 kilometers away. The Austrians were wonderful people and were always very kind to me.

At Christmas time, the young married couple that took care of me the first night I was in Austria asked me if I had written a letter to my parents. Upon telling them no, they replied, “You write a letter and we will mail it for you.” They informed me that my parents would be quite worried and concerned because of me—that was something I had never given any thought to. I basically did not have time even to think about them.

Sixteen years after I left home, my parents came to visit us in Canada, and only then did my mother inform me regarding some of the things that happened. One of the first things she talked about was the day after I escaped, thirteen of my classmates were picked up in a horse buggy and brought back from the border area of the country because they were going toward the border after me. Also the day I left Hungary half the town people were out in the fields looking for me behind the bushes and rocks. They all thought I was playing a prank, and basically nobody believed I was serious about leaving the country. Following that ordeal, my mother spent an entire week inside the border area of Austria with my brother Joseph searching for me. Getting on the bus that first evening was not only important, but was also my salvation. The day they returned, my dad had the horses and wagon loaded and was ready to head for the border, thinking that my mother had left permanently as well.

My parents received my letter. Later in Canada my mother went on to explain that they had to laugh at all the things I wrote about. It wasn't, “Mom and Dad I miss you and want to come home.” The letter was telling them about all the good food I was eating, all the chocolate milk I was drinking, the new clothes that were given to me, and the wonderful time I was having. She actually said they had a good laugh over the letter when they read it. The trip to Canada greatly comforted my mother's heart, and said she could have never dreamed how people lived in Canada compared to Hungary.

The last thing she told us was regarding the soldiers that helped in my escape. Apparently one of them was courting a young lady down the street from our home. He was at the peoples' place only a couple of days after my escape and was telling them about this poor little guy—the story I had given them—and how they helped me across the border. When the parents informed the young border guard that the little guy he was talking about was the Jakab boy down the street, apparently they never saw the three soldiers again. I have a feeling they all fled the country as well. One of my lifetime dreams and prayers is that it would surely be wonderful to meet one of those soldiers someday.

Around the second week in January 1957, I was transferred to another refugee camp in the Austrian Alps at Mariazell. The Austrians had apparently set up a home for young people that had escaped from Hungary who also came without parents. Many had older brothers and sisters they came with together.

After being there for only a week and a half, I decided to go up the local ski hill with a sled. Once I got to the top of the first hill, I realized there was another hill. After that, another hill, and after that yet another one still, and on it went.

As I reached the top of the third hill, I began to get tired and thought it was high enough. Towing the sled behind me, I finally got on top of it and went flying down the mountain like the wind! At the bottom of the mountain there was a ditch I'm sure must have been used for drainage when the snow started to melt in the spring. The ditch was also use by the skiers during the ski season. On the far side of the ditch there was a large green, wooden fence separating one of the main roads that went through the town. For days I had watched the people go up on the towrope and admired the skiers, including many children, as they would come down the hill at a very fast speed. As they reached the ditch they would go down into it, fly up into the air, and in midair turn around and slide back into the mountain to stop—otherwise they would have no other choice but hit the fence. I was quite intrigued at the skill they all did this with one after the other. Now it was my turn.

As I went flying down the hill, I also hit the ditch, but to my surprise I flew straight up into the air some 15 to 20 feet high, and spinning out of control with sled and all, came crashing down like a pile of bricks. I must have put my hand down toward the snowy ground as I went to break my fall, only to feel excruciating pain in what was my left elbow. The pain was so bad that all I remember is this red headed man running toward me. When I recovered consciousness I realized I was being taken into the hospital. I also remember them putting a cast on me either later in the day or the next day. I was okay except for the fact that I had thrown my elbow out of place. I spent the next few days in the hospital recuperating. This was again my salvation.

During my stay in the hospital, some of the young people at the home rebelled against the leadership, and quite a few of them left. Being easily influenced by older young people, I would probably have been with them. Fortunately for me, my stay in the hospital kept me out of trouble. Unfortunately for them, as I had later learned, many of them were apparently sent back to Hungary. In every situation, God always seemed to be one step ahead of me because when God speaks and we obey His voice things always turn out even miraculously if the need is there!

The day after I got out of the hospital my brother Barnabas, 15 years older than me, showed up at the children's home looking for me. After a happy reunion, he immediately gave me the option as to what I wanted to do. "Do you want to go back to Hungary to be with the family, or do you want to go to Canada with me?"

My answer was obvious, as I had no desire to go back whatsoever!

Early next morning on January 31, 1957, and a very cold winter morning, we were off to the train station and on our way to Vienna. I have seldom been as cold as I was on that morning. My brother went to the Canadian embassy to make arrangements for the trip to Canada. That evening we stayed in Vienna and spent the night inside one of the prisons where all the inmates were dressed in grey and white striped outfits. As we were shown to a cell and were about to go to sleep, I was so hungry, that my brother had to ask for some bread from the prison official to kill the hunger pangs.

I still remember some of the bombed out buildings that were in the city from the last war. Then, there were other areas where the street went beside a canal and park-like setting. For the most part Vienna was a very beautiful city.

By the next day with our immigration papers in hand, we were sent to a very large army barracks turned into yet another refugee camp near Wiener Neustadt waiting for our turn to leave Austria for Canada. The camp was located near mountains in a country setting. The grass was green with many deer in the area and also forests and streams nearby. Then, within another week, I was on one of the most beautiful train rides I had ever seen. The train took us across the Austrian Alps in winter, and into Italy. The scenery was simply unbelievable as everything was covered with snow. I remember having my nose glued to the window as the train passed along the side of the mountains during the night. Down in the valleys the towns were lit up like pictures out of a storybook. It was one of the most beautiful sceneries I had ever seen! I remember coming into Trieste, and as the train went parallel to the shoreline of the Adriatic Sea, straining my eyes as I saw the ocean for the first time. I was not able to understand why the skyline touching the ground was much lower than the train. It seemed strange at first, until I realized that it was the blue color of the ocean.

The ship we were put on was an Italian liner called the Vulcania (fem. for volcano). It was a wonderful trip. One of the first places we stopped at was Venice. The ship anchored well outside the city, and my brother was one of the people able to go ashore on a smaller boat. I can still see the tall tower that Venice is famous for as it stood quite a distance from the ship. As I watched the boat leave for the city, for the first time in my life I encountered several bearded Hungarian Jews dressed in their black attire at the bow of the ship standing close to me. Having never been taught the ways of God, and never knowing our family tree or background, I felt such an affirmation of love and kinship in my heart toward these people. It was real and alive and an experience that I shall never forget—also the reason why I felt such affirmation toward the young Hungarian Jewish nurse earlier at Traiskirchen.

Then I remember one evening as the ship was sailing past northern Africa. I had never seen such a beautiful golden yellow sunset in all of my life. I also remember going through the Straits of Gibraltar. It was a beautiful sunny day; the water was unusually black, and there were no giant waves to speak of as the water was very calm—but the ship was rocking as if it was in a major storm. I remember being quite amazed as the current flowing through the narrow channel between the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean caused it to be so. Seeing the giant fish that swam alongside of the boat was also exciting. During this first part of the voyage, I would stand at the bow of the ship—where I seemed to spend most of my time—amazed at the speed those fish could swim and also the size of them. Only later in Canada did I learn that they were dolphins.

After the Rock of Gibraltar where we also anchored for a short while, we were in the stormy and windy northern Atlantic. The weather got so bad that they had to close down the top of the ship as giant thirty-foot high waves would sweep over the bow—on one occasion hitting the ship so hard that some of the tables in the dining room fell over.

During this stormy crossing of the Atlantic, my favorite pass-time was running downhill along the hallways in the bottom of the boat as the ship would go up and down from front to back. My brother was too busy dancing and enjoying the parties on board. Neither my brother nor I got sick during the 14-day crossing. I was too busy running and enjoying the trip in my own way with my friends. It was exciting to see the Royal Canadian Air Force plane come close to us and circle our ship, as they checked us out after entering Canadian waters. Finally, when we got into the port at Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada we got the shock of our lives! Only then did we realize how small our ship really was as we pulled up beside and had to go past the giant ship, Queen Elizabeth II.

At Pier 21 we became landed immigrants on February 28, 1957. Again what a joy it was to me when exactly 40 years later to the day, on February 28, 1997, the Canadian Broadcast Corporation did a documentary on Pier 21. As I watched the program, I personally took it as a special gift from God!

From Halifax we traveled by train across Canada to Chilliwack, British Columbia, a trip that took us five days and nights. There were so many bridges to cross that I lost count of them. The largest train station I had ever seen was at the city of Winnipeg. From Chilliwack we were taken by bus to the Abbotsford airport, which was a former military base used for training pilots during World War II. That became my home during the rest of March. We were all pleasantly surprised to arrive on the West Coast of Canada and to see the green grass and mild winter. What we saw during our trip across Canada was mostly wilderness, trees, many rivers, and snow everywhere.

The beginning of April, I was placed in a Hungarian-Canadian foster home. My foster parents were interpreters to the new refugees. They felt I would be a good companion to Jimmy, their only son, growing up on a dairy farm in Sumas Prairie, near Abbotsford, British Columbia. His older sisters Julia and Helen were both married, while Rose was going to university. My foster parents, Jim and Julia Sabo, were good to me and treated me well. I loved the farm. It was a wonderful place to live, and I loved taking care of the cows and milking them.

I spent only three months in grade one, learning the English language, and then was put into grade three for the next school term. From there I went on to graduate from high school.

It was in grade four that a friend of mine invited me to a Gospel meeting during lunchtime across the road from the school. For the very first time I was exposed clearly to the gospel message displayed by flannel graph on the black board, and I was very impressed. At the door of the chapel a man, who later ended up on the mission field somewhere, stopped me and prayed with me as I made a personal commitment to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! It was a wonderful experience as I invited God's gift to the world, His only begotten Son into my heart and life. I immediately felt a giant weight come off my shoulders. I actually could feel it leave me, and I was immediately filled with a joy that I had never in my life experienced. I am so grateful to God for bringing me so far from my home and family that I would have an opportunity to find Jesus as my Lord and the Savior of my life and through Him eternal life!

God's gift to the world and the forgiveness of our sins is only good if we take Him and receive Him into our hearts and lives. A song says, "Jesus is the One; He is the only One!"

Jesus was with God at the creation of the world. He was and is the Son of God. He came down from Heaven and gave His life, died, and then took it back on the third day as He rose from the grave, and is once again seated at the right hand of the Father! All other religious leaders in history were only mere men; Jesus was not! He was with the Father in Heaven at the creation of a vast universe, which is so big that it stretches from infinity to infinity, or if you like from eternity to eternity. Scientists claim that there are over 100 billion galaxies. Those are galaxies, and what kind of space do they take up? And yet that same God, who created everything, saw the miserable state of mankind and sent His only Son to this tiny planet called Earth that we may be brought back into fellowship with an Almighty Creator and His Son Jesus Christ after this very short life here on earth is over.

Imagine, living with God and His Son and ruling and reigning with them throughout all of eternity! What a bargain for being born into a lost world, and the only one who could help us out of the mess we inherited from the fall of man through Adam and Eve was God Himself and His Son Jesus—who was the Messiah. Thank you my God, my King, and the Lord of My life that you have put me on this incredible journey and have made my life so absolutely interesting.

I was twenty-seven years old when I returned to my family and homeland in 1974. My oldest brother (16 years senior to me) informed me that the whole family was upset that my mother had become pregnant again, and that I was not wanted before I was born. Little wonder why after the Lord directed me to leave I never became home sick, nor did I ever return until much later on in life. I am so thankful that the Lord does not make mistakes!

Also when I was a child, as far back as my memory can take me I used to have horrible nightmares in which my life was always threatened whenever I became sick with fever. They were always the same horrible nightmares, and every time I would wake up crying and knowing that my life was in danger. As I said earlier, I remember my mother telling us she aborted a pair of twins during Second World War. In the vision or dream I would always see the main street in my hometown as it went from St. Peter toward the railway tracks and toward St. John. It was always dark like it is at night, and very humid or damp as if it had been raining. As I walked down the road—always in the same direction (from east to west)—the pavement under my feet would suddenly begin to break up and heave until the entire road was broken up into giant boulders underneath my feet. Every time, I would wake up fighting for my life, crying and delirious with a high fever. I do not know to this day whatever happened to my mother or me when I was young and very likely still in the womb. Perhaps she took the poison women would take to try and abort the child at early stages of pregnancy—that I do not know for sure—but there was a spirit of trauma that was with me for many years.

One day during my stay at the refugee camp at the Abbotsford Airport I became sick. My brother had already left and was at the recreation hall. As I woke up out of sleep, delirious with fever, I could see people standing around my bed with knives in their hands wanting to kill me. Immediately I ran out of the room and down the road between the barracks, crying and screaming, “They are trying to kill me, they are trying to kill me!” I remember that vision ever so clearly even to this day!

Of course it was only a vision, but God used John and Paula Sanford from the Elijah House when they prayed for me in 1982 in Alberta, Canada to confirm the trauma that I had gone through. As they were praying and waiting on God, Paula received a vision in which she saw a baby inside the womb, and there were icicles all around him. Those icicles represented the evil words spoken in my family’s home, and the displeasure expressed after my mother become pregnant with me. That spirit inside a child knows and understands very clearly all that is going on even if they have not been born. Of course all those things are now under the blood of Jesus, and once I became born again, and gave my heart and life to Jesus, the horrid nightmares also stopped!

Just to confirm this, I remember one night after our youngest son Randy was born, and was probably no more than just a few months old, he woke me up in the middle of the night and was crying profusely and turning purple and blue as if he was not getting oxygen. I gently put my hand on him and began to rebuke this attack of the enemy. I then spoke to his spirit because he was too young to understand anything. I said to him, “Randy I speak to your spirit in the name of Jesus to receive the healing that Jesus has for you and also command your spirit to receive that healing and the peace that comes from Jesus.” Immediately he stopped crying, was healed, and went back to sleep with nothing wrong the next day.

In our case I am so grateful that God was always with us whenever our children got sick. I remember a friend of my wife talking to her and asking, “When the children were little and got this sickness or that sickness, what did you do?” Martha suddenly realized that in every situation, we simply prayed for them and God healed them every time! Healing was always a wonderful gift of God that operated not only for our children but for all within our home—no different from what Jesus did in the Bible. The Great Creator of all things surely knows how to fix the problems His children run into. We just need to come into relationship with Him and truly come to know both the Father and His Son Jesus Christ.

For several months before I ever returned to the country of my birth in 1974, God moved on my heart to pray fervently for my homeland and my family. Several years earlier in May 1968 I was in a Presbytery meeting in which hands were laid on me and in a word of prophecy I was seen going into a foreign country and was told that there would be signs and wonders following. I felt in my heart that it would be back to my own people. I had no desire to return until God moved on my heart after months of prayer. During my first trip back to Hungary in November 1974, several members of my own family accepted the Lord.

Before this trip, I was working in construction stuccoing with my foster brother and friend Ivan Oesch. The end of September or early October I got sick and finally left the job. It was at this time that God’s Holy Spirit began to speak to my heart, telling me to return and visit my family. Being unemployed I borrowed 2,000 dollars for my first trip back to Hungary. One thousand was to take care of my precious wife Martha and family in Canada and the other thousand was for my trip. Prior to the trip I felt there is no sense going if I could not do something for the Lord and went into the Canadian Society

Bible bookstore in Vancouver, BC and bought up all 37 Bibles in the Hungarian language to take with me.

I can still remember the Holy Spirit directing me in my bedroom the evening before leaving on my first trip to pack one of the flight bags full of Bibles and the second flight bag to put all my clothes into the center compartment, and Bibles in the outside pockets. The Holy Spirit was so powerfully with me because our home church in Abbotsford was praying for me.

Arrived at the airport in Budapest, I had gone almost 50 hours without any sleep. I was very excited to see my family and homeland after 18 years of absence. I was one of the last people to get off the plane, and arriving at the door of the Customs building at the airport in Budapest: Suddenly I could have died a thousand deaths as they were opening up all the suitcases of the people in front of me. As I stepped through the doorway, God's Holy Spirit spoke to me, "Trust in the Lord with all of your heart and lean not on your own understanding." Immediately a Customs agent in uniform walked up to me and took both of my suitcases and led me aside to what was a special search booth. I was the only one taken aside! As he left one of the flight bags outside and closed the green canvas curtain behind us, I couldn't for the life of me remember which flight bag had all the Bibles in it and which one had all my clothes in the center!

I was totally wasted both emotionally and with fatigue as he asked me to open up the flight bag. To my amazement the bag he left outside was the one full of Bibles while the one on the table in front of me had the center compartment that was full of clothes. Instead of reaching into the side pockets, which were also full of Bibles, he asked me what I had in them. I said, "I have some underclothes in there" (which I had placed on top of the Bibles so they would not be so obvious), and so I quickly pulled out a T-shirt to which he exclaimed, "I don't want to see that."

As he proceeded to go through my carry-on, I began to explain I had some personal items—shaver, tooth paste, etcetera—and before he got to see some New Testaments and Bibles further down, I told him that I did have some Bibles that I had brought with me as gifts for my family. He very carefully began to open up one of the Bibles, and as he was looking at it, he asked me what denomination I was with. My home church being non-denominational, I said, it was something like Pentecostal. He again said, “This Bible was translated into Hungarian by the Reformed Minister, Karolyi Gaspar: Don’t the two faiths conflict?” I said, “Oh no, the Bible is one, and he did a good job translating it.” By this time I had been literally shaking like a leaf through the whole ordeal. With my legs and body trembling, he with a giant smile on his face assured me, “Everything is fine, you don’t have to be so nervous.” What relief, and answer to prayer!

As I was leaving the Customs Security area, I realized what a giant miracle had just transpired. Not only did I leave Hungary miraculously but now the Lord my God was again bringing me back miraculously as well. Over the years I am so thankful that God has had his angels on assignment to protect me and our family!

I could share volumes on the wonderful supernatural experiences and the miracles that my wife and family have experienced over the years, including being literally raised off the death bed two different times and the visitation of God’s angel in the hospital in South Africa in December 2000, and in some of the books and volumes following I do intend to share more. But at this time I have to be obedient to the Holy Spirit and just share the messages He has spoken to me to share.

Only six weeks after I had returned from my first trip to Hungary, I was still out of work and still owed $2,000 I had borrowed from the bank. The beginning of February, 1975 at the breakfast table with my wife and children, not having two pennies to rub together, the Holy Spirit spoke to me once again and said, “I want you back in Hungary again in the month of June, and I will send someone else to go with you.” Immediately sharing with Martha the message the Lord had given to me, she replied “I’m not going with you!” The mention of her going behind the Iron Curtain scared her half to death!

Through a series of many miracles the next 3 months and God divinely directing us, including paying off all our bills and providing the finances for the next trip in June 1975, God sent Missionary and Evangelist Bud McLean to go with me behind the Iron Curtain. In one of the meetings, he was in the city of Budapest and there were at first only five people gathered. But, as he continued to go back the numbers began to grow.

During the early 1990s I felt rather discouraged and wondered about all that happened back in 1974-1975? With God helping us to sell our house in April 1975, we put all our money into the Lord’s work and then never seeing the fruit of it all for many years. Suddenly, I began to hear stories of a church that was gathering inside a football stadium on the outskirts of Budapest.

In 2001 I had the privilege to be in that church in Budapest, and to speak with the pastor personally. To the delight of both my wife and me, the Lord has multiplied the few loaves and fishes (we were able to use and give to the Lord in 1974 and 1975), into tens of thousands of people being saved and won into the kingdom of God over the years. Praying, listening, and then obeying the voice of God and truly coming to know Jesus is what it is all about! (See Matthew 11:25-30, 7:13-29 and also Luke 13:23-30.)

Chapter Two

Love Never Fails

Love never fails ...For we know in part and we prophesy in part; when I was a child, I used to speak as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things. For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I shall know fully just as I also have been fully known. But now abides faith hope and love these three; but the greatest of these is love (1 Corinthians 13:9-13).

I'd like to emphasize verse 12: Now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I shall know fully, just as I also have been fully known.

I believe with all my heart that this is one of the KEYS from which we can draw insight into why “Many will come before Him in that day, and they will say Lord, Lord and He will turn to them, and tell them I have never known you. Depart from me, all you that work iniquity” (Matthew 7:13-29 also Luke 13:23-30). God is very, very jealous over His people, even as Jesus is for His Bride.

In March of 1986, just after God had seriously begun to deal with issues in my own heart and life, I suddenly came to the realization that I did not know Jesus the way I needed to. After crying out to the Lord with tears and praying with a fresh realization that I needed to know Jesus, one of the questions I kept asking God was “Why is it that many would come before you Lord and you will say to them, I have never known you.” After praying and seeking the Lord into the third or fourth month, the Lord answered me and said these words to me, “Because they never took the initiative to come to know me!”

Oh yes, we may have been born again and washed in the blood of the Lamb into the family of God as new born babes, but after a period of time, if there is no growth or real change in the inward man, there is something drastically wrong. Having a casual relationship with God does not mean a person has truly come to know the Lord. A proper relationship with God is much like a husband and wife coming to know one another in an intimate way or two people becoming best of friends.

When we look at the lives of Cain and Abel who were the first brothers, and the sons of Adam and Eve, we see that they should have been best of friends, and both of them should have loved God, but what a tragedy. Abel loved God from the heart and pleased God, but Cain's heart was evil. Having been given the same opportunity as Abel, Cain's life turned from bad to worse. The spirit of error in Cain, rooted in jealousy and bitterness, rose up and killed the truth that was in Abel by taking his own brother's life—only to be driven from the presence of God, and to be marked by God. Cain, I believe, took the mark of a fallen beast nature, as he never did serve God "in spirit and in truth." Instead, he created a manmade religion and never came into a proper relationship with Father God. He took on himself the fallen beastly image of man. Whenever man walks out of the presence of God without Christ, man is lost for all of eternity!

After Cain went out from the presence of God, he became a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth. After his first son was born he commenced to build himself a city and a family tree having its roots in a false religion that was started on the wrong foundation. Cain for many years sowed into the earth his earthly carnal life, and in the process of time Genesis 4:3 says,

Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the Lord.

The book of Revelation talks about those that dwell on the earth and are inhabitants of the earth. In the King James Version there are exactly ten references. These people end up worshipping the image of the beast instead of the living Christ! That image is again a reflection, like looking into a mirror, of how we represent Christ to others in the earth.

Do we really and truly know the Father and His Son, Jesus? The mark God wants in us and upon us is the mark of Christ. To have His mark means to have His character, nature, love, likeness and sinless image in us.

Cain's end came when his great grandson killed him. This was the fourth generation whose name was Lamech and the story is found in the latter part of Genesis four. Lamech did more than killing Cain. Genesis tells us he had killed not only a man, but also a young man.

From Genesis 4:23-24 here is Lamech's confession to his wives, I have slain a man to my wounding and a young man to my hurt. If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold: truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

The Ancient Jewish historical book of Jasher written by Moses, as well as contemporaries and people after them, records clearly the following. "As Lamech's eyes were bad the young man went with him to help him hunt. Cain apparently was walking across the field, and had the form of an animal. The young man told Lamech to draw the bow. He helped aim it only to find out afterwards that it was Cain the son of Adam, their great grandfather to the fourth and sixth generation. Lamech upon discovering what had transpired struck the young man so hard that he also died." Cain was thus accidentally killed because he had the form of an animal. In Genesis 4:15 we read,

The Lord set a mark upon Cain in order that he would not be killed. To be killed means crucified: When a person has the mark of the beast or they take the mark they are not able to walk in the crucified life. They are operating in the flesh (where the spirit of the enemy has access) and not the spirit of God. To be killed means to walk in the crucified life which is a must if we are able to enter the Kingdom of Heaven, and to become a part of the overcoming believers even as Jesus overcame.

PLEASE TAKE NOTE: In 1 Corinthians. 2:12-14 Paul says,

“The things of God are not understood by the words which man’s wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Ghost teaches and they are spiritually discerned: Comparing spiritual things with spiritual). Because the natural or carnal mind of man does not receive (is not able to understand) the things that are from the Spirit of God.”

When we look into the book of Revelation, we find that only those who have the mark of the beast kill those who do not have the mark! The story of Cain and Abel is ever faithful to Truth as contained in God’s Word as we go from cover to cover! Cain had a fallen beast nature or the mark of the beast on him. The tragedy in Christian circles is that the mark and the image of the beast has always been from the beginning of time, and is described throughout the Bible, but we have refused to realize this.

There is much more that could be shared on this subject, but let us go on. Please note that the Book of Jasher is mentioned in Joshua 10:13; 2 Samuel 1:17. In the New Testament account of Jonas and Jambres in 2 Timothy 3:8-9 the names were directly quoted by the apostle Paul from the book of Jasher.

We all know that God is an all-knowing God. He knows everything about us—even the hairs on our head are numbered. Just like the stars—He calls individually by name. God knows everything. But does He truly know you and me?

What God taught me is if you and I have not spent proper time with Jesus to truly come to experience Him in a vibrant and living relationship then we truly do not know Him! Unless we are casting off that wicked, old nature of ours and being crucified with Christ daily, then we truly do not know Him! We must be taking up our cross daily to follow Him that we may become like Him, or we truly do not know Him! According to what the Holy Spirit told me very clearly, “We have not taken the initiative to come to know Him.”

God always waits for us to take the first step toward Him. If we do not know Him, then He simply says in that reflection like a mirror, “I do not know you because you have not come to know Me (God)”. If the nature, life, love, and character that we are displaying to both God’s people and to the world is not the life example of Jesus Christ in us, then we are lying against the Truth, which is the Word of God, and which is also Jesus! Our whole relationship and life hinges around the question, “Do we have God’s love and the example of Christ’s life radiating in us and through us or are we still living according to that old devilish and fallen sinful iniquity nature that we were all born with?”

I believe the church over the years has failed to teach the people of God the words of Jesus when He said, “Many false prophets (false preachers, false professors or workers of iniquity, while the apostle John calls them ‘many antichrists’) have gone out into the world.” The warnings Jesus gave in the scriptures concerning all of these things need to be taken seriously! Many of us have used terms like I am saved, or I am born again, and even more, yes I know the Lord. But have we really come to know Him? Even as I have seen the Lord’s dealings within my own life personally, and at times very seriously!

My whole purpose in writing this book is to stir the hearts and lives of God’s people and even the preachers that will have an ear to hear, that we need to be very serious about the things of God and truly come to know Jesus and the Father. May we all come into a proper relationship, and know the Father and His Son fully or, if you like, in the fullness of the power of God’s Holy Spirit! That is why it says in 1 Corinthians 13, I SHALL KNOW FULLY, EVEN AS I HAVE ALSO BEEN FULLY KNOWN! What a Statement of Faith!

Let us not put everything up into heaven and into the life hereafter; these words are just as faithful and true to us today as they were when the Apostle Paul wrote them to the church in his day! To the same extent, I come to know Jesus and the Father and learn to abide in them, and shall come to know them fully, the same way I also become fully known by them. Let's face it, the Great Creator of this vast universe, which stretches from eternity to eternity, or infinity to infinity, not only wants to become God, Lord and Master of our lives, but also to come into a full relationship with us as well. They want to be our all in all! They want us to become one in them the same way Jesus was one with Father God. To the same extent that we come to know them, they also declare to know us! Jesus said,

“If you confess me before men (by your life example and abiding in my love in word and deeds), him will I also confess before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever denies me before men (by their wrong life example and no love of God manifested in their words and works) I will also deny them before my Father which is in heaven.” Matthew 10:32-42

Many may have accepted Jesus at one point in their life just like I did. But being casually acquainted with someone does not mean one has come into a full relationship and can truly say he knows the Lord and that He is becoming Ruler, King, and Lord over every area of his life. In Isaiah 9 we read, Of the increase of His Government and His peace there will be no end. In Psalms 23 we are told, That I may dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

This simply means we become the dwelling place of the Lord forever as the tabernacles of the living God; and I will live in them and they shall be my people and I shall be their God (2 Corinthians 6:16-18).

We may be able to do great works, preach, and teach, but that does not mean we have taken the time we need to be madly in love with Jesus, nor does it mean we have positioned ourselves to be seated with Him in heavenly places.

I truly believe that a person has to be in a proper relationship and seated with Him in heavenly places in order to know Him face to face. I believe that is the position Moses was in, ... A man whom the Lord knew face to face (Dt. 34:10).

1 Corinthians 13:2-3 tells us,

We can have faith that moves mountains, know all mysteries, and have all knowledge. We can give our body to be burned, and bestow all our goods to feed all the hungry people in the world; but if we do not have charity, or LOVE it is all being done in vain.

To have the God kind of love or charity means, we have come into a knowing relationship with both God the Father and His Son Jesus Christ. And that means the very life and nature of God is in us—which is love. We are to love God with all our heart, mind, soul and strength, and our neighbor as our own self (Mark 12:30-31). In 1992, the Lord told me, “The only area you will ever be perfected in is in the area of love—God is love.”

Next, I would like to talk about the times in our lives when we all go through things—when we all get tried and tested. These are the times when God comes along and kills our dreams and visions and definitely wants to kill our flesh nature and “cut off” our carnal minds, or carnal heads, and replace them with the mind and the headship of Christ! These are the seasons in our lives when faith goes out the door, and you can only hope at the best of times—and sometimes even hope seems to disappear. These are the times when heaven seems to have become like brass to your prayers, and God seems to be far away.

1 Corinthians 13:13 tells us, Now there is faith, hope and charity or love, these three; but the greatest of these is love. As we have experienced over the years, God at times has come along and tested our faith and will even allow the vision that was birthed in faith to be killed; let me explain. Nothing in the universe has ever been initiated without faith. Even God made everything out of things that were not. He spoke the worlds into being all by faith and all by the word of His power! And what kind of power is that? But in order to keep us dependent upon Him and not on our own ability and talents, He will send at times great shakings into our lives that will test our faith. Allow me to paraphrase 1 Peter 1:6-9,

You need to learn to greatly rejoice, though for a season, if need be you are in heaviness through various trials and testing. That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it be tried by fire, you might be found in the attitude of praise, and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. Whom you have not seen, you love and are found alive and remaining and believing in Him. It is in these circumstances that we need to remember that we can by faith rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory. This way you can receive the end of your faith (the answer to your prayers, which is God's love made manifest), even to the salvation of your souls.

Rejoicing in adverse circumstances will release the power of God to change things. Often these may be the occasions when people, including myself, have said, "I hope so," with a sigh of resignation. Give God a chance to work.

I have been in situations where it seemed like all faith was gone—and even hope. But then there is God! This is when all those who do not understand will stand and shout at you, "What do you mean, 'I hope so'?"

In Haggai 2:6-9, we are told clearly that everything is going to be shaken—every person, country and nation under the sun! Note how God has started to shake everything in the world around us in our day. Of the great shaking that is yet to come, humankind has seen nothing yet! When the great empires men have built begin to crumble, and when men's lives are shaken, I hope and trust we will all have the integrity of spirit and heart to repent, and still be able to run to Jesus and not away from Him.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy, understanding (Proverbs 9:10).

Both Matthew 7 and Luke 13 clearly tell us that many will come to Him in that day and will say, “Lord, Lord” and He will say to them, “I have never known you, depart from me all of you that work iniquity.” In another place we are told we cannot even call Him Lord without the Holy Spirit. So here we are, touched by the anointing of God’s power and Spirit but adhering to untruth. Working through the iniquity nature instead of the pure love of God, men have taught and led God’s people but do not have the ability to bring them into maturity. God desires all of us to come into a full relationship with Jesus.

God is going to put all of us through the great shaking and the trial of our faith, during which time He has promised to remove that boastful spirit, the arrogance and all the pride, and everything in us that hinders us in our walk, and growth, and hinders the flow of God in our lives! All some do is preach on money and do not even know they have the spirit of greed or else were raised with the spirit of poverty and do not know the difference because sometimes the manifestation is the same. Jesus clearly warns,

Beware of the deceitfulness of riches (Matthew 13:22, Mark 4:19). Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and then all of these things, shall be added unto you. All of your needs shall be supplied according to His riches in glory (Matthew 6:33, Ephesians 3:16-19 and Philippians 4:19).

That is why we need to seek Him and truly come into a Holy Relationship with both the Father and His Son Jesus Christ, and be anointed the same way He was. 1 John 1:7 tells us,

If we walk in the Light as He (Father God) is in the Light, we will have true fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from ALL unrighteousness or every sin.

Only abiding in Christ will there be no sin in the church. How many times have we read? Blessed are the poor in spirit and blessed are they that hunger and thirst for righteousness for they shall be filled?

But people say that is only spiritual. IS IT? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord (Lamentations 3:40).

We have fasted and prayed for so many things in this life but when have we done it solely on the basis that we may come to know Him and become filled with the fullness of God, and His righteousness?

Maturity in Christ means that you have overcome sin, and are walking and truly living in Him, and that by your life, love and example you are able to lead the people of God into that same relationship which you have. Dear people of God, if Jesus broke the power of sin, and destroyed the work of the devil, then why are we constantly laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works? We are encouraged in Hebrews 6:1-2 to let us go unto perfection, which is unto the maturity of Christ, and into a full relationship of knowing Him.

I thank God for the many times He has come along and destroyed my intentions while I did not even know He was on the job and working. Then there were times He did the work without me.

When we perceive that God speaks to us it takes faith on our part to obey His voice. But when our plans fall apart, and we realize that God is refining us, then our faith is replaced by hope, and it's good to be reminded that the greatest of these is love. Once we go through the trials and testing, and once the Lord puts the vision He has given us, and the work He has appointed us to do, through the fire and testing as well, then we are qualified and begin to know Him and see Him face to face. Once we come through all the trials like gold is refined in the fire we will see the Love of God truly come on the scene as He fulfills His purposes in our life. The fulfillment of a promise in a person's life is the love of God.

Note Psalms 37:4, Delight yourself also in the Lord and He shall give you the desires of your heart.

That verse has become one of my favorite scriptures. It gives insight into the heart of God. The word delight in the original Hebrew means, “Soft and pliable” and has direct connotation to the condition of a person’s heart. We must “delight” or keep our spirit and heart soft and pliable toward and in the Lord. So, as we delight ourselves in the Lord, He will give us the desires of our heart. In other words: When God is able to put His desires into our heart and when we pray from that position in Him, then If we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.

I thank God for the years of preparation it has taken for Him to bring me to the place I am now in Him. As a son, He has chastised me many times over, and He still does! Hebrews 12:10-11 deals with the chastening of the Lord, and we are told not to despise it. Don’t ever think that you do not deserve the shaking and the chastening that God may be putting you through. Some go through terrible trials with sickness, while others go through many other things, but God is more interested in saving our souls and spirits than He is our body. Otherwise, what Jesus said in Matthew 5:27 through verse 48 would not apply! In yet another place we are told, “Fear not him who can kill the body, but fear Him who can cast both body and soul into Hell.”

I have observed over the years how it takes the preparation of the heart in man by God to be able to receive truths that are given by God. If the heart is not prepared, and the life is not ready, you could be wasting your time! Salvation may be easy when it comes to receiving Christ into one’s heart and life, but maturity is not!

I preached in a service once on the Great Shakings of God, and as usual shared about myself. Two or three days later a missionary whom we have known for some time was struck with a serious back problem. Right away everyone was praying for the person, “Oh, God please heal this man.”

But are we praying according to His will? Maybe God is dealing with the individual and maybe there have been some serious issues in the person's life that God needs to change. If that is the case, we could find ourselves praying against God's will. Yes it is God's will to heal, and eventually, God did and continues to heal the person. May God get a hold of our attention in such a way that we all may truly come to know Jesus and reflect His image and his likeness to those we are working with every day! We can go out there and save the whole world and do great works but what will it profit a man or woman if they can win the whole world and lose their own soul?

Great signs and wonders, and great works, even if they are done through the preaching of the gospel, will hold absolutely no water on judgment day. The only thing that will matter is do we truly know Jesus? Have we come into a proper, knowing relationship with the One who paid the ultimate price for our sins? Or are we still of the same image like Cain, a worker of iniquity? Having the wrong mark and the wrong image or a false image of Christ in one's life makes a person a false prophet or a false representative of the Lord Jesus Christ—glorifying a nature that is not the nature of Christ! Have you ever wondered why it says in John 3:14, As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness; even so must the Son of man be lifted up?

We all know that it was symbolic and a type of Jesus dying on the cross, but the Son of God, being likened unto the serpent on the pole as the son of man? That is almost too much! The truth of the matter is that in every one of us there is that evil nature that needs to be killed and crucified daily.

I have shared some of the miracles and the wonders God has done over the years in my own life. In the 1970s, at times God would send me behind the Iron Curtain, and yes, God did many wonderful things. On one occasion when I prayed for my oldest sister's mother-in-law, who was already well up in years—she was so sick that they were very concerned for her.

The previous week she saw my sister and her husband kneeling and praying with me in the kitchen asking Jesus into their lives. Grandma, as everybody knew her, was apparently very upset to see my relatives seemingly leave the Catholic religion. Finding her sick in bed, I went up to her bedside and shared briefly that Jesus was able to heal her, and asked if I could pray for her. The next day she was completely made whole, and her entire life changed as well. James 5:15 tells us, ‘The prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise them up, and if they have committed sins, they shall be forgiven them.’

Over the years after that, Grandma simply shined for Jesus until she went home to be with Her Master, whom she loved very much.

Many times we were able to take Bibles across the border as well as other things that were needed but not available to the Christians where Communism was ruling.

All through my life I loved the Lord and always wanted to serve Him. But not everything in my life was kosher—if you know what I mean. In my younger years, sometimes I would get very frustrated with my circumstances and I became so upset that I would lose control. Those things really bothered me because as a Christian I knew that one of the fruits of the Spirit was self-control.

After I got married, at times all hell seemed to break through in my life. I would get into fights with people I did not even know. I would constantly pick on my wife, and constantly interfere when it came to cooking. Even though she took cooking in school and majored in it, many times it seemed to me that she could not find a pot big enough to boil water in. One day when I asked her to make some cabbage rolls for me, she asked, “What is a cabbage roll?” and I became angry with her. She did not know what a cabbage roll was because she was raised in a Finnish home that was very poor, and her mother never made them! I was spoiled rotten because I had mothers that were both Hungarian, and they were wonderful cooks, Hungarian style! I have told people that if I had to be my wife and put up with the rotten disposition that she had to live with, I would have shot the guy. (And incidentally by shooting the guy I would find a good way to go to hell!)

Being a real woman of God, she was praying for me, bless her heart. Then, two years after we were married, God spoke to me and told me, “You would have a lot more peace in your home if you stayed out of the kitchen”. And that is what I did. From that day on, she was in charge of the kitchen. Something she noticed after living with me for a while was I would often work on my days off and continue right into the afternoon and sometimes early evening, forgetting to eat. When I would come in, I was like a miserable hungry bear. I think my problems were not only spiritual at times but also natural.

I do not share these things so that carnal Christians, who may need deliverance themselves, can have me for roast preacher because of my experiences. My purpose is to thank God that I have not stayed there. During our first two years of marriage, we went to our pastors for help. I needed it! Unfortunately, the best they could do was to blame my wife more than me for my problems. A suggestion one of them gave was that if I got frustrated and angry, I should go outside and kick a tree.

I used to sit in church, knowing I needed prayer, and many times I wished that they would pray for me so that I could be set free. Regrettably that kind of prayer never came with the counseling we got back then. It was more like mind over matter.

The Scriptural principle, if you get angry do not sin was not even addressed.

It wasn't until 1978 that we ended up in the interior of British Columbia and I met a pastor, Bob Starrett who for the first time in my life preached and taught the people on anger and said, “It is a sin to get angry,” simply because the word says, “The anger of man does not work the righteousness of God.” His ministry blessed me immensely, and we have remained best of friends over the years.

Finally, in 1978, in Armstrong, British Columbia, I received prayer from my friend Adolph and his wife. They were a young couple who were from a Catholic background and who had been only saved two years. I will never forget the time, as we were gathered in their home, and after playing a tape by Derek Prince on deliverance, we proceeded to pray for a young man, who had been in and out of prison since he was sixteen. He had scars all over his wrists, as he had tried to commit suicide many times. He was only 23 years of age. He was abused as a child and a complete wreck spiritually. We never got anywhere praying for him, but then my friend Adolph turned to me, and said, “Desi, I would like us to pray for you.” That was a wonderful idea as far as I was concerned.

As we started praying, the Holy Spirit began showing me certain spirits and strongholds, and I began to speak them out and tell them to go from me. Among them was the spirit of murder, the spirit of hate, a vindictive spirit, the spirits of anger and rage, etc. What a change took place from that day forward! My wife could see that at times I would still get upset, but I had a handle on things and never lost control of myself from that day on!

Then later in 1981 while working in British Columbia and driving back home to Alberta where we were living, the Word of God that tells us, “deliver your-self” challenged me. So that evening on my way home I began to pray up a storm. As I prayed with all my heart, I started coughing and spitting out the phlegm that was coming out of me. After it was all done with, I was delivered from a sinful, lustful problem that probably most if not all people go through, and I was completely delivered of that thing from that day forward.

In January of 1986, the Lord began to speak to me in ways I had not experienced before. On January 21 I had a dream in which I was told, “Be even as Jesus unto the people.” I argued with the Lord on that one. I said, “Lord that is not fair.

I am not Jesus!” Then later on I wondered, “Unto what people?” The following month I was working for Fruehauf Trailers in Mississauga, Ontario (Toronto area of Canada). That was the best job I had ever had. During this time on three different occasions I said to the Lord, “I do not care if I ever preach another message, or if I never do anything like that, just as long as I can stay at this job until Jesus comes, I would be happy.” Immediately the Holy Spirit rebuked me and told me, “Labor not for the meat that perishes.” All three times I said that to the Lord, I was rebuked with the same message. The message was at first foreign and strange to my ears as I never heard that scripture used that way before. This took place the beginning of February, and was the same month my father in Hungary died.

Then in March I was reading the scriptures in Matthew 7 and Luke 13 regarding the workers of iniquity and all that happens to people when that devilish and sinful nature of man is not properly eliminated or dealt with. Jesus calls them “wolves in sheep’s clothing.” That is the beast, or serpent nature in man! Hear the word of the Lord. When preachers say Christians cannot have demons, it is not true. If that were true, then why are so many Christians hindered in their life, their maturity, and their walk with the Lord? I have seen Christians have some serious bondage in their lives. They may have accepted Jesus, but their lives were not what they were supposed to be. Paul tells us in Philippians 3:18-19, For many walk, .... But they are enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly .... who mind earthly things.

In 2 Timothy 2:19-26, we read, The foundation of God stands sure having this seal: “The Lord knows them that are His,” and “Let everyone that names the name of Christ depart from iniquity.”

I was under conviction as I continued to pour over the scriptures containing teachings about the workers of iniquity. I remember having a discussion with a well-known Hungarian evangelist who had written several books. We were sitting in the Hungarian Scarlet Road Church in Toronto and I told him what the Lord was telling me. He got upset with me and told me not to think that way. I simply said to him, “Why not, this is the Lord speaking to me about myself?”

I began to seek the Lord for myself during 1986. As I have already shared, one of the questions I began to ask the Lord was why there will be many in that day that will come to Him and say, “Lord, Lord”? But He will say to them, “I never knew you, depart from me all of you that work iniquity.” In about March or April of that year the Lord answered me, “Because they have never taken the initiative to come to know me.”

I continued to cry out to the Lord all that year like I had never done in all of my life! Around the end of May, I began telling the Lord there is one book in the Bible that I have heard probably hundreds of messages preached during my lifetime, but it did not make sense to me. The book that I was wrestling with is Revelation. All 22 of its chapters were like a giant puzzle that every preacher alive has tried to figure out, but even to them most of the book did not make sense unless they were very badly deceived into thinking they knew it all. On my part I was basically ignorant, and during the 1970s as I read that book, and was filing all the interpretations I had received and heard, and systematically I would place them into what I was reading. One day I stopped myself and wondered what on earth I was doing? Was that truly the interpretation? So finally the Lord moved me to put all the interpretations aside, and from that day on in 1976 I began to read that book with a blank mind.

For the most part I would get absolutely nothing out of it, nor would I feel anything. All I knew was that in the first chapter I was told it was a revelation of Jesus Christ, and that if a person read the book and kept the words of the prophecy written in it, they will receive a blessing from it. So I would think that even though I seemed to get very little to nothing out of it, I would thank the Lord for the blessing, even if I did not know what it was. I read that book over the years many times in that fashion with a blank mind.

Now I was desperate! It claims to be “The Revelation of Jesus Christ.” I told God that if there ever was a man that needed a revelation of His Son Jesus in his heart and life, I definitely was that man! So for the next seven months, to the end of January 1987, I literally ate, slept, and drank the book of Revelation. I listened to the book being read on tape and would go to sleep to it, I would wake up to it, I would read it at work, etc. Into the third or fourth month, the Lord began to show me things from the book that really scared me. I suddenly realized that the entire book was written to the church and about the church and included in the church were the workers of iniquity. I began to find that many things in the writings of the Apostle Paul, as well as the other apostles, were contained in the book of Revelation.

When the flow of the increase of God’s government and peace is stopped, as described in Isaiah 9, suddenly you find yourself in the heart of God’s message to the church as described in Revelation 9. There are other passages as well as the last half of Revelation 13 clearly describing the workers of iniquity! Once I saw this I felt the Fear of God! My question is, “Is the church ready for what the Spirit is saying unto the churches?”

Jesus said, If I come in my name, there would be no problem receiving me. But because what I share has come from the life of Father God within me, and the things that are from above, the worldly-minded church still has serious problems receiving the Word of God (John 5:43 Paraphrased). You shall know the truth, (His Word is Truth), and that truth shall set you free (John 8:31-32, and 17:17).

Oh how we need to be set free from all the bondage of a sinful nature in man that hinders the flow of God in our lives. Are we ready for the great shakings of God in our lives that are all designed not to destroy us but are designed to remove everything in our lives that hinders the full flow of God's love and life in us?

Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 13, Now abides faith, hope and love, but the greatest of these is love. The only thing we will ever be perfected in is Love! LOVE NEVER FAILS!

At the end of January 1987, the Lord spoke to me in a vision once again. The vision had nothing in it but darkness, as black as black can be. My experience was similar to what happened to Abraham in Genesis 15:12. Only in my case, God spoke these words to me, "My peace I give to you not as the world gives, give I it unto you." Not only did God speak those words to me, He spoke them right into my spirit! My wife and I saw a wonderful change come into my life from that day forward. During that same year I was on a construction site where I was physically assaulted three times, and in every case I saw wonderful victories in the Lord. It seemed like the Lord actually sent those trials into my life to prove His goodness. I was now able to experience the peace that was spoken by God the Father into my life that I did not possess before. There are many other things that I could share, but all I know is that God is faithful. I am so thankful to the Lord that in our younger years, back in the 1960s, we grew up under a wonderful man of God who led the people and taught the people by his example to pray and to seek the Lord. Not only did he lead the people in revival that lasted for over 20 years, but even today there are transformations happening on the mission fields around the earth where God directed his church in the 1950s and 1960s to send missionaries raised up from the same church. We were literally raised up on our knees, and seeking the Lord over the years has truly paid off. Yes, let us go unto perfection, and let the Lord of Glory sanctify and purify all of our hearts in Him!

Because we are all born and shaped after the likeness of our parents in iniquity, only through Jesus there is salvation. Many times before we can proceed in our maturity in Christ, Jeremiah 1:10 tells us the enemy and/or the works of darkness all need to be rooted out, pulled down, destroyed and thrown down. Only then is God able to build and to plant His own life into us!

In 2 Corinthians 4:16-18, and 5:1-10 we read,

Though our outward man perishes, yet the inner man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, works in us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. For we look not at the things which are temporal, but the things which are eternal. For we know that, if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved or destroyed, we have a building in the heavens. For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house, which is from heaven...that mortality might be swallowed up of life. This is why He has given us His Holy Spirit. We need to labor and walk in the way of truth so we may be accepted of Him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he has done, whether it be good or bad (paraphrased).

God desires more than we know to see His life, His image and likeness manifested within us.

One of the hardest things in my life over the years was to believe that God really loved me. How, I wondered, could God love a person like me? I remember telling my wife in 1976 the only reason God was blessing our lives was because of her and the children. I really meant what I said. This was on a Friday afternoon. The next evening we went to a Full Gospel Businessmen's banquet—we were living in Abbotsford, British Columbia, Canada at the time. God had given me a carpet and upholstery cleaning business and was truly blessing our lives! This all happened after we had obeyed the Lord in 1974 and 1975 to go behind the Iron Curtain.

At the banquet a man from Hawaii was the guest speaker. I had never seen him before. After we had dinner, and the preaching was over, he made a call for those who needed prayer. One of the first people running up to the front was my good friend Chuck Heppner. My goodness, I thought Chuck was being blessed by the Lord every time he turned around, loved God with all his heart, and always radiated the goodness of God in his life. I thought to myself, if he needs prayer where does that leave me! I really felt that Chuck was a far better man than I was. Seeing him going to the front was definitely enough to convince me to go up as well. What a meeting that was! Most of the people in the meeting were from Mennonite background (German Baptists) and the Spirit of God was obviously touching them.

After the man began to pray for people in the prayer line, he finally came in front of me and basically told me everything that I had said to my wife the previous day. “You have a terrible opinion of yourself. You keep telling yourself that God does not love you. God gave His Son for you and I see you as a leader of men. The terrible opinion you have of yourself is not from God.”

I do not remember the rest, but after that experience I never doubted again that God loved me. Maybe it took awhile to realize it all but what a healing and what a miracle! Here I was, going around all of my life despite all the miracles that God had done for me, having this terrible feeling and opinion of myself that I was such a terrible person, that there was no way that God could ever love me. It had taken years of God working with me and in me and delivering me from all of my problems and hang-ups or bondage of the enemy in my life.

During 1996-1997, God was really dealing with some issues in my life once again. I went through a situation at work as a School Bus Driver where I was getting hit hard and falsely being accused by the management. I fought the devil on his home turf, as some of the people were part of the Masons, while others were just plain Satanists. Like I said, God was dealing with some serious issues in my own heart and life. To make a long story short, God actually delivered me from all of my enemies. My story ended up on BCTV—covering all of British Columbia, some parts of Washington State, all of the Yukon Territories as well as parts of the Province of Alberta. The TV headlines were “School Bus Driver Suspended for Being a Good Samaritan.” Then almost every major Newspaper in British Columbia carried the serious safety issues I was battling management with.

The more publicity the media gave my story, the more management hated me! My case finally went all the way to Arbitration. I spent days, weeks, and then months praying and trusting the Lord to deliver me and was determined to fight them as the saying goes, “tooth and nail.”

After months of intense times praying and asking God to give me the victory over the powers of darkness coming against our lives, the Lord actually delivered the entire situation into my hands. In Arbitration they offered me a settlement of ten thousand dollars if I would withdraw my grievance.

I was too stubborn to listen to my wife, and even the Union begged me to take the offer. But I thought I could take the battle further and win completely. My stubbornness was not from the Lord, and I found out how dirty and crooked managers, lawyers, and even arbitrators can be when it comes to railroading a person if they really want to. Despite the fact that I had tapes of the meetings with the management showing clearly that safety with them was not an issue, and that in my situation, they cared nothing about the safety of the children on my bus. Management simply just had it in for me and that was where they were going with the whole situation.

Both the transportation manager and Human Resources manager (as well as two bus drivers both claiming to be so-called Christians) deliberately lied under oath in Arbitration to do me in. One bus driver collapsed on the job beside his bus apparently three months later and was out of work himself for the next two and half years: and also died a horrible death later on. The Human Resource manager, who could not do enough evil to hurt us, was in a serious car crash the end of October on her way to Vancouver Island. Both managers deliberately lied saying, “Mr. Jakab never once mentioned safety in the December 19th meeting with them in 1996.” Even perjury was not wrong on their part in the kangaroo court being held by the School Board.

Jesus said, “Agree with your adversary while you are in the way with them, before they deliver you to a (crooked judge or arbitrator as was in this situation) and find you guilty”—even if you are being falsely accused and railroaded. I still have the tapes that were also transcribed by the Union and gone over during the arbitration hearings. They all gave clear evidence of the deliberate wrongdoings on the part of management, and they are available to interested parties.

I did not realize how evil and wicked and cruel spirited people can be. These were the same reasons why God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah! I would have sued the School Board for allowing such a scandal to go on right under their noses, but their hot shot labor lawyer from Vancouver (many of these people being members of the Masons), deliberately blocked any opportunity to get proper legal help.

The arbitration hearings were no doubt the longest in the Abbotsford School District’s history, and all the legal costs for 1997 and 1998 were very likely into the tens of thousands of dollars! God knows that I am telling the truth, and He is also the Judge.

Once it was made known in Arbitration that I had tapes, immediately people at the School District Head Office involved in the scandal began resigning like flies and running in all directions. Like the Word says, They come against you one way and flee before you seven ways. But I was determined to take it to the limit, and continued to ignore the 10,000 dollars they had offered me. I had several months to let them have their way, but I am grateful to God for the lessons I learned as He was also dealing with some serious issues in my own heart and life, and when we do not listen to the Lord, sometimes He will use our enemies to chastise us. But the outcome could have been quite different.

They won the war—so they thought—by making me look bad, but really God was and is the winner in the end! It took me a long time to overcome the bitterness and to forgive myself for allowing them to railroad me like they did. But I do thank the Lord that He does deal with us while we are still here on earth, and others if they do not repent will pay for it in the hereafter.

The Bible also encourages us to give room for wrath, for God will repay those who deliberately do evil to others! And that is why I did not pursue the situation. God directed us into full-time ministry in March 1998. And yes, I did pray and forgive all those who did evil to us, and when you forgive and bless your enemies, those blessings release God's ability and power to deal with them completely that they also may hopefully one-day come to repentance and experience the saving grace of Jesus Christ! And hopefully one day, those who do come into salvation will also make things right, because that is what true repentance is!

In 1998 my wife and I went into full-time ministry as pastors, and during the year 2000, the Lord directed us to go to Africa to work with orphans and to do missionary work as well.

We experienced many wonderful miracles and conversions in Africa and saw transformations taking place in the area where we were stationed.

The end of October 2000, I suddenly began to get sick with various problems. I finally ended up in the hospital in Malawi diagnosed with malaria. For seven weeks I was on a major roller coaster ride with my health. On December 6th I was all yellow with jaundice (hepatitis) and was again in the hospital in the Johannesburg area of South Africa. I was in the Intensive Care Unit for the next two and half days, dying with Cerebral Malaria. People have been known to die from Cerebral Malaria within a matter of two or three days, and it is for the most part a sure killer! If people survive it, they generally come out of it like a vegetable as it destroys the brain cells. God on the third day raised me off the deathbed completely healed!

I was in a coma for the first 2 days in the hospital and it was in the middle of the night, what must have been in the early hours of the third day that I was suddenly and rather rudely awakened. All I know is that there was a black nurse standing in front of the bed over the top of my head, and she seemed to be slapping me on the side of my face and telling me to wake up. As I opened my eyes, the next thing I saw was the IV bags to the side of my bed, and one was completely red.

I was looking at the black nurse and looking toward the ceiling at the same time. The room was completely dark except where she was standing. Once my eyes were open she very firmly and pointedly said, "Open your mouth." As I opened my mouth she spoke again, "WIDER!" Then, as I was straining to open my mouth as wide as I could, she began to stuff this mush into my mouth—to this day, have no idea what that was? All I know is that I felt like one of those geese that are force-fed in Europe so they can get really big. I didn't even get a chance to swallow the mush she was giving me; it went straight down into my stomach! I have never had an experience like this before, where the food just goes straight down.

Here I was, completely out cold, in a coma, and suddenly this black nurse in the middle of the night was nudging me and slapping me and ordering me to wake up, and then stuffing something like mush down my throat. After that horrible ordeal, I thought to myself she has to be meanest nurse that I have ever met! As I watched her walking away past the foot of the bed into the light in front of her, I said to the Lord, "She has to be the meanest nurse that I have ever met, and please Lord, I sure do not want to be here again tomorrow night."

The last I remember is her walking away from me and into the light ahead of her. I never saw that nurse again—in fact nearly all the nurses in the private hospital were white South Africans. I was still in the hospital the next four days and the heavy-duty medications both oral and intravenous that I was still receiving were making me quite sick to the stomach.

It was much later on I realized that God must have sent one of His angels to visit me: (Dressed as a black nurse? only in Africa!☺) because the next time I was wide awake they were wheeling me out of ICU in a wheelchair, completely healed! I could literally feel glorious waves of joy sweeping over my body, wave after wave, as I was transferred to a regular hospital room. That glorious presence of God's Holy Spirit and those glorious waves of joy that were sweeping over me felt like being in the ocean surf. I shall never forget those incredible waves of joy and the thrill of knowing that I was healed! My sickness in South Africa is all documented as they sent all the paperwork, x-rays, and charts, etcetera home with me.

I want to thank the Lord for the love, life, and mercy He has shown to me all throughout my life! I have shared my heart in the things that I have written, hoping we will allow God to change us while we are still here on earth that we may become truly like Jesus unto the people in our Love, Life and Example!

In 1 John 2:6 we read He that says he is living in Christ ought to walk even as He walked.

Then in 1 Corinthians 11:1 the Apostle Paul tells us, Follow me (my life and example) even as I follow Christ!

What a statement to make. I have not found any of the preachers that I have known over the years (including myself) saying that! May we all come to know both the Father and His Son Jesus to that full extent that the apostles declared their relationship to be!

Allow me to share the following Scripture Passages:

Seek the Lord while He may be found. Call upon Him while He is near: Let the wicked, forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon: My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways says the Lord.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and returns not, but waters the earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the one sowing seed, and bread to the eater: So shall my word be that goes forth out of my mouth; it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. For you shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the briar shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off. (Isaiah 55:6-13)

The foundation of God stands sure having this seal the Lord knows those that are His. And, Let everyone that names the name of Christ DEPART FROM INIQUITY. In a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver (those who have been refined by fire), but also of wood and of earth (like Cain was); and some to honor, and some to dishonor. If a man purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honor, sanctified, and ready for the Master's use, and prepared unto every good work. Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace with them that call on the name of the Lord out of a pure heart. And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient; in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth. That they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, all who are taken captive by him at his will. (2 Timothy 2:19-26)

Take note that in the last day's perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient, unthankful,

unholy, without natural affection, truce breakers (unable to keep oaths or promises made), false accusers, incontinent, fierce, haters of those that are good, traitors, heady or self willed, determined to go their own way. Lovers of pleasure more than the lovers of God; having the form of godliness, but by their life they deny the power of God that is able to change them; from such turn away (have nothing to do with them)! “For they are ever learning but they are never able come to the knowledge of the Truth (They Do Not Know Jesus)! Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds reprobate concerning the faith. “But you have fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity and patience, persecutions, afflictions...Yes, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But continue in the things, which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing of whom you have learned them; and from a child you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise unto salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus. (2Timothy 3:1-15)

All Scripture is given by the inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. That the man of God may be PERFECT completely furnished unto all good works. I charge you therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom. Preach the word, be instant in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but heap after their own lusts shall heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and shall turn away their ears from hearing the truth, AND SHALL BE TURNED INTO FABLES. But keep yourself in the Lord in all things, endure afflictions, and do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of your ministry. (2 Timothy 3:16-17 & 4:1-5)

The elders among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness, of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed. Feed the flock of God, which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by force, but willingly, not for filthy lucre (money), but of a ready mind. Neither being lords over God's heritage (Revelation 2:6 also 2:15), but being examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, you shall receive a crown of glory that fades not away. Likewise you younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yes all of you be submitted to one another, and be clothed with humility: for God resists the proud, and gives grace to the humble. Humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time. Giving all your cares to him for he cares for you. Be sober be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walks about, seeking whom he may devour; whom resist steadfastly in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. But the God of all grace, who has called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that you have suffered a while, make you perfect, establish, strengthen, settle you. To Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. (1 Peter 5:1-11)

But you beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. And on some having compassion, making a difference: and others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire (of hell), hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy. To the only wise God our Savior give glory, majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever, Amen. (Jude 20-25)

Let not your good become evil spoken of: for the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. For he that keeps himself in these things, and serves Christ this way is acceptable to God, and approved of men. Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify (build up into Christ) the other. Now the God of hope, fill you completely with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. And I myself am persuaded of you, my brethren, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge (of Christ), and able to also admonish (encourage and build up) one another.

Owe no man anything, but to love one another: for he that loves another has fulfilled the law. For this, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, you shall not kill, you shall not bear false witness, you shall not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, you shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love works no ill to his neighbor: therefore love is the fulfillment of the law. (Romans 14:16-19, 15:13-14, 12:8-14)

Let there be true love without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil and cleave to that which is good. Be kind and affectionate one to another with brotherly love, in honor preferring one another; not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord...Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. If it is possible, as much as lies in you live peaceably with all men. Dearly beloved; avenge not yourselves, but give room for wrath: for it is written, vengeance is mine: I will repay, says the Lord. Therefore if your enemy hunger feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink: for in so doing you shall heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. (Romans 12:9-21)

Whosoever confesses (is even as Jesus unto the people, by example and life) that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in him and himself in God. God is love and he that dwells in love dwells in God and God in him. HEREIN IS OUR LOVE MADE PERFECT, that we may have boldness in the Day of Judgment: BECAUSE AS HE IS, SO ARE WE IN THIS WORLD. There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear: because fear has torment. He that fears is not made perfect in love. We love Him because He first loved us. If a man says I love God and hates his brother, he is a liar: for he that loves not his brother whom he has seen how can he love God whom he has not seen? And this commandment we have from Him, he who loves God, must love his brother also. Whosoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God and every one that loves Him that is born of God is also born of Christ. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His commandment. For this is the love of God that we keep His commandments: and His commandments do not produce grief. For whatsoever is born of God overcomes the world: and this is the victory that overcomes the world even our faith. This is the record that God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He that has the Son has life: and he that has not the Son of God has not life. All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death. We know that whosoever is born of God sins not, also he that is begotten of God keeps himself, and that wicked one touches him not. And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in wickedness. And we know that the Son of God is come, and has given us an understanding, THAT WE MAY KNOW HIM THAT IS TRUE, and we are in him that is true, even in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. LITTLE CHILDREN, KEEP YOUR SELVES FROM IDOLS. (1 John 4:15-21; 5:1-4, 11-12, 18-21 Paraphrased). (Please read Revelation 9:18-21 & Isaiah 9:8-16)

Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, write, blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yes, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works (which are wrought in God) do follow them. (Revelation 14:12-13)

What a glorious statement of faith! They are now crucified with Christ, dead to their own ways and the things of the flesh. These are the children of God, who have overcome the evil nature in them. They are the sons of God that know His voice and they follow Him. They know what it is to fast and to pray, and to seek the Lord's face and walk in obedience to His will. They are the ones that walk in the Spirit and do not fulfill the lust of the flesh. They walk in the rhema of knowing the voice of God and they obey His voice, and the works that God brings to pass through them follow them. "Let us not be weary in well doing for God is ever faithful."

Now abides faith, hope and love, but the greatest of these is love.

Chapter Three

A Revelation of Jesus Christ

(Revelation Chapter 22)

If you keep in mind that the truths of God can be simple, and not complicated, this message will bless you.

And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. (Revelation 22:1)

All of life originates from and in God; we are held responsible for what we do with the life that God gives to us. And, the best conclusion that I have been able to come to is simply to surrender and to give that life back to the One to whom it belongs to in the first place. This is why when we dedicated our sons to the Lord we gave them back to the One Who gave them to us—what a blessing!

In Revelation 22:1, we read that there is a pure river of water of life. Note the emphasis: this water is PURE. That water represents the life of God in us, with no pollution of any kind. It is like a river ever flowing and always full of life! Jesus said, Whoever drinks the water that I give him will never thirst again. In fact He also declares, that the water which He shall give to us, shall be in us a well of water springing up into everlasting life. (John 4:14)

Again in Isaiah 12:3 we read, With joy shall we draw water from the wells of salvation.

That water will glorify the One who gives it freely unto us. Note verses three onward –

In that day of salvation, we will say - Give thanks to the Lord, call on His name, that we will declare His works to the nations, and proclaim that His name is exalted. (No other name under heaven by which man can be saved!) - Sing to the Lord, for he has done glorious things, let this be known in all the earth. Shout aloud and sing for joy, you people of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel among you.”

This is why we praise, sing, and shout for joy and proclaim to others the goodness of the Lord. My favorite pastime is to worship and take the time to praise, pray God's word, and rejoice in the Lord. When things are going bad in the natural, it is time to have a glory fit and just get beside myself and worship Him with all my heart.

If we practice that faithfully, it will not take long before we will be able to experience joy despite our circumstances. The devil cannot stand us rejoicing and being happy in Jesus. He (the devil) hates it with a passion—not to leave out that he will also flee. James 4:7 tells us, By submitting ourselves to God and resisting the devil, he will flee from us. In Titus 1:15 we read, To the pure, all things are pure. In Proverbs 27:21 we read, As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold, so is a man to his praise.

What better way to remain pure in the Lord than to worship Him and to pray and praise at all times and as often as we are able. His word is a lamp for our feet and a light for our path. (Psalm 119:105)

God's word is not only powerful, but it is also a creative word, and this is why we should always use the dynamics of Scripture by speaking it over our life and into our circumstances.

Years ago when we were living in Nelson, British Columbia, God gave me these words, “God has given us His ability to create things.” We can create both good and evil. By our words we can create an atmosphere of either heaven or hell in our lives. Proverbs tells us life and death is in the power of the tongue. Not only did my wife Martha and I dedicate both our sons to the Lord, but God put His desire for them into our hearts also, and that desire was that we would never speak bad words into their lives. We would never call them stupid or any other such names. Had we done that they would have been scarred in their hearts and lives!

To us they were always sweethearts—despite the fact that I even got criticized for a man calling his boys sweethearts. To me that is exactly what they were! They grew up being loved without rejection and not having a bad opinion of themselves. Thank you Lord, for helping us by putting your desire into our hearts, and that we were able to reap the blessings of God within their lives.

“Bless and curse not!”

I’ll never forget, the time I was working for Parks and Recreation in Rocky Mountain House, Alberta in 1981. A young boy no more than five years of age came over to watch what I was doing. I asked him what his name was. In reply, he informed me that it was Noah. So, I asked him if he had ever heard the story of Noah. His answer was no. I then began to tell him about Noah. I informed the boy as to what a great name he had, and what a great man Noah was. Finally, after I finished telling him about Noah and the flood, the boy turned to me, obviously very impressed, and said, “I’m going home and telling my mom to never call me a dummy again!”

The word I received from God back in Nelson during the early 1980s was actually twofold. I remember one Saturday as I was busy trying to prepare for the Sunday message, I sat in front of the typewriter for three hours trying to bang out my message, but I was getting nowhere. Instead of one message, I had three or four messages scrambled into one. Finally realizing the futility of my efforts, I put the typewriter away, sat down at the foot of my bed and began to pray and meditate on John 1. After I got to verse three, suddenly God spoke to my heart very profoundly as the following words came booming into my head.

First it was the words, “God has given us His ability to create things.” And that is how I found out that God takes credit for everything man has ever created. Oh sure, man likes to boast, but take away that God-given ability and man becomes zero. When mankind abuses that God-given ability in their lives, the product of it is only evil, sin, and death. That is what satan does. He is a master deceiver and the father of lies. (I don't even like to write his name with a capital - S - he doesn't deserve it! And that is what I think of him.) This is why I believe God also says, "I create good and I create evil. I form the light and create darkness, I make peace, and create evil. I the Lord do all these things". (Isaiah 45:7)

God takes the credit for everything, even though man is the one abusing his God-given ability to create what God never intended. That is why eating of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil is so deadly for all of us!

As I continued to pray and meditate on the word (prayerfully allowing the words to roll over and over in my mind), suddenly the second rhema came booming into my head! The next phrase was "God has given us His ability to create Himself in us." John 1:12 confirms this to be true: To as many as believed on Him to them He gave power (the ability) to become the sons of God. While James 4:5 NIV tells us, The spirit (His Holy Spirit) he causes to live in us.

In the Greek this means to house permanently, and has direct relationship with John 14:1-2. Without God creating or putting His Spirit of Life inside of us through His Son Jesus Christ, we are still dead in sins and trespasses!

Psalms 22:3 tells us, God inhabits (or lives in) the praises of His people. And, Isaiah 12:3 says, With joy we draw water out of the wells of salvation. Also read John 7:38, From your inner most being shall flow rivers of living water. Please note in Revelation 22:1, this water is a ... Pure river of water of life, it is clear as crystal and it proceeds from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

God rules and reigns in a life like that and nothing else. That describes what our goals should be: both pure and also transparent before the Lord!

God's nature is what we should possess in our lives, the gold—the deity of God—the love, life, and nature of God. The gold of God's nature is transparent. See Revelation 21:18 that says: ... pure gold, like unto clear glass.

That is the life of God restored in us to its fullness, and the throne of God and of the Lamb (that submissive Lamb nature, which is the nature of Christ ruling) inside of each one of us.

There is a throne of God and of the Lamb in Heaven. I have no problem with that, so please do not misunderstand me. But there is also another scripture in Ephesians 2:6 tells us that ... We are seated with Christ in the heavenly realms. Colossians 3:1 says, Since you have been raised with Christ, set your heart on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

When we see Jesus in the book of Revelation 3:21, He tells us that, To him that overcomes will I give the right (God's ability and power) to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne.

We need to realize that Christ, who was the son of man as well as the anointed of God, did not have to wait to get into heaven until after his resurrection, but that he was already in heaven when his earthly ministry began in John 1. John 3:13 says, And no man ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man, which is in heaven.

That was the spiritual condition of Christ. Not only was He the Son of God, but He was also the Lamb of God. We also are called to be kings and priests, as well as well as the manifested sons of God, having power and authority but also having the nature of the Lamb in us.

This brings us to Revelation 22:2:

In the midst of the street of it and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

This is where I love the simplicity of the Gospel, and where I allow scripture to interpret scripture, plus a little bit of Holy Ghost imagination. So here is a picture in which we see this river of life. Out of your inner most being, shall flow rivers of living water. We have already established God's rule and reign in our hearts. If God's kingdom is within each one of us, then we also need to have the purity of both God and Jesus ruling and reigning in us. Our dependence on God must always be there, no matter what, if we are to position ourselves in right standing with Him.

Have you ever wondered how it can be that in the midst of the flow of that river of life, and on either side of the river, there is the tree of life? I thought there is only one tree of life? I believe Christ is our tree of life. But in this context, we are distinctly told there is a street or flow of a river, and in the midst of the flow is the tree of life, and on either side of the river, there is also a tree of life. These are all connected, as well as one and the same thing. Hear the Word of the Lord!

A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit. Did you catch that? A wholesome tongue is a tree of life! Life and death are in the power of the tongue. Our words can kill and destroy as well as create life and blessing. (Proverbs 15:4)

Let us also do a short study on the fruit of our lips:

- Proverbs 4:24: Put away from you a deceitful mouth and perverse lips put far from you.
- Proverbs 5:2: By our lips we have the ability to keep knowledge.
- Proverbs 8:5-9: O you simple understand wisdom: and those who are fools be of an understanding heart. Hear for I will speak of excellent things, and the opening of my lips shall be right things. For my mouth shall speak truth, and wickedness is an abomination to my lips. All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing deceitful or perverse in them. They are all plain to him that understands, and right to them that find knowledge.

- Proverbs 10:13, 19-22: In the lips of him that has understanding wisdom is found. In the multitude of words there is sin, but the person that controls his lips is wise. The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth. The lips of the righteous feed many. The blessing of the Lord, it makes rich, and He adds no sorrow with it.

Other Quotes from Proverbs regarding our lips and tongue:

- From the fruit of his lips a man is filled with good things.
- Truthful lips endure forever.
- The Lord hates lying lips, but He delights in men who are truthful.
- From the fruit of his lips a man enjoys good things, but the unfaithful have a craving for violence.
- He that keeps his mouth keeps his life: but he that opens wide his lips shall have destruction.
- The lips of the wise shall preserve them.
- The lips of the wise disperse knowledge.
- The lips of a king speak as an oracle, and his mouth should not betray justice. (We are called to be kings and priests unto Him.)
- A wise man's heart guides his mouth, and his lips promote instruction.
- From the fruit of his mouth a man's stomach is filled, with the harvest from his lips he is satisfied.
- My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart will be glad. Yes my reigns shall rejoice, when your lips speak right things. How do we come under the control of God's Spirit? God rejoices when we speak right things. (Also read James 3.)

- An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips. (Psalms 2:12 - Kiss the Son lest He be angry, and you be destroyed from your way, for his wrath can flare up in a moment. Blessed are all who take refuge in Him).
- Do not testify against your neighbor without cause, or use your lips to deceive. Do not say I'll do to him as he has done to me, I'll pay that man back for what he did. (With the wicked we need discernment because ... A malicious man disguises himself with his lips, but in his heart he harbors deceit. Though his speech is charming (smooth as oil), do not believe him for seven abominations are in his heart. His malice may be concealed by deception, but his wickedness will be exposed.

A couple of more examples should be sufficient:

- Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth, someone else, and not your own lips.
- Ecclesiastes 10:12 tells us, Words from a man's mouth are gracious, but a fool is consumed by his own lips.
- Verse 13 describes what I used to be like in my younger days: At the beginning his words are folly, at the end they are wicked madness. In the early 1970s I could be in church praising God and on my way home completely in the wrong spirit, upset and mad about something. How we need to live and abide in Him and in His Spirit, and stay under His wings (His protection), by being thankful and worshipping Him in all circumstances. Several years ago in a dream I saw a large figure casting His shadow over me and the words: walk in the shadow of His appreciation were left with me. If we learn to follow Him closely and to love and appreciate God for who He is and all that He is to us, we will learn to live under the shadow of His wings. His protection and shadow will always be there for us (Psalm 91).

Chapter Four

The Great Shakings of God in the History of Man

During the beginning of 2002, God began to speak to me about the Great Shakings of God that took place throughout the history of man!

In the beginning the Lord created Adam and his wife, Eve, in the Garden of Eden. God created Adam in the image of God Himself. Man was thus a son of the Living God. However because of the sinfulness of man and man choosing the way of rebellion toward God and siding with Satan, God's judgment fell upon all of humanity. Adam was created to have great authority and dominion over all of God's creation in the earth. He was the covering for all of humanity, and his rebellion toward the Lord God brought the first, great shaking that man had ever known. Man was not only reduced into a fallen state where he no longer had the full faculty of his glorified mind or glorified body that God created him with, but also today we are told that man only uses possibly 3 to 7 percent of his full brain capacity.

Man was also created as an eternal being with no sickness and no death. In the beginning there was no death, but God said, In the day that you sin, and eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you shall surely die.

That tree was the tree of sin.

Wherefore, as by one man (Adam) sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners (rebellious ones). (Romans 5:12, 19)

In another place we read that outside of Christ, There is none righteous no not one. For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. (Romans 3:10, 23). So we see that sin entered into the world and death passed upon all mankind because of Adam.

Now it was also pronounced that in sorrow and often in great pain the woman would bring children into the world, and man would eat his bread by the sweat of his brow, as God cursed everything in the earth all because of man's disobedience to God's voice and God's commandments. For the next four thousand years, man faced, for the most part, a lost eternity. What kind of shaking was that as God put man out of the Garden of Eden! This was the first great shaking that took place; then came the second. Also Adam was definitely the covering for all of humanity for God ordained him to be so. Had he only realized the far-reaching effect his disobedience to God would have for all future generations! What a tragedy!

Great Shaking Number Two – Noah's Flood!

Within the first 1500 years of man's history, man had become so corrupt that in Genesis 6, we find that, It grieved the heart of God that he had created man on the face of the earth, for the heart of man and the imagination of his heart was evil continually. The earth was also filled with violence.

At this time God found one man by the name of Noah. Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord. In Hebrews 11 we read, Noah being warned of things to come, moved with fear to the saving of his household.

God told Noah to build a giant boat and many years later God sent the flood upon the earth and destroyed everything on the face of the whole earth, except all that was in the ark. What a great shaking that was!

Imagine there had never been rain before, there had never been a flood, and yet Noah preached to his people in his generation for many years telling them and warning them about the impending flood and the judgment of God that was coming. No one listened; they all went their own way and did that which was right in their own eyes. Suddenly the heavens opened as the waters above the earth poured down, and the earth opened as well as the waters from under the earth gushed forth. The torrent of the waters lasted for forty days and forty nights until everything upon the earth, including the highest hills and mountains, was covered with water, destroying every living thing!

Great Shaking Number Three - The Tower of Babel!

It was only five generations after Noah's Flood and during his great grandson Peleg's lifetime that God sent another great shaking on the face of the whole earth!

At this time the earth had one language, and also the earth was one large landmass. In Genesis 10 we read about the dividing of the nations according to their families and languages. In Chapter 11, which actually happened before Chapter 10, we are told that there was one language, and that God had once again become angry at humanity. In Genesis 11:6 we read, If one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they imagine to do shall be impossible for them.

In Genesis 1, God told man to ... multiply and replenish the earth.

In other words, He was telling them to go and make the earth into a garden and a beautiful place to live. God never intended man to stay in one place He wanted man to inhabit all of the earth. Then in Genesis 9:1, we read again; And God said to Noah and his sons, and said unto them, "Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth." Then in verse seven of the same chapter He says one more time, Be fruitful and multiply, bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

In every case the word 'replenish' means in the original Hebrew text, MULTIPLY AND FILL THE EARTH.

Man being evil and disobedient to the voice of God, decided to build a CITY and a HIGH TOWER that would reach into the heavens so that they would not get scattered over the face of the whole earth but stay in the same place. By building that high tower, man was once again in full rebellion to the Lord and siding with Satan against God. In God's eyes man was making a covenant with one another and with the enemy of God saying, "No we will not scatter, but we will stay in this place no matter what God has said to us through our forefathers." We not only see this as a full-blown rebellion against God, but also a great falling away was rapidly taking place. Man once again was becoming the worshipper of Satan, who is the spirit of rebellion and the spirit of deception, and was being personified by once again taking the mark and image of the beast nature into his forehead and into his right hand even as Cain did! Noah and all of his sons were still alive at this time, and obviously, their grandchildren were not willing to listen. Romans 1:18-25 describes it well. God, being displeased with all of mankind for the third time, decided to confuse the language of Noah's children and their families.

Suddenly one morning, the people of the earth woke up, and the families of Noah's children were not able to understand one another, as God had sent his angels to go down and confuse the languages of the people. The city was called Babel meaning a place of confusion. Imagine going to bed and everything is normal; and then waking up next morning and suddenly everybody is speaking a different language including yourself, and nobody is able to understand you except your wife and your children! What a place of confusion that was! In Genesis 11:7-9 we read,

Let us go down, and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence and they left off building the city. Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confuse the language of all the earth; and from there did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

I would like to note in Genesis 10 how the families were scattered according to their languages and nations, which in fact happened after Chapter 11. In Genesis 1:9 we find, Let the water be gathered into one place (not many places as it is today) and let dry ground appear.

During this time the earth was one large landmass, as the continents had not yet been formed. The landmass was in a giant oval shape, and looked like a giant egg with all the oceans and the water surrounding it. And this is how it was right up until after the tower of Babel when the nations were formed; the people divided and scattered over the face of all the earth! Genesis 10:25 says,

And unto Eber was born two sons: the name of one was Peleg FOR IN HIS DAYS WAS THE EARTH DIVIDED; (His name actually means division and refers to both the dividing of the nations as well as the dividing of the earth into the continents and the islands as they are today). His brother's name was Joktan – (meaning SHORTENED – as man's life-span was now shortened to 230 years and less).

Suddenly, mankind were now forced to do what God commanded them to do, and once the Lord scattered them all over the earth, the earth began to shake like it had never been shaken before! The dry land and the entire known world began to shake as God's angels began to rip apart the giant land mass—known in our day by scientists as Pangaea. (What a blessing to know that what man says happened millions of years ago, God's word tells us it happened less than 4,500 years ago and should truly put the fear of the Lord into all of humanity!) What a great shaking took place as all of the great continents and islands and all the oceans and great lakes of the world were suddenly formed!

In the book of Jasher, an ancient Jewish historical book written by Moses, his contemporaries, and others afterwards (which I have already mentioned in Chapter 2), gives us the following account of events found in the book of Genesis through Joshua 10:13, 2 Samuel 1:17, and 2 Timothy 3:8-9. The book of Jasher clearly states that “the people were divided and scattered in the beginning of Peleg’s life, and in the latter part of his days was the earth divided.” This confirms entirely what I have been saying from the book of Genesis. God’s Word is very faithful to the history of mankind, and always will be!

I also want to say that when the shaking took place in Peleg’s days as suddenly God began to rip the land masses apart and separate the great continents and islands of the earth—the GREAT SHAKING that took place at that time—there would have been no buildings left standing! None whatsoever! (Noah was still alive and around 810 years of age when this took place.)

The dividing of the earth into all the great continents and islands was the Fourth Great Shaking in the history of man!

In Haggai 2:6-9 we find, “Once more, says the Lord, I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, the dry land, and I will shake all nations.”

During this great shaking the prophet of God Haggai continues, “The silver is mine and the gold is mine says the Lord, the desire of the nations will come (Jesus appearing in the clouds of Glory), and I shall fill this house with my glory. The glory of the latter house (the last day church) will be much greater than that of the former house (which was the early church), says the Lord of Hosts.”

On October 22, 1997 at a ministers’ conference in Alberta, Canada the Spirit of the Living God said to me, “There is a Great Shaking coming, but out of the Great Shaking there is coming a Great Harvest!” I was surprised by the announcement given to me by the Lord.

As I searched the scriptures I found many wonderful things confirming that the word I had received was indeed the Word of the Lord. When someone is given a word or a dream from the Lord, it will often be confirmed. In my case many times the Lord has opened up the scriptures to me as I often find what He is saying in the Written Word, the Holy Bible.

On September 10, 2001 I was directed to send a letter to the President of the United States, along with a booklet containing some of the prophecies that were given to me as early as 1979 and 1981. Those prophecies were first published and copyrighted in February 1982. In 1984 I shared those prophecies with President Reagan and the First Lady of the United States. Before Christmas, that same year my family and I received a card of appreciation from the White House. In those prophecies, I shared the word of the Lord, given in Zephaniah 1:14-18 where it talks about the day of the Lord:

The day of the Lord comes fast and hastens greatly! It will be a time of trouble, distress upon men, darkness, a day of clouds and thick darkness, as day of the trumpet and alarm against the CITIES, and against HIGH TOWERS. I will bring distress upon men, because they have sinned against the Lord: and their blood shall be poured out as dust... neither their silver or gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath: but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of His jealousy; for He shall make even a speedy riddance of all the wicked sinners that dwell in the land.

In Luke 17 26-30 we read: “As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.”

The great shakings of the last days have already begun, and it is only a matter of time until all the prophecies given to me by the Lord will all come to pass! Man has once again shown clearly: All that has come to the wicked imaginations of their hearts they are now able to perform. Except for God and God's interventions once again into the affairs of humankind, and into the affairs of the nations, when God says He is going to shake all things He means just that! The prophecies outlined in Chapters 6 and 7 of this book clearly show some of the great shakings that are yet to be fulfilled and are coming fast!

The great shaking that is now beginning to take place will not change until God brings the church back to its knees, and the world will yet be amazed at all that the Lord is going to do! The church of the Living God is going to be cleansed, and as God's church is purified we will begin to see His Glory returning even as it was in the early church and in Jesus' own life. The "Be ye holy even as I am I am Holy" and "the Spirit of the fear of the Lord" will be restored and known in the lives of the people of God!

Great glory awaits all those who have been washed in the precious blood of the Lamb and are serving Him and worshipping Him in Spirit (in the life of God's Holy Spirit), and in Truth (according to God's Word: in the love, life and nature of Christ) and walking even as He Jesus walked! This means the Word of God will be made flesh (written on the fleshly tables of our hearts) and will be made alive in us and dwelling among us even as it was in the life of Jesus and the apostles that were in the early church. John 1:14 tells us, "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father) FULL OF GRACE AND TRUTH."

The words in Hebrews 11:7 stand out profoundly to us in this hour: "By faith Noah being warned of God of things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to the saving of his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of righteousness that comes by faith."

This message is only part of the bigger picture given by God over thirty years ago. Jesus is coming soon! Are you and your church going to be ready when He comes?

One of the first things that I would like to note here is that Jesus is going to come in the lives of a people that have overcome sin! He is coming in the clouds—those clouds will be the cloud of witnesses that is defined in Hebrews 12:1-2; also Revelation 1:7-8.

God is now already shaking the economies of the world, but in the midst of the great shakings of God there is going to be a people that are going to live and shine and be a witness to the nations; Psalms 126:1-6 speaks of this expressly!

Over the centuries since Israel became a nation, they were shaken by God many times, plundered and taken from their homeland and into captivity by the Babylonians. But there was never anything like the great shaking that came during and after the days that Jesus was on the earth!

Jesus was the Son of the Living God and was sent down from Heaven to become the Savior of the world. We know that a great shaking took place when Jesus began to preach the Everlasting Gospel, or the Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

Jesus' life on earth was the Fifth Great Shaking that took place!

Certainly there were great shakings all throughout the history of Israel as we read in the Bible but none of them compared to the Great Shaking that came to planet earth when Jesus came on the scene and was the most radical preacher the world has ever seen or heard!

No longer was it the Law given to the Jews by Moses, where they were told "Eye for an eye and tooth for a tooth." No longer was it the curse of Lamech in Genesis 4 where we are told, If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold: truly Lamech (will be avenged) seventy and sevenfold.

With Jesus this now became, "If your brother offends you, how many times must a person forgive?" as we find in Matthew 18:21-22, "Then came Peter unto him, and said Lord, How often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him, seven times? Jesus says to him, I say not only seven times but seventy times seven (as many times as necessary)."

Thus Jesus completely reversed the curse of both Cain and Lamech. But that curse is only reversed as we ourselves are willing to walk in obedience to the commandments of Jesus:

Forgive us our transgressions, even as we forgive others that have transgressed against us.

While in another place we again read, Love one another, even as I (Jesus) have loved you. Love your enemies and do good to them that wrongfully use you, or do evil to you. (Luke 11:4 and Matthew 5:44)

I say this by the Spirit of the Living God,

If we walk in the Light, even as He (Jesus) is in the light, we have fellowship with one another and the blood of Jesus Christ God's Son cleanses us from ALL SIN".
(1 John 1:7)

Finally brethren, be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind (having the mind of Christ, not the mind of carnal man or the mark of the beast in the forehead), live in peace and the God of Love and Peace shall be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss (By abiding in the holiness of God the Father and in His Son!).
(2Corinthians13: 11-12).

And finally 1 John 4:17 says, Herein is our love made perfect that we may have boldness in the Day of Judgment: because as He (Jesus) is, SO ARE WE IN THIS WORLD.

The Lord of Glory spoke two things to me over the years that are worthwhile repeating, and I trust that it will not only enter into our heads but also into our spirit man. They are the words spoken to me in January 1986, and they are the commandment of the Lord Jesus to all the Leaders that are leading God's people. "Be even as Jesus (in your love, life and example) unto the people." We are to be even as the Good Shepherd (Jesus) in John 10 to the people of God, and lead them by our love and example and not drive them or scatter them! In 1 John 2:6 and 1 Corinthians 11:1 we read, "A person that says he is abiding or living, in Christ ought himself also to walk even as He (Jesus) walked!" Again the Apostle Paul speaking to God's leaders and all of God's elect people ... Be followers of me (Paul), even as I follow Christ."

If we do not see the love, life, and example of Jesus in the leadership leading God's people, then the people of God are actually warned in John 10:1-18 to have nothing to do with them! Such individuals will have their own agenda, and not God's and may also have the mark of the beast in their foreheads, and in the right hand, and are leaders whom Jesus calls "wolves disguised or dressed in sheep's clothing"! Those of us who lead God's people need to realize that those verses are all written to us primarily, for as leaders we all need to become "EVEN AS JESUS UNTO THE PEOPLE". Please read Isaiah 56:9-12; deception is a terrible thing!

The second thing God told me was in 1992, when I was rebuked by God and was specifically told by Him to apologize to a certain ministry against whom I had a bad attitude. The Lord told me "THE ONLY AREA OF OUR LIVES WE WILL EVER BE PERFECTED IN, IS IN THE AREA OF THE LOVE OF GOD"! If ever the church needed the true baptism of the Holy Ghost, it is in our day! With that experience will also be the Baptism of Fire, which is being baptized into the Love of God.

What a terrible shake-up that was when Jesus came, and Israel's rejection of Him resulted in the Gentile Nations being grafted in. This resulted in Israel being rejected by God. No wonder Jesus looked and sounded like an absolute heretic to the Jewish leaders of His day, who many times declared him to be full of the devil, as He brought the dispensation of law to its conclusion. His preaching angered the leaders to no end! Even John the Baptist declared him to be "The Lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world." Everything the Jews knew and loved and believed—especially their traditions, as well as animal sacrifices—was over and done with when Jesus went to the Cross! Jesus wept over the city of Jerusalem on His way to the Cross because He knew the judgment of God that was going to come upon the entire nation and the great sorrow and heartache their rejection would bring and has brought to the Jews since that time! In 70 A.D. history records how Israel was destroyed from being a nation and only those who were able to flee for their lives were able to escape to the four corners of the earth.

The Fifth Great Shaking Was JESUS!

Are We Ready For Great Shaking Number Six?

Once again, God is Thundering His Warnings as the Seven Thunders (The Seven Spirits of God, Revelation 4:5, 10:3-4) are now clearly uttering their warnings with yet another Great Shake-Up in the history of man: when ... the haughtiness and the pride of man will be humbled! He has already been shaking many things, and even the disaster of September 11 in 2001 is clearly marked in the Bible for all the nations to see in Isaiah 2:14-18 and Zephaniah 1:14-18! We are living in a day when no one is going to get away with anything anymore only to finalize the Greatest Move of God that is yet to come, for “Out of the Great Shaking, there is also coming, a Great Harvest”!

The Apostle Paul’s letter to the Romans talks about the climax of this glorious and wonderful shake up the world is now a part of! Rom.11:25 says, “For I wish you not brethren that you should be ignorant of THIS MYSTERY, lest you should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, UNTIL THE FULLNESS OF THE GENTILES BE COME IN.”

Psalms 126 tells us,

When God restores again Zion we will be like those who dream (it will come like a dream in the night). Then will our mouths be filled with laughter and our tongues with singing: then they will say among the heathen (the nations of the earth). The Lord has done great things for them. The Lord has done great things for us; whereof we are glad. Turn again our captivity O Lord, as the streams in the south.

South is symbolic of the blessings of God that are going to come forth when the true ministry and true leadership God realizes the importance of knowing the Love of God, and also the blessing that is going to come from the unity of the brethren as described in Psalms 133. This is when God captivates our hearts and lives by His Great Love and making us into love slaves or “Bond servants unto Him” to the end where we will love not our lives unto the death of the cross, and where we also will come into proper order with the Father and His Son (see 1 Corinthians 11:1-3), and where the husbandman (God’s leadership) will also learn to love the church, the woman of God, which is to become the Bride of Christ and to love her ... Even as Christ loved the church and gave Himself for it. (Ephesians 5:25)

The scriptures in Ephesians 5:15-32 as well as 1Corinthians 1:1-16 speak very clearly of what this great mystery is according to God’s divine rule and authority!

Seeing then that you walk circumspectly; not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; SUBMITTING YOURSELVES ONE TO ANOTHER IN THE FEAR OF GOD. Wives (the church of God and of His Christ) submit yourselves unto your own husbands (husbandman – the ministry of Christ), as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the Head of the church: and He is the Savior of the body.

Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be also subject unto their own husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives even as Christ loved the church and gave Himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of the water by the word, that He might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. For he that loves His wife loves himself (understands the Love of God). For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord the church: (Telling the ministry of God to take care of the church even as Christ would. See Ephesians 5:28-29)

Please Note: The true servants of the Lord will love the church even as Christ Himself loves His church, for they belong to Him, and the good shepherds under Christ will not love them as do managers or as the hirelings. Managers or hirelings care more about their own agendas than they do for the sheep, and often forget that they are sheep also. These also operate through a spirit of control because of their own lack. They demand submission to their authority rather than lead by vision, and by their love and example. Submission comes by love and respect as the servant of God leads the people into the maturity of Christ and into the life of Jesus. They will possess the same qualities of the love, life and example that both Jesus and the apostles of Christ had. Please take the time to read John 10:1-18, Isaiah 56:9-12 and Jeremiah 3:14-17.

I also believe because of the mystery of God and the hidden meaning in His Word, this again is talking about the Word becoming flesh and living among us! Jesus said in John 6, Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood you have no part in me.

Going back to Ephesians 5:30-31,

“For we are members of His body, (we are members) of His flesh and of His bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother (speaking of the natural ties to our previous life, born and shaped in the iniquity natures of our earthly parents), and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be made into one flesh (in the Lord).”

Please note John 17:21-23,

Father that they may be one; as thou Father, are in me (Jesus), and I am in you, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that you have sent me. And that the glory, which you gave to me, I have also given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one: "I (Jesus) in them, and you in me, that they may be made PERFECT in one (IN YOUR LOVE), and that the world may know that you have sent me, and have loved them, as you have loved me."

Back in Ephesians 5:32 the great apostle sums it up, THIS IS A GREAT MYSTERY, BUT I SPEAK CONCERNING CHRIST AND THE CHURCH.

Note what the apostle Paul says in all of this: Eph.5:32-33,

Even though I have spoken to you a great mystery regarding a God given holy relationship between the church and the husbandman, which is the leadership; in verse 33 he says, Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as he loves himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

That last statement is so absolutely modest because nobody can allow anything and anyone to be more important in this life than loving God and His Son and doing the will of the Father, which is in heaven. Matthew 10:37-39 notes,

"He that loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. He that does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. He that finds his life shall lose it: and he that loses his life for my sake shall find it. (In other words, we cannot allow anything to distract us from loving God more than anything or anyone else.)"

This brings us to John 6:27 which tells us,

“Labor not for the meat (the things of this life), which all will perish. But (we are exhorted) to labor for the meat, (His life, love and nature in us) which endures unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for Him has God the Father sealed.”

Becoming like Jesus in our hearts and life through the power of the Holy Spirit of God is the thing that God sealed in the life of Christ here on earth, which the Son of man will also give unto us!

The word of God does not lie. God and His Son are willing to give us that same life Jesus had, even as they said they would. By grace are we saved and not by the works of man in which not one person on the face of the earth should boast. But at the same time let us never forget to work out our salvation in the Love of God with fear and trembling.

Finally the Great Shaking that God is now sending upon the whole world and into all of our lives is not designed to destroy us, but is designed to remove every hindrance that stops the flow of God and His love in our lives. He wants that river of life to be maintained just the way He gives it, pure and clean, and flowing from us crystal clear to a lost and dying world around us. We need to KEEP ourselves, and make sure that nothing of pollution comes into the River of Life that flows from the Throne of God and of the Lamb in our hearts. This is described in Revelation 22:1-5; 1Corinthians 11:27-34; Revelation 14:9-16

God promised on January 28, 2010, “He Himself is going to send forth His Glory by the Power of His Own Right Arm.” At the time of writing we are now seeing 2011 coming to a close and we have been witnessing the Great Shakings of God number six in the history of man. The scriptures are very clear that God is shaking everything: every continent, every ocean and every nation, and everything that can be shaken will be shaken to the full extent that the glory which God is ready to release into His last day church: no man and no woman will be able steal the glory of God's Right Arm and take the glory belonging to Father God and make it into the arm of flesh. Man will not be permitted to take the credit unto him or herself, for God has reserved certain things for His Glory, His Power, His Honor and Praise! Revelation 14:6-7 tells us: "And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters."

Let us thank the Lord for the Great Harvest that
He has promised!

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all, the world as a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. (Matthew 24:14)

When the Word Becomes Flesh-in us, He lives amongst us and we shall behold His Glory, in the fullness of His Grace and Truth (John 1:14)

Chapter Five

Warnings Given to America Since 1981

Watchman What of the Night? - (World War III), is my book that was both copyrighted and first published in February 1982. It can be found in the National Library of Canada. It tells how I miraculously escaped out of Communist Hungary in 1956 when I was a boy all alone at the age of nine! The book contains various visions (prophetic dreams) given to me over the years regarding the soon coming of Jesus. These events are already beginning to come to pass, and clearly expose to us the validity of the Word of God, and that the second coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is much closer than most people realize!

I am repeating here a chapter that is one of the sixteen that were originally contained in the book. Unless otherwise indicated, the Scriptures quoted are taken from the King James Version of the Bible. This third edition was published in November 1987.

Consider these verses of Scripture:

Watchman, what of the night: Watchman, what of the night? The watchman said the morning comes, and also the night. (Isaiah 21:11) The day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night: If therefore you shall not watch, I will come on you as a thief, and you shall not know what hour I will come upon you. (I Thessalonians 5:2, and Revelation 3:3). Woe unto you that desire the day of the Lord to what end is it for you? THE DAY OF THE LORD IS DARKNESS AND NOT LIGHT. (Amos 5:18) And his (Anti-Christ's and/or the Beast's) kingdom was full of darkness, and they gnawed their tongues for pain. (Revelation 16:10)

Zephaniah 1:14-18 gives us a clear description of what the Word of God means by the day of the Lord:

The great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hastens greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord: the mighty man shall cry bitterly. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of great waste and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, a day of the trumpet and alarm against the walled CITIES, and against the HIGH TOWERS. And I will bring distress upon men, because they have sinned against the Lord: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath: but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all the wicked sinners that dwell in the land.

In Luke 17:26-30 we read: As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, UNTIL THE DAY THAT NOAH ENTERED INTO THE ARK, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot: they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; BUT THE SAME DAY THAT LOT WENT OUT OF SODOM, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

Please note: The destruction in both Noah's and Lot's days never came until both of their families were taken out of the destruction, and were first in a place of safety!

God's Holy Spirit today is dealing with the hearts of people all over the world to come to repentance before it is too late, and urging God's people to get ready for the time of ENTERING INTO THE ARK OF GOD'S SAFETY IS AT HAND! I praise the Lord for all this, for He certainly will not leave His people, His chosen, and His anointed (who will have an ear to hear) in darkness. But the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you for yourselves

know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night FOR WHEN THEY SHALL SAY, PEACE AND SAFETY: THEN SUDDEN DESTRUCTION COMES UPON THEM AS TRAVAIL UPON A WOMAN WITH CHILD: AND THEY SHALL NOT ESCAPE! 1Thessalonians 5:1-4

THE VISION OF MARCH 24, 1981

“Peace and Safety: Economic Chaos: and World War 3”

This vision was given one week before President Reagan was wounded by the would-be assassin's bullet!

I see the Westminster Abbey of England directly across the lawn from the OVAL OFFICE. The Westminster Abbey (the national sanctuary and burial place in the borough of Westminster, London, England) stood as a monument of the past. The front entrance was facing the Oval Office and a statue of a national hero was also shown in front of the monument. For years I have tried to find the building that I saw in the vision and only recently did I discover that the actual build in the vision being shown was the Federal Hall (building) in New York City and the statue in front of the building was that of George Washington who became the First President of the United States of America. It was George Washington that prayed at the St. Paul's chapel in 1789 at the corner of Ground O regarding the blessings of heaven that would be upon the nation as long as they would keep the precepts and the laws and commandments of heaven. But if they would not keep the God's laws and precepts established in the heavens, God would withdraw his hand of blessings from the nation! Sid Roth did a fine job with Jonathan Cahn on his program 'It's Supernatural' the end of September 2011, in bringing much light on the judgments of God that are now quickly being fulfilled.

What does this vision tell us?

(a) The time of the end is at hand! In Daniel 7:4 we are shown a lion with eagle's wings, the wings of the lion are plucked off and it is made to stand on its feet like a man. Even though this represented the Babylonian Empire originally we have also seen through modern history the Great British Empire whose symbol has also been the Lion. The British Empire became great on the wings of the wind as the great sails of Her Majesty's Ships conquered the world and brought fame and fortune to the small nation. In those days "Britannia Ruled the Waves!" But today it is only a memory of the past. Today we see the young lion has taken the mother's place as a Super Power on the world scene—the United States of America. Because history repeats itself, and also because PRIDE GOES BEFORE A FALL, the decline of the United States of America (the young lion overshadowed by the wings of the American Eagle) is inevitable.

In the original book "Watchman what of the Night?" published in 1982, I actually shared "The death of a nation and Canada included is inevitable." It seems like with the drastic changes that are yet to take place in both our nations and both our countries, we are definitely going to go through as it were a death experience compared to the glory and wealth God has blessed our nations with! Also if someone looks at how the terrorist networks of today have been threatening our nations and people, these warnings given by the Lord are beginning to be fulfilled very rapidly! I only say "beginning to be fulfilled" because the Great Shakings and with it the Great Changes that are yet coming, we have seen nothing yet; and that is so sad and so unfortunate!

What building was being shown was not clear in the visions given on March 24, 1981, all I knew is that it was a monument of the past and the statue being shown was not clear, and because of this I originally wrote: "I believe the statue of the hero standing in front of the church door and across from the Oval Office was President Reagan, but it could also mean someone else yet to come." However, it was England that hailed the former movie actor President as a hero due to his excellent ability and good sense of humor, great tact, and self-control, which he was able to display in the face of death and severe crisis.

After I had received these visions, I was immediately directed to share these visions with Pat Robertson of the Christian Broadcast Network, six days before the President was shot and wounded.

(b) In the next part of the vision I was now looking inside the White House: I saw President Reagan walking into the White House, followed by Vice-President Bush, who is followed by other people, but I did not recognize them. By this time President Reagan's hair had completely turned gray, and on top it was almost all white. Upon seeing this I exclaimed, "The Presidency has sure been hard on the man!" (I personally believe this part of the vision is actually symbolic of the President that will be there when our economies are all going to fail!) Both the President and the Vice-President were extremely busy as the following events were clearly shown and as the Word of the Lord came to me. (In this description all the words given to me by the Lord are capitalized and are also in quotation marks!)

(c) "ALL NORTH AMERICAN AUTO MAKERS HAD GONE BANKRUPT!" One month later on the news the exact words given to me in the vision are quoted as a foreshadowing, "All North American Auto Makers have experienced" during the first quarter of the fiscal year "the greatest losses in all history of the automobile industry!"

(d) "ALL NORTH AMERICAN PASSENGER AIRLINES HAD ALSO GONE BANKRUPT." In the United States as well as many other areas of the world I believe the governments may have to take over the airline industry to keep the planes in the air.

During the summer of 1981, the power by the government exerted over the Airline Industry as was displayed in the Controllers Strike was a foreshadowing of a greater event that was to take place in the future! The passenger airlines were not only being effected in the United States, but it seems to me they were being affected in other parts of the world as well. In the December 21, 1981 edition of Time page 46, talking about the passenger airline manufacturers, it was stated that Lockheed, the builders of the L-1011 was going out of the commercial airline business because they have lost over 2.5 billion dollars since 1968. Meanwhile Boeing and McDonnell-Douglas, the world's largest airline manufacturers, were experiencing severe cutbacks in production, as well as orders.

(e) Next I saw a large map of the USSR being shown on the wall of the White House. The President as well as others were shown studying the transportation systems in the Soviet Union and were comparing them to those in the USA. In all areas the Soviets had made great improvements and were now up to par and comparable to those in the United States. In the area of electric trains the Russians were well ahead.

(f) The Russian Automakers are mentioned. While the North American Automakers were running into severe trouble, "THE RUSSIAN AUTOMAKERS MAKE AN AMAZING LATE COMEBACK."

(g) The Soviet Leaders had adopted a very moderate system of government, as well as in certain areas a free enterprise system into their economy. Leonid Brezhnev came into the picture, but by name only. He became as it appears to me a genius overnight, and I also see him being hailed as the Greatest Peace Maker that ever lived*. He calls for peace agreements to be signed with the United States—the greatest peace movement on the part of the Russians that has ever been attempted! Time Magazine November 30, and December 7, 1981, confirmed this in part with Leonid Brezhnev caricatured as an 'angel of peace' riding a missile (the color of the angel was black). The picture denotes a genuine prophetic picture of things to come. See 1 Thessalonians 5:3:

When they shall say peace and safety, sudden destruction comes upon them as travail upon a woman.

* [During the late 1980s we saw Gorbachev and the great changes begin to come to pass! He also received the Nobel Peace Prize in the early 1990s.]

There is also a time coming in the future when I believe we will see the United States beginning to lose control over its allies. In Western Europe mass peace demonstrations were held during the last half of 1981 and people were saying, “better red than dead” (Time magazine November 30th, 1981).

(h) I next saw another oil crisis coming on the horizon. I saw one of the Russian Leaders taking a prominent role, and calling upon all oil producing nations to “respect the free flow of oil to all nations.” Also, during the crisis the economies of both Western Europe and Japan were threatened severely! The coming oil crisis will be much more severe than any other previous.

(i) In Revelation 6:5-6 famine is predicted, and we also find the words “and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.” Oil and the wine in the natural are symbolic of the wealth and the life of plenty. Isaiah 16:9-10 gives an account of a situation in which the destruction of the harvests is described and the life of plenty coming to a sudden and abrupt end!

(j) President Reagan is shown for the last time, as I see him inside the White House with suitcases packed, ready to leave for Moscow. There is great reluctance on his part for his own intuition does not trust the Russians. There seems to be however no choice in the matter, as public appeal for world peace seem to be the deciding factors inside the Oval Office! The trip to Moscow is made and the agreements signed! Following the signing of the peace agreements, “A GREAT CALM” (the “Peace and Safety” spoken of by the Apostle Paul in 1 Thessalonians 5:3) comes on the international scene: and with this “GREAT CALM”, a “GREAT DECEPTION” is also shown in the vision. Seemingly, the people of the world are literally deceived into thinking, that the horrible threat of a nuclear war, which everybody was so afraid of, had finally been eliminated!

(k) My attention was once again brought back to the Soviet Union and the great changes that had taken place, leaving me literally amazed!

(l) Suddenly, I see a horrible storm erupting like an untimely volcano as “RUSSIA VERY BELLIGERENTLY TURNS ON ALL OF THE AGREEMENTS THEY HAVE EVER SIGNED”. Those were the exact words given to me by the Lord. I did not know what the word ‘belligerent’ meant until I looked it up in the Oxford dictionary, and I was amazed to find the meaning of it to be “A nation waging regular war as recognized by the law of nations.” This was the beginning of World War III.

(m) During that war Russia will Invade Western Europe, and will attack North America and Israel. But, according to Ezekiel 38:8 and 14, there is a possibility that Russia will also sign a Peace Treaty with the nation of Israel in the very near future preceding the war!

(n) GOOD NEWS, TO ALL THOSE WHO ARE BLOOD WASHED, BORN AGAIN, OVERCOMING BELIEVERS AND ARE ALIVE AND REMAINING IN THE LORD JESUS CHRIST! Those who were ready, and preparing their lives, and looking for the Lord Jesus to appear in their lives personally, will not be concerned, anxious or found wanting when all these things come to pass!

Read 1 Thessalonians 5:4-9:

But you brethren are not in darkness, that the day of the Lord should over take you as a thief in the night. You are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober. For they that sleep they sleep in the night; and they that are drunken are drunken in the night. But let us, who are of the day, be sober, and put on the breastplate of FAITH and LOVE (close to the heart); and for a helmet the HOPE of salvation (being renewed in our minds by the washing of the Word and thus possessing the mind of Christ). For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, Who died for us that whether we are awake (are alive) or asleep (have died) that we should live together with Him.

(o) In conclusion of this vision, I would like to say that there are two things to consider:

(1) Before the war, we will see a deceptive move on the part of Russia to catch the entire world off guard! She will gain many friends because of the changes that are going to come in both her international and home policies: and especially for her GREAT EFFORTS OF PEACE! Keep an eye on Leonid Brezhnev and other leaders (to come) inside the Soviet Union, as well as the GREAT CHANGES THAT ARE SOON TO TAKE PLACE!

(2) Keep an eye on the Reagan Administration (the 40th Residency). Perchance if these events do not come to pass during Reagan's first term in office, both he and Vice President Bush WILL BE BACK FOR ANOTHER FOUR-YEAR TERM!

We have come to the end of the prophecies and visions given by God on March 24, 1981 and also published February 1982.

Jesus said, when we begin to see these things come to pass, we are to start looking up for our redemption is drawing nigh! That word 'look up' means that we are setting our affections, love, and life on the things above. The Bible commands us to labor for the meat that does not perish, which is seeking the very life of Christ to be made real and manifested in each one of us! Unfortunately most people, including Christians today, are busy seeking their own selfish gains, and laboring all of their lives for the things that do not produce the life of Christ in them!

Four more things to note:

(1) Those who do not know the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Savior need to repent and make things right with

God. The word of God tells us God is not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

(2) Many of the visions (during this third edition of the prophecies in October 1987) are rapidly coming to pass. Part of the vision that has been fulfilled is The Falkland Islands War. I feel one of the reasons for seeing the Westminster Abbey of England across the lawn from the White House was indicative of the British nation going to war. Britain had another chance to relive the glories of her past in a very small way! Not only did the Reagan administration support the British initiative, but the very next day after the Argentines surrendered in the spring of 1982, President Reagan was the first foreign parliamentarian ever in history to address the British Parliament of Westminster.

[When God instructed me to share my visions with Pat Robertson of the Christian Broadcast Network, I wrote a letter describing the war that took place in Hungary in the 16th Century between my ancestors and the Turkish invaders that ruled Hungary for 150 years at the Fortress of Eger. That war was reminiscent of the miracles that we read in the Old Testament. As I know the story, a small group of Hungarians numbering around 3,000 held off a force of over 80,000 to 100,000 Turkish invaders for 30 days. Apparently the Turks could not keep up with the slaughter that took place on their end. On the final day as the leaders told the troops to attack in the name of Allah, the troops turned around and said, "Allah is with them, and not us!" and fled the scene before day break, apparently leaving their tents behind them.

The commander and hero of that battle who died from his wounds was Dobo Istvan. My mother's maiden name was Dobo Johannah. She was born and raised in the city of Eger and is a direct descendant from the Dobo family. In that war there were people from both sides of my family tree. Now in Christ Jesus we fight the good fight of faith!]

3) Let us now consider the great changes that have come to the Soviet Union during the past two years in their amazing new leader, Mikhail Gorbachev. Regarding the great changes that are yet to be fulfilled, inside the Soviet Union, we will see a new wave of religious freedom and other freedoms restored to amazing new heights, which will be short lived! Concerning the great changes, I would like to quote the slogan President Reagan used during the election campaign of 1984 “YOU HAVE SEEN NOTHING YET!”

4) In the Western World we are going to see the economies spinning out of control. The situation In the Persian Gulf will bring to pass what I foresaw in the oil crisis. In the event of a war in the Middle East, the economies reeling, and a further event of a national crisis I have pondered for the past six years, the possibility of President Reagan yet returning for another term in office after 1988 (even as Roosevelt did during the war years).

[Please note: President Reagan did not return for another four year term, but it is amazing how years later, we now have President George W. Bush following in his father’s footsteps, and the situations that I have described coming to pass as they now are! The prophetic overtones in all that I have written are from the Lord, the Creator of heaven and earth; it is He that has directed my life.]

On Friday, October 30th, 1987 the announcement was made that “President Reagan will be going to Moscow to sign the agreements in 1988.” I emphatically declared that since 1981!

[To update this during the fourth publication of this vision, in January 1989, God very specifically told me. “THE ECONOMY WOULD START LEVELING OFF AND ALL AGREEMENTS BEGUN BY REAGAN AND GORBACHEV WOULD BE COMPLETED UNDER BUSH! A TERRIBLE JUDGMENT AWAITS NORTH AMERICA! THE CHURCH WORLD WILL SUFFER GREATLY BECAUSE OF HER SINS, BUT IN HARD TIMES WE WILL SEE REVIVAL!”]

Proverbs 14:34 tells us, Righteousness exults a nation, but sin is a reproach (will bring the destruction) of any people.

Chapter Six

Sins of the Church World in America Repentance is a must!

What are the sins that the church world in America needs to repent of, more than anything else? There are two sins that will never be forgiven are:

1. “Blaspheming the Holy Spirit of God (because when this happens people are actually blaspheming God Himself by making mockery and attribute the work and power of the Holy Spirit to the Devil) even as they did in the Gospels with Jesus. Then also never call someone a child of hell: for it is God who has the power to judge and to condemn a person and to cast into hell. Jesus said do not fear him that is able to kill the body but fear Him who is able to cast both body and soul into hell fire.

2. Then the next big sin has to do with what is written in Revelation 22:18-19. Then there is a second in the gospels, never say RACA to another brother for they shall be in danger of the councils of God. The councils of God I believe is very much similar to what Rev.22:18 describes as the judgments and plagues written in the book. Very specifically: When it comes to the Revelation of Jesus Christ in Rev. 22:18 it is talking about the Book and the plagues written in the Book: All in the Revelation of Jesus Christ! While another says to their brother "thou fool" or you child of hell, shall be in danger of hell fire.

In Revelation 22:19 we find this very serious warning:

Actually both Revelation22:18 & 19 are very serious warnings that have been lightly esteemed and even completely ignored by the church world and the church leaders of our day!

Let me ask you the question: How is the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord being considered or honored, when they throw all the man given interpretations into the book, and then also take away from the words of the prophecies that are written in the book? There is only One Book that this it is talking about here, when it comes to the Revelation of Jesus Christ. The reason I am able to say that is because there is only One Revelation of Jesus Christ, and that is coming to know the Father and the Son all through the Power of God's Holy Spirit. And all the other things written in the Word of God if understood properly will bring only one thing, and that is to bring the people of God into the knowing relationship that has been ordained from the foundation of the world, even as Romans 8:28-29 states: "All things work together for Good to those that Love God, and that we may become conformed or changed into the Image and Likeness of Jesus Christ." Hope this is not over your head: and even if it is at this time, I truly hope both the leaders of God's people, as well as God's people who are called by His Name are able to take these warnings very seriously and will come out of Babylon described in Revelation chapter 18. The Harlot Systems of men, where we have been compromising our relationship with the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and Father God for the base things of this life and of this world.

It is wonderful that God sealed up the sayings of Daniel until the last days, because without the last book, the Revelation of Jesus Christ, it was never God's intention that the we misinterpret what God has been trying to say to us throughout the generations and Centuries before us. If what we teach or have been teaching has not complimented what Jesus Himself preached in the Gospels, and/or what the apostles of Christ preached in their letters: the people will be greatly hindered in coming into the knowledge of the Truth when it comes to truly knowing Jesus and where we truly are able to Worship the Father in the power of God's Holy Spirit transforming our inner man, into the same image and likeness of Jesus Christ. And that is what it truly means to be translated and transformed from being a worker of iniquity, into "Becoming Even As Jesus unto the People". In Rev.22:10 the book was left open!

As the people of God we need to take these messages to our leaders and to the churches: Because one of the GREATEST SINS OF AMERICAN PREACHERS AND THE CHURCHES OF AMERICA AS WELL AS ALL THE REST IS EXACTLY WHAT THESE TWO SCRIPTURES DESCRIBE. They have recklessly put men's interpretations into that Glorious Book and taken away from leading the people of God that they may truly OVERCOME EVERY HINDRANCE AND EVERY SIN within their own lives. The gathering of the people must no longer be unto “the Men of Great Renown.” When man’s ministry becomes great and the name becomes great, how is Jesus our Lord glorified?

The gathering of the People must be Unto Jesus and unto Father God, in the power of God’s Holy Spirit into the fullness of the Revelation of the Relationship that Father God has ordained for us to have in Him, and in His Son. Matthew 11:25-30, and also Revelation 1:1-3. In the natural God has given visions and dreams as sign posts with only one purpose and that purpose is to truly bring us into that knowing relationship that is only found in THE SPIRIT OF HOLINESS (WHOLENESS OR ONE-NESS) AND IN TRUTH: Even as it is described in Rev.2:17.

Please note in the following and the Spiritual overtones contained in the rest of the visions being shared, for the things of God are spiritually discerned (1Cor. 2).

The warnings are very clear-REPENTANCE IS A MUST!

But also note the warnings that are in the book of Revelation – “And they repented not ... ”

The Westminster Abbey of England (the national sanctuary and burial place) typifies the judgment of God falling on not only America and the entire world as we know it but also the modern-day church world as well, The Great Religious Beast Systems of Men!

I have described the destruction of the great POLITICAL BEAST SYSTEMS OF THE WORLD as they were shown me. They bring to mind the handwriting that appeared on the wall of the king's palace in Babylon during the Prophet Daniel's day as found in Daniel 5:25-28.

This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it. TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. PERES; your kingdom is divided and given to other nations.

Now the handwriting of God's Judgment has appeared once again! The words that were written on the palace wall, "MENE, MENE TEKEL UPHARSIN" are very similar both to the words and rhythm of pronunciation of the words given to me by the Lord on December 11, 1956: "MOST AZ A NAP, HOGY ELKEL MENI", meaning today is the day that you must leave! It was upon hearing the voice of the Lord that I left Hungary at the age of nine and escaped across the Iron Curtain.

As a matter of interest, the Hungarian language originated from Babylon and has its roots in an ancient Babylonian language. The name Magyar (Hungarian) is basically identical to the name that was in those days given to the city of Abraham which is also called Ur, Mugayyar or Mugheir, was at one time a seaport on the Persian Gulf. This was at the mouth of the Euphrates River, twelve miles from Eridu, the traditional site of the Garden of Eden. (Although I personally believe that the Garden of Eden was much bigger than this and extended right into Africa, including the Nile River. Genesis 2:10-14

In Genesis 11:28-31 we find,

Haran (who was Abraham's brother), died before their father Terah in his native land, in Ur of the Chaldees... And Terah took Abraham his son and Haran's son Lot and daughter Sarah, Abraham's wife; and they went forth from Ur of the Chaldees to go into Canaan.

According to history, when Babylon was invaded (Daniel 5:30-31) and taken over by the Medes and Persians, apparently the Magyars, Fins, and Estonians as well as other groups that remained behind in Russia (namely two tribes – the Vogul and the Oszyak), escaped north and into the areas surrounding the Ural mountains in Russia. The name Ural Mountains in the Hungarian language means ‘mountains of the lords or rulers’. Ur in Hungarian means Lord even to this day! The ancient Magyars were fierce fighters that were never conquered until after they settled in the Great Plains of the Danube River southwest of the Carpathian Mountains. I believe with all my heart that the Magyar nation needs to fully repent of the atrocities carried out in their ruthless campaigns against the peoples that they conquered and plundered over the centuries to break the curses that have brought centuries of wars, heartache, and conquest by other empires upon them that they may truly receive the blessings of God, even as the Hungarian national anthem says “Isten Ald Meg a Magyar” God bless the Hungarians.

Also, May the people of North America repent of all their evil deeds and may God bless America, is my sincere wish and prayer!

I would like to address the rest of this pamphlet to the spiritual overtones contained in this vision pertaining to the modern church world. Paul writes, For the things of God are spiritually discerned (1Corinthians 2:14). Also note in Proverbs 14:34, Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach (will bring the destruction) of any people.

The Westminster Abbey of England (the national sanctuary and burial place) typifies the judgment of God falling on not only America, but the modern day church world as well—the Great Religious Beast System. Even as the handwriting appeared on the wall of the king's palace in Babylon, during the Prophet Daniel's day; so now the handwriting of God's Judgment has appeared, once again!

No nation under heaven has been given so much power and wealth as the United States of America—a nation that is supposed to be under God. Yet never in the history of the world has there been such a mixture and misrepresentation of truth and the true gospel of Jesus Christ as been in our time! Today, God's name (nature, love, life and character) has been blasphemed by the unholy lives that are running and using the name of Christ or "born again", but they have not come to know Jesus properly in their lives, nor do they worship Him "in spirit and in truth."

1. I believe these visions, which I have shared, have everything to do with the book of Revelation and the destruction of the GREAT CITY OF BABYLON: THE CITY OR CHURCH UNDER DECEPTION, BUT THE LORD IS CALLING HIS BRIDE TO COME OUT OF HER! In Revelation 18 we find these words: Come out of her my people and be not partakers of her sins, and that you receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities!

Why? They have not been founded IN CHRIST but in man! When churches and great organizational structures and nations (denominations) have been raised up, out of the earthy, beastly nature and heart in man (as the large majority have been), the wages of sin is still the same: "DEATH." And so we are at the forefront of witnessing the great destruction of Spiritual Babylon. Jesus said to Peter in Matthew 16: 17-18, Upon this rock I will build my church.

That rock is nothing less than the REVELATION KNOWLEDGE OF JESUS CHRIST! KNOWLEDGE THAT COMES FROM HEAVEN AND GIVEN BY THE HEAVENLY FATHER—the New Jerusalem, the True Bride of Christ, and the Church of the Firstborn, possessing the likeness and character of Christ, and nothing less. The book of Revelation talks much about those who dwell on the earth (base, carnal, earthly realm).

Their lives are not rooted in the Christ who is seated in the heavens, but rather in the earthly heart of man—the Bible calls him "THE MAN OF SIN." Under the "Religious Beast System" Christianity at large has gone whoring after the inventions of their own hearts instead of asking, seeking, and knocking diligently and whole-heartedly that the Door of the Revelation Knowledge of the Son of God be made known in our hearts and lives.

Often we find ourselves to have what the Bible calls a “beastly image of who Christ really is” (according to our natural, base and/or carnal minds and no proper understanding). With signs and wonders forming a platform of deception in many circles (see Revelation 13: 13-18) causing people to run after the signs and miracles that are all temporary solutions to this life, but they forget about being genuine and truly seeking the life of Jesus within them, which is truly the meat or bread of heaven which shall never perish!

In John 6:26-27 Jesus described this well,

Truly, truly I say unto you, you seek me not because you saw the miracles (The spiritual side, which should have caused the people to hunger and thirst after God Himself); but because you ate of the loaves and were filled (Meaning they were interested in satisfying their natural desires only! Seeking only a temporary solution: and not the eternal life that was available to them!) Labor not for the meat that perishes but for the meat that endures unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give for Him has God the Father sealed.

Likewise, the only reason most churches of the day interpret almost everything in Revelation to be the political systems of this world is that many leaders have not sought the Father for a revelation of His Son Jesus Christ. This is ready to be revealed into their hearts and lives but they are mostly still blind to the mysteries of God and the genuine love of God. They have never come to a proper understanding of either the truth or the life of Christ inside them! Without genuine and true repentance or the understanding of it, we have created a mixture that God hates (See Revelation 14:8-11) and which is utter blasphemy to the nature and character of God! The fiery trials are sent from God to purge and to purify us, producing that God-kind of fruit, and not bring the worst out of us (Revelation 16:8-9)!

Jesus is coming back for a spotless Bride, and the Head (Christ Jesus) will never be joined to a body that is not pure, sinless and holy even as He is! It is time to stop fooling ourselves! But, still in all of this we can thank the Lord for His Great Love, Mercy, and Grace, and the longsuffering of Christ that continues to strive with man until he dies. 2 Peter 3:9 tells us, For the Lord is not slack concerning His promise as some me count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

God knows those that are His and those that are not. And, it is not for us to judge, but for all of us to serve, to seek, and to love the Lord with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength, and to love our neighbor as ourselves. We need the Light of the Holy Spirit to search our hearts and to drive away the darkness within!

2. “All North American Automakers and All North American Airlines went Bankrupt”. Not only is this catastrophe natural but God is saying, “Under the religious beast system, the churches of today for the major part ARE SPIRITUALLY BANKRUPT!”

Before the flood Noah built a ship (which is a type of the New Jerusalem) whose design and plan came as a revelation from heaven. I’m sure that in Noah’s day there were great structures and so-called places of worship like there are today. In our day the ‘passenger ships’ (see Revelation 18:17-19) have been replaced by the modern airlines (airships). They seemingly have taken to the wings of God’s Spirit with many of the ministries appearing as angels of light. The problem with the design of these beautiful structures and organizations is that they did not come out of heaven from the heart of God but according to carnal imagination of man. Designed, built, whitewashed, flown and controlled by man, having peoples’ lives and hearts rooted into a system instead of into God!

This is why Jesus warned. “Many shall come before Him and say, Lord, Lord” but they have never truly come to know Him. (See Matthew 7: 15-23). Luke 13:23-28 talks about people who went to church all their lives, sat under the teachings of Christ, ate at his table, and drank from his presence: “Ever learning but never coming to the knowledge of the truth.” They never received the revelation knowledge of who Christ really is! Through their programs, “horses and chariots”—typified by the modern “Automakers” and by their own inventions, they have created and propagated another Gospel, not to mention another Jesus, than the Jesus that the Apostles of Christ preached. 2 Peter 2:1-3 tells us, *They have deceived the multitudes into following their pernicious (injurious) ways for their way is the way of destruction** instead of seeking the life, character and the example of Christ!

Yes, a day of “Great Calm,” a false peace: and “Great Deception!” And just when the modern church world of our day thinks they have it made, and that the gods they have been serving are pleased with them, a great destruction breaks forth upon them from the heavens, as all the works of man are burnt up and the elements melt with fervent heat!

Jesus warned of many false prophets (preachers), many antichrists, false apostles, false teachers, and enemies of the cross coming in His name but deceiving many. They may be able to command great crowds and seemingly win many souls and have all the markings of the genuine outwardly, but inwardly according to the word of God, they are ravening wolves attired in sheep’s clothing. These are the workers of iniquity that Jesus spoke of, all using His name but deceiving many—only because the beastly devilish nature is still alive in them. May God help our generation to truly repent and the leaders to become “Even As Jesus, Unto the People”!

In 1 John 2:6 the Apostle John tells us, He that says he abides or lives in Him (that is Christ) ought himself also to walk, even as He walked. While the Apostle Paul says, in

1 Corinthians 11:1, Be also followers of me, (my love, life and example) even as I am also the follower Christ.

2 Peter 2:1-3 reads,

But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privately shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them (these people had a born again experience, but not an inward revelation of the life and nature of Christ in them), and they shall bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways: by reason by whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you; whose judgment now of a long time lingers not, and their damnation slumbers not.

These spiritual interpretations for the visions received were given to me by the Lord in 1987, after I spent the entire year of 1986 seeking the Lord so that I myself would hopefully receive a revelation of Jesus Christ into my own heart and life!

“Seek the Lord while He may be found and draw near to Him while He is near and let the wicked forsake his ways and unrighteous man his thoughts.” Also, “let us search and try our ways and RETURN UNTO THE LORD.”

In the Book called the Revelation of Jesus Christ, the word “Repented Not” is found 5 times. The beast people are marked with the number 5, they go by their 5 natural senses, and when they are under the influence of Satan which is deception they get the number of man – 666.

The flesh, the world and the devil: the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of this world and of this life! How many more combinations do we need to name to list them all? The workers of iniquity are numbered by the False Prophet; they are numbered by the Beast, and they are numbered by Satan – all under Great Deception.

They are numbered in their foreheads (not having the mind of Christ), they are numbered in their right hand (not becoming the right hand ministry of God the Father as the works of man follow them instead of being killed and crucified with Christ, by the Holy Spirit so they are able to cease from their own labors, and the works of Christ follow them. The workers of iniquity are the opposite of what Revelation 14:12-13 says, as well as Rev.15:2-4. Instead of doing the Heavenly Father's will, they are fulfilling Revelation 13:11-18 and 14:9-11 and taking the mark of the beast, the name of the beast or the number of his name. The same workers of iniquity Jesus warned us about, as well as the many false prophets (or false preachers, and teachers, who unfortunately are followed by the people having itching ears), and the many antichrists the apostles of Christ also warned us about. These are all warnings for every single one of us, to take heed and not to be.

Only God's Holy Spirit can turn us around (bring true repentance), and bring us into a solid relationship that will glorify the Father and the Son, all through the power of God's Holy Spirit working mightily within us; to truly change us and to transform us into the same image as Jesus Christ, who is "the first born of the many brethren" found in Romans chapter 8. God manifesting Himself in the true relationship in the sons of God: and yes He has also promised to bring many sons into His Glory. His Glory means God's life, light and love being glorified and manifested within them: To be manifested within us! And guess what? - No man knows the name He gives us, except unto the person that receives it, (Rev. 2:17): The name He gives is a New Nature, and a New Character, being transformed into the same character, image and likeness as His dear Son! It is all about relationship. Jesus who is the Christ and the only True Messiah and is the only One that is able to save humankind and restore them back to Father God.

The harlot woman (the false bride) is so described in the word of God (Proverbs 6:16-19, 20-35 and chapter 7, and believe me it is not only the Catholic Church, but in every single denomination there are strong elements that are hindering the work of God in the people's lives. The strong elements are the false interpretations and the false teachings of men who are not being driven and not properly motivated by the power of God's Holy Spirit in them. The greatest motivation we can ever have is to continually ask, seek and knock that the door of the Revelation knowledge of Jesus Christ can become truly opened unto us until we become "Even as Jesus unto the people". The book of Proverbs chapter 31:1-9 deals with wisdom for leaders and the cause of the poor and the needy as well as the virtuous woman which is really the Bride of Jesus Christ, in verses 10-31.

When Jesus in the Gospels said, "why do you call me good, there is none good except the Heavenly Father," He was definitely trying to get our attention that without us abiding in the Power of God's Holy Spirit how can we truly become "Even as Jesus Unto the People". Jesus only did the will of the Father and only did what He knew and saw the Father doing!

If any man becomes convicted by the messages that are being given out, please do not get angry or upset. But it is definitely time to start seeking the Lord of Glory, that He truly may be glorified within us! "Watch and pray that we all may be worthy to escape, all the things that are coming on the face of the whole earth and to stand before the Son of Man." Luke 21:34-36

God bless you and have a good day!

"Life and death are in the power of the tongue, and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof." Proverbs 18:21 and also Revelation 22:1-5 If we love life we will love the Word of God and speak and pray the word of God, and give to God the sacrifice of praise continually which is the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his Name. Heb. 13:15 Also a "Wholesome tongue is a tree of life, but perverseness there in breaks the flow of God's spirit in us." Proverbs 15:4

(For Rev. 22:1-5 please refer back to chapter 3)

Chapter Seven

God's Dealings with America and 9/11

The following letter was written in response to the attacks that took place in New York City.

Desi Jakab in Malawi, Central Africa September 14, 2001

Dear Friends in Christ:

Martha and I greet you all in the wonderful name of Jesus. Just want to thank all the good people that have been praying for us and for helping and keeping in touch, as well as the others who are not used to keeping in touch as well, but we know you love us. We are both doing fine and also keeping busy with the orphanage here in Africa.

Martha and I were deeply shocked and both very sorry regarding the attacks that took place in New York City on Tuesday of this week. I'm sure many people have shed tears over the thousands of people that perished

We however know that God is God, and He is also sovereign and He does rule over the affairs of the nations.

Psalms 66:7 and Daniel 4:17 tell us,

He rules by His power forever: His eyes behold the nations: Let not the rebellious exalt themselves...That the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men and gives it to whomsoever He will.

Daniel 2:28-29 (paraphrased) and also Amos 3:7 tell us,

There is a God in heaven that reveals secrets, and makes known... what shall be in the Last Days. God's thoughts came into my head upon my bed, what should come to pass hereafter, and He that reveals secrets has made known to me, what shall come to pass. ...Surely the Lord will do nothing but he reveals His secret unto His servants the prophets.

The following was given to me in the winter of 1982:

Look to the nations, and wonder marvelously, for I will work a work in your days that though it were told you, it would be hard to believe. (Habakkuk 1:5)

And the Lord answered me and said. Write the vision and make it plain... that everyone can read it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time and it hastens to the end (fulfillment): it will not deceive or disappoint. Though it tarries, wait for it, because it will surely come to pass, on the appointed day. (Habakkuk 2:2-3)

Little did I ever realize after the many things God gave and showed me over the years in the visions given in 1979 and 1981—especially the ones that pertained to the United States of America, and in fact all of North America—would suddenly unfold before our very eyes, even as they have this past week. The prophecies that were given came as it were in the form of a jigsaw puzzle.

In the first part of the vision (as I have already shared in Chapter 5) I saw the Westminster Abbey of England across the lawn from the White House. The building was not the actual Abbey itself, but it stood as a monument to the past. Because I am not acquainted with what is actually in Washington, D.C. other than the White House, I did my best to pray, but I did have some trouble sharing the interpretations.

At first I was very excited to realize that God loved me so much that He would take the time to speak to me and practically drove my friends and acquaintances crazy during the first part of the 1980s. I was constantly talking about the visions and dreams that the Lord was giving me. My children, in their growing up years, would bring their friends home, and I would be told, “Dad whatever you do, we are having our friends over; do not give them your pamphlets and prophecies!” Even the word please was forgotten and left out of their vocabulary.

My children would tease me, “Dad we are going to write a book about you one day entitled, How We Raised Dad. Another friend would often tease me, “Desi, I would write a book about you, but nobody would believe me.”

During the cold war, things just weren't the way they are now, and most people back then were not familiar with either the scriptures or the teachings of the Holy Bible. It was normal for me to believe that visions and dreams were part of the Christian heritage and the norm of life as far as the Early Church saints were concerned (see Acts 2:14-21). After all, I thought all Pentecostals were Pentecostal! What a shocking experience I had to find out that things were not that way. But we need to be careful not to end up fighting the anointing of God and the gifting that He has placed in some people's lives, and we do not end up having the same type of mindset that the leaders who opposed Jesus had—people who refused to accept the truth, because of the old way they were taught according to the traditional teachings of men.

Christianity today teaches things the way it does because for the most part the teachings have become the tradition of the church. The Bible calls these things “old wine skins”—the old mindset. This is something only God can change, but our hearts must be open to the Holy Spirit to teach us, and also hunger and thirst for His righteousness so we can receive the Word of God by worshipping Him in Spirit and in Truth, for “His Word is Truth”. Whenever I receive something from the Lord, I always go to the Word of God, the Holy Bible, to find out what He is saying to me, and I do this prayerfully and do not go by what other men have said. I desire to know what the Holy Spirit is saying. As I have learned over the many years, it is amazing what He, the Spirit of Truth, is able to teach us. Also, if it is not found in the word, you might as well throw it away! But we also must be willing to be taught in ways that can at times challenge us, and sometimes it may even be quite revolutionary, as revealed truth always is! (Please read Isaiah 55:6-13.)

As a child I had heard the voice of God speak to me at various times. At first I was not aware of the fact that it was the voice of God's Holy Spirit, or as others would say, God's angel speaking to me. Then at the age of nine, during the Hungarian Revolution at the beginning of December 1956, God put it into my heart to leave my family, country, and homeland. One week before I left the country, I knew I was going to go but did not say a word to anyone about it—not even my parents. On December 11th 1956, as I was waking up, God or God's angel told me very clearly, "Today is the day for you to leave." In obedience to that word, I miraculously escaped into the free world in broad daylight. One boy all by himself at the age of nine I escaped across the Iron Curtain and into the free world! I remained inside Austria, a foreign country, by myself for the next seven weeks, but God was with me. On January 31st 1957, my older brother Barnabas found me and gave me the option going back to Hungary or to go to Canada with him. My choice was obvious.

Over the years, especially when I was younger, I hardly ever had any dreams or visions. Before I became a born again Christian, whenever I became sick with fever, I had horrible nightmares in which my life was always threatened. It was always the same horrible nightmare, and every time I would wake up crying, knowing that my life was in danger. (My mother apparently had aborted a pair of twins during Second World War.) Once I gave my heart and life to Jesus and invited Him into my heart at the age of 11, the horrid nightmares stopped.

I was twenty-seven years old when I returned to my family and homeland in 1974. My oldest brother (16 years senior to me) informed me that the whole family was upset that my mother had become pregnant with me, and that I was not wanted prior to my birth in 1947. Little wonder that after the Lord directed me to leave, I never became homesick, nor did I ever return until much later on in life. I am so thankful that the Lord does not make mistakes!

The Lord used Pat Robertson of the Christian Broadcast Network, in the early 1980s to encourage me at a time when I was being “killed” through persecution and rejection by quite a number of my religious Christian brethren in Canada for writing and publishing the prophecies. Jesus said, “If anyone hates his brother, the same is a murderer.” In other words you don’t have to be killed physically when they do it by their words.

Proverbs 18:21 says, Life and death are in the power of the tongue.

But, I thank God for the personal encouragements I did receive from men like David Wilkerson, and I still have the letters from Pat Robertson. In one of them he shared with me the scriptures from Jeremiah 1:5 to 12, Before I formed you in the belly I knew you, and before you came forth out of the womb I sanctified you (set you apart), and I ordained you a watchman unto the nations.

Talk about encouragement—especially when you are persecuted and rejected—as the prophecies were a complete shock to the traditional religious teachings of men back then and they still are! The messages were a genuine shock even to me, and I remember saying to the Lord back in 1981, “I did not know this is the way things (end times) were going to be!”

During the beginning of 1981, a prophetic word was given in one of the meetings at the Living Faith Bible School in Caroline, Alberta, Canada. The minister speaking that evening was from Montana, USA, and had written a book; I believe the name of it was, Preacher Get Your Gun. He went on to share that there was someone in the meeting, whose life was going to affect all of North America. Immediately one of our friends, a church elder’s wife sitting in front of us turned to me and said she felt that word was for me. I honestly did not know what to think of it all, as we were going through some very hard times economically ourselves and ministry was definitely not one of my ambitions in life at the time. As a matter of fact I was frustrated at the time concerning ministry. Little did I realize what God was going to do, and often it is in hard times that God prepares people for the work He has for them!

Within one month of that word being given, God began to give me prophecies, visions, and dreams about the future of North America. Prophecies were given to me and I sent them to President Reagan on his first visit to Canada on March 10, 1981 via telegram to Ottawa. God also gave me an immediate sign that the prophecies had to do with “Economic Unity between Canada the USA and Mexico.” President Reagan used those exact same words in his announcement over the news. Then the second sign was also given, as I shared Psalm 33:16 to 19, and exactly 20 days later the attack on the President’s life by the would-be assassin’s bullet came, as several of the bodyguards were also shot and wounded by the man.

It was on March 24th, 1981 that God blew me out of bed in the middle of the night, when He gave me the following:

1. The United States would fall from being a Super Power in the earth, as it has been over the years.

2. The next part of the vision was the Falkland Island War that brought England’s Iron Lady, Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and President Reagan into friendship and great unity between Britain and the United States.

3. One other thing that God brought to my mind on that day in 1981 was my previous writings that allude to what happened in both New York and Washington, D.C. on September 11, 2001.

Three days later I was up most of the night praying and talking to God. At that time I was saying to the Lord, “God, you showed me so much about what was going to come to pass, but there is nothing that I know of where anything was mentioned about the World Trade Centers being hit?”

Suddenly, the Spirit of God directed me to look into the booklet that was last published in 1987 and there it was right on the first page: Zephaniah 1:14-18. I was surprised not only at the accuracy of the description given, but the things that are mentioned in my writings, including the days of Josiah, the last righteous king of Judah before the Babylonians came and destroyed Israel. History repeats itself, and therefore the great prophecies of Daniel as well as Zephaniah are now being fulfilled completely once again, and before our very eyes! (Zephaniah's prophecies were given during King Josiah's reign: Over 2,500 years ago.)

On September 10, 2001 exactly 20 years and six months to the day that I had first made contact with President Reagan on March 10, 1981, God again moved on my heart to write another letter this time to President George W. Bush and the First Lady. With the letter I included the booklet and the prophecies first published and copyrighted in 1982. Little did I realize what was about to happen the following day on September 11, 2001 and exactly 45 years and 9 months to the day that God told me to leave Hungary—that was on December 11, 1956 and I was also 9 years of age when I left. During our last pastorate in Canada (1999) an old saint of God gave me a personal word about “Living in God’s Prophetic State.” Being in that state, God never misses. He is always on time, and He sure knows what he is doing!

Dates, numbers and names all have special meaning in God’s economy. Jesus came at the exact set time and date that God ordained Him to come! Galatians 4:4 tells us,

When the fullness of time came, God sent forth His Son.

Again the fullness of time has come when God is going to put His Glory into His Church!

Romans 11:25-28 tells us,

Blindness in part has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in (until the Great Harvest is brought in), And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins. As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes (Abraham, Isaac and Jacob).

Then in Romans 11:15

For if the casting away of them is the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, BUT LIFE FROM THE DEAD.

In one part of the vision given on March 24, 1981, I was shown President Reagan going to Moscow to sign peace agreements with the Russians. His trip was first announced in 1987 and fulfilled in 1988. The Great Changes behind the Iron Curtain came to pass in 1989 and 1990. Then the great man of peace that was to come out of the Soviet Union was shown. It was Mikhail Gorbachev, who was given the Nobel Peace Prize in the early 1990s for the great changes that had taken place as the Soviet Union was dissolved.

The great changes were shown twice, indicating that their fulfillment would come soon. Suddenly we are now confronted with what Zephaniah 1:14-18 described as,

The Great day of the Lord, it is near, is near and is hastening greatly. The mighty man (national leaders will be) crying bitterly because of the destruction, that would come to the CITIES and also the HIGH TOWERS... men's blood shall be poured out as dust... all because they have sinned against the Lord! Neither their silver nor gold would be able to deliver them.

He was describing the economic chaos that would engulf North America like a bad dream! Other scriptures that were given to me during the spring of 1979 are found in Isaiah 16:9-10 and also Chapter 18. Joy and Gladness is suddenly taken away from a PLENTIFUL FIELD.

I immediately knew that those scriptures described North America. In Isaiah 18 we read,

Woe to the land (or continent described) that is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia (Africa), shadowing with wings (The North-American eagle.)

This is followed by the Lord blowing a trumpet and setting up an ensign on the mountaintops, a prophecy that is now being fulfilled! I believe those towers being destroyed and the Pentagon being hit is the ensign spoken of and the call of God for America to REPENT. During the late 1980s the Lord told me that a genuine repentance and revival will not happen until hard times come!

The next words that were spoken to me back in 1981 were:

#1 "All North-American Automakers will go bankrupt"

#2 "All North-American Airlines will also go bankrupt"

#3 "There will be a Great Oil Crisis which will be much worse than anything the world has ever seen."

#4 Concerning the great changes behind the Iron Curtain, the Lord said, "There will be a 'great calm' on the international scene, but with it there will also be a 'great deception.'"

Some of these are being fulfilled, but in the future when the time is right, God also told me, "Russia will suddenly and very belligerently break all the agreements they have ever signed." The word BELLIGERENT in the Oxford dictionary means: "A nation waging regular war, according to the law of nations."

No longer was it the Soviet Union but it was Russia.

#5 Russia signing peace agreements with Israel was fulfilled in the early 1990s.

#6 A Palestinian homeland was also mentioned in my previous writings.

#7 Daniel 7:4 will also be fulfilled as history repeats itself once again. The YOUNG LION WITH EAGLE WINGS (the great American eagle) is going to have those wings plucked off even as the mother's wings were; and that was the Great British Empire. There is a time coming, when the United States Air force will be hit and hit hard—as well as the rest of the world! I came to North America in 1957 where I have lived the past 55 years of my life, and it's been good. But now God is going to humble North America and the greatest revival in all of history will come out of the disasters shown!

#8 The Church in North America will soon experience what Job went through, even as the prophet Haggai also proclaimed in his book (See Haggai 2:6-9). God is now going to shake and is already shaking all nations. Every person and everything under the sun, the heavens, the sea, the dry land and all of the earth and every single nation in the world will now be shaken. Only those things that cannot be shaken will remain for all of eternity, and that is the lives of God's people established in Him! The gold and silver and all that there is belongs to the Lord, the Almighty Creator of heaven and earth, and only those who are in Christ Jesus and are remaining in Christ until He comes will be accounted worthy to escape all of these things that are coming to pass!

#9 The Church of Jesus Christ is going to be cleaned up. God spoke to me in June 2000: "I will no longer tolerate sin in the lives of His people or in the lives of those who preach God's Word" (See Malachi Chapter 3). The Spirit of the fear of the Lord is going to be restored to His church even as it was in the Early Church (See Acts 5:1-16).

#10 God is also going to send the preaching of the Hard Word, as "THE HAIL SHALL SWEEP AWAY THE REFUGE OF LIES" (Isaiah 28:17). Revelation 6:9-17 talks about a GREAT SHAKING and the reaction of men to the refuge of lies that have been falsely taught in our churches over the years! Let me say the Book of Revelation is exactly just that! "It is a Revelation of Jesus Christ and nothing more and nothing less." See Revelation 1:1 and 22:18-19. That book describes the condition of the church and what God wants from us, and where He wants us to be positioned in Him. Looking at the world and trying to interpret the book of Revelation into current world events produces only the dead letter of the word, and that word brings only death. It is the living Christ, and a pure God-given revelation of Him within all of our hearts that we need to know!

PLEASE DO NOT BE OFFENDED AND PLEASE DO NOT BE DECEIVED! Many in our day have preached a false message of hope in a gospel that is not the same gospel that Jesus or the Apostles preached. They are not the ones who were raised up by God or into the life of Christ properly, nor did he send them. And this is why we read about “the many false prophets (preachers) who went out, into the world and who say that He is the Christ, but they have never come to know Him, nor were they sent out by Him!” Truth is being restored to the Church and to the people of God. (Please read Hebrews 12.)

Acts 3:21 tells us, Christ will be held in the heavens until the restoration of all things, which were spoken by God's holy prophets since the world began.

Great glory awaits the church of the living God, and the Bride that is now getting herself ready (Revelation 21:1-7). More than ever before, we all need to seek the Lord for the Revelation knowledge of Jesus, within each of our hearts and lives. We need to ask Jesus to come into our hearts and to cleanse us from all past iniquity and sins. Then, we need to seek fellowship with God given saints, and to seek Him, His life and love to be manifested within us, that we truly may be able to demonstrate to others that we have come to know Jesus! Haggai 2:6-9, Psalms 126, Isaiah 60-62, as well as many other scriptures, confirm what I am saying to be true. But the great awakening that has been promised is coming and will truly come IN HARD TIMES!

In 1 Thessalonians 5:2-4 and 9 we read:

For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night, for when they shall declare PEACE AND SAFETY (the great calm and great deception spoken to me by the Lord in 1981); sudden destruction comes upon them as travail upon a woman with child: and they shall not escape. But you brethren are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. You are all the children of light and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him.

Those who are fallen asleep are already with the Lord in heaven waiting for the resurrection of their dead bodies! Jesus never chose anyone for a disciple that did not believe in the resurrection of the dead or in the life hereafter. In the gospels they called them the sect of the Sadducees.

In the New Testament, the word, “Heavens” (Greek: ‘Uranos’), is mentioned many times. That word Uranos is the root word that URANIUM comes from and in God’s wisdom reflects directly on the Weapons of Mass Destruction: Even as we read and are described in 2 Peter 3:10-14,

But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, in which the heavens (URANOS) will pass away with a thunderous noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat and the earth (the people that are in it), and the works that are upon it will be burnt up. Since all these things are thus, in the process of being dissolved, what kind of person ought (each of you) to be in consecrated and holy behavior and of devout and godly qualities, and holy conversation? While you wait and earnestly long for the coming of the day of God by reason of which the flaming heavens (URANOS) will be dissolved, and the (material elements) will flare and melt with fervent fire. But we look for a new heaven and a new earth.

In my own life, and in a practical personal interpretation, this means a new heavenly realm in the lives of God’s people. Old things are passed away and behold everything becomes new. In Christ Jesus we are to become a new creation. The new earth also speaks to us of God being glorified in the lives of His Saints. Jesus' own word to us was that His kingdom is not of this world, otherwise his children would fight (John 18:36). And yet we know that there is a day ahead when Jesus will come back to earth bringing all of his saints with Him (see Zachariah 14:4-5).

In 1996 I saw 20 years of war and conflict beginning. I believe these wars may very well have started with 9/11. These wars were in different parts of the world. (Isaiah prophesied that God would gather the armies of the nations unto His Judgment.) Finally things got so bad, both weather wise and because of the wars that were going on, that in some of those places there was no food left to eat. As I watched, things had gotten so bad, that people started to eat the dead bodies of other people that had fallen. I thought to myself and told the Lord, "God if things are going to be that bad I do not want to be around to see it!" I believe the conflict of the end of the age has already begun! In Matthew 24:22 we are told, If God would, not shorten the days, there would be no flesh saved.

But I thank God that He will have a people for His Name's Sake, and for His elect's sake He is also going to shorten the days! "EVEN SO, COME LORD JESUS!"

In November 2002, I saw a dragon arising out of the China Sea and Taiwan disappearing into the body of the dragon. Another friend in South America mentioned some time ago China was going to take over Taiwan—yet another shake up on the world scene! If people only knew the great shakings that are about to hit the earth, they would think differently and honor the Lord God of the heavens in their lives!

The Lord also showed Gary Johnson in the 1970s that prior to Jesus' Second Coming: the weather systems around the world would become so adverse and so bad that they were determined, as it were, to drive man from the face of the earth. When my own son, Reuben, was only 7 or 8 years of age, God gave to him a dream in which he saw a horrible darkness spreading over the earth like a wild prairie fire. Then he saw himself being lifted up into the heavens, and what amazed him was that in the place of safety God had put him there was no judgment documented or written against him. That is the relationship God wants from us and truly come to know Him and to worship Him in spirit and in Truth. Also, when our son Randy was only 5 or 6 years old (this would have been around 1979) he also had a dream or vision, and he explained it this way. He said, “Dad I saw Satan with a giant vacuum cleaner going after people in the churches, and trying to suck them up into the deceitfulness of sin. And Dad he sure tried to get you, but he did not succeed!” Not only were my wife and I both amazed at his explanation and the accuracy of the description given when he used the words the deceitfulness of sin, but what an encouragement it was to me personally.

Also, as we begin to bring this book to an end, recently I was asked a question regarding godly submission to leadership. I fully agree with godly submission, but over the years we have seen our share of abuse in situations that were anything but godly. There can be many problems created by submission taken out of context of the word of God, and I would like to share the answer that I gave to one of the leaders in Africa regarding this subject. This next letter was written on November 24, 2002 to a mission station in Malawi, Africa and has been revised so the names of individuals are not mentioned:

When it comes to submission there needs to be a working together, which sometimes it is not the case. Leadership needs to understand some godly principles when it comes to submission and not just belligerently expect it or even demand it from the people or other co-workers. Far too often the Lord may be talking to a leader and telling him or her certain things about their own ministry and what they need to do, but that does not mean God is telling them the same for everybody, especially when God has already spoken clearly to someone else about their own ministry. It is in these situations that manipulation takes place. Leaders fall under a spirit of control, influenced by the Jezebel spirit, contrary to a clear warning given in Revelation 2:19-23. Also, just because it mentions a woman in those scriptures, keep in mind that woman in the Bible can also be spiritually symbolic of the church. Because we are living in the last days, male leaders, including pastors, can have this spirit as much as anyone else.

If they have insecurity, among other problems, and strongholds of the enemy operating in their lives, these things will manifest in many different ways. And, these may be roots of iniquity they have either inherited from their parents or things they have picked up during their life. Also prophetic people will always have a giant battle with the spirit of religion, which is not the Holy Spirit, or the Spirit of Christ. The spirit of religion is in fact the spirit of Satan, that will blind people, and they will worship and see Christ through a beast nature. Many times Christians will have this horrible mixture in their lives, and will never know the difference until they truly begin to fast and pray and seek the living Christ that they may get a true revelation of Jesus within their own hearts and lives! I come across leaders that are put in place because they are gifted individuals, and not because of their maturity in God. Some may even seem to be very spiritual, but not in a knowing relationship with the Living Christ, and the manifestation will always be manipulation and a spirit of control.

Isaiah 56:9-12 is very clear about what I am saying:

All you beasts of the field come and devour yes, all you beasts in the forest (this is talking about God's heritage being taken over by the enemy—like my son Randy described, being sucked up into the deceitfulness of sin). Why are all these things happening? His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark (warn God's people of the dangers); sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yes they are greedy dogs, which can never have enough (of their own ways), and they are shepherds that cannot understand: (Unless the Lord takes away the veil off of their eyes which is the deception that has over taken them they will never truly come to know Jesus!) They all look to their own ways (not the Lord's), everyone for his own gain, from his quarter (the position given to them). Come all of you they say (calling God's people to follow them, not Christ), I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink: (intoxicated by the deception of the enemy – or “the strong delusion” spoken by the Apostle Paul in 2 Timothy 2:10-12) and tomorrow shall be as this day and much more abundant.

Because they do not have the genuineness of Christ's life or love in them they will demand submission from the people thinking that if the people will only submit, everything will be in order. But how can that be if the leaders' own lives are not in order?

When it comes to leadership, often there will be an impartation into the lives of the people. Only too often that impartation is nothing less than a horrible mixture! As the preacher goes, so goes the church! In these cases the Lord will speak to people's hearts, and if He tells you what you should be doing and the preacher is dead set against it. When this happens it is definitely time to seek the Lord. (But I only speak to those to whom the Lord has genuinely spoken; check it all out and maybe even fast and pray about it and seek the Lord to confirm it to you clearly.) In my own case, when God began to speak to me very clearly many years ago regarding going behind the Iron Curtain, we had a pastor that had a Jezebel spirit. In this case she happened to be a woman, and she did everything to come against what God had given me to do. I quickly learned not to share anything with her but shake the dust off my feet and avoid her like the plague.

Also, submission is never a one way street but rather a working together in Love, and respecting the other person's ministry as much as your own. If there is not a cooperative working together, no respect and love happening, and no unity among the brethren (Psalms 133) then what is left?

Ephesians 5:14-21, 1 Peter 5:1-11 are wonderful scriptures, and I have shared much on these in Chapter 4. In both passages the emphasis is on exactly what I have said, that submission has never been a one-way street and never someone belligerently demanding it. When it comes across in that fashion I have a big problem with it—and so does the Lord—because once it gets to that place then the catalyst, which is God’s love, goes out the door, and so does everything else. If we cannot operate in love and have respect for one another’s ministry and stay in the unity of the Spirit then we may as well forget the whole thing. Also as leaders, if we have not handled things properly then we should be big enough and humble enough to apologize and make things right, and close the door to the devil forever. So maybe we are getting somewhere. These are all principles that we can use to check whether someone is truly operating in their ministry with a good heart or if the devil is involved in what is being done?

On your part, Martha and I love and respect you and your ministry because you have proven yourself and also made things right and were humble enough to do so, and not go back on your word afterward. I believe the Bible calls that INTEGRITY. I love to see things done based on God’s principles, and all of these things are exactly that. When leaders can work by the principles that are ordained by God, this will stop the hand of the devil from working overtime in the lives of the people and even the lives of the children that they are ministering to as well.

We all know only too well that we need to see God on the job and in the lives of the people in Malawi. I believe with all of my heart that this is the only thing that will close the door to the devil and bring lasting changes into the lives of God’s people. We can believe it or not, but even the lives of the people in that country will change as the power of God’s Holy Spirit comes and is truly made manifest, but the leaders have to be the first fruits and truly have their lives changed! What I saw in the awesome presence of God that was manifested in some of the meetings in Uganda during July, 2002, I have not seen since to this day—not that powerfully! Only at one of the churches that we visited in the eastern United States the beginning of November 2002, did it even come close.

There are principles of God involved when God moves so powerfully, and His sovereignty is made manifest in the people's lives. Martha and I grew up in that kind of atmosphere back in the 1960s and early 1970s. And if the leadership can get their act together with the Lord, we can see the same thing in Malawi as well. So please, I am not being critical; I just know these things, and I am only sharing my heart.

Submission is in the word and is not a problem because Martha and I have worked with other ministries over many years, and we still love them as much today as we did at the beginning, and we are still working with them and have remained in fellowship with them even to this day. I hope you do not mind me sharing my heart with you. The only reason I said that I've seen in both you and one of the other leaders having a shepherd's heart is because I have seen both of you operating in love. Having a proper relationship both with the Lord and with one another is very important. Some ministries care more about their position and ministry than relationship. Please do not misunderstand me. It is when they make their ministry into an idol and submission of the people to them a god that they get into something that is not from the Lord. The Bible calls them workers of iniquity because of their bad example. The nature, character, and life of the individual, make them true or false and not just the message. Also if a person has a good heart, truth will come easy to them and their whole ministry and emphasis will be focused on the life of Jesus and becoming like Him. Hebrews 6:1 encourages us, Let us go unto the maturity of Christ, not constantly laying the foundation of repentance from dead works.

Whether we are able to come back to Africa or not at this time (during the original writing of this book November, 2002) is all up in the air. Not only do we need money for a vehicle, video projector, video machine and television as well as a couple of small generators, sound equipment, a laptop, cell phone, and printer but also monthly support to help with the operation costs. Besides all of that, we also need 6,000 Canadian Dollars to pay for our tickets and medical insurance for the year just to get back there. On our part this is absolutely impossible, but with God all things are possible. In both of our hearts, we have had to resign everything to the Lord, including the ministry, and if the Lord wants us back, He will have to work it all out. We do not have churches to go to that belong to a large missionary organization to help us raise funds. We do have some churches, but they are less than a handful. Give our love and regards to the other ministries working with you and also all the staff. We trust things are going well and working out for all of you.

Remaining in His Love and respectfully yours,

Desi and Martha Jakab

In closing of these thoughts, I would like to say that when the Bible warns about the spirit of Jezebel and spirit of control, again in Revelation 2:6 speaking to the church at Ephesus, those who have lost their first love, we are told, “But this you have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.” And then again in Chapter 2:13-16 says “to the Church at Pergamos write; These things says he which has the sharp sword with two edges; I know your works, and where you live, even where Satan’s seat is: and you hold fast my name, and have not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan lives. (The following is not a compliment to the works that were going on!) But I have a few things against you, because you have there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. (That is spiritual uncleanness, we are espoused to become the Bride of Christ, then why give ourselves to other things?). So you also have them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I also hate. Repent or else I will come unto you quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.”

Remember the two witnesses in Revelation Chapter 11?

I believe this is what that is all about. The two witnesses – Old and New Testaments, the “It is Written”—and when people and leaders included go against the word of the Lord and His principles that have been established, He will in every case, if there is no repentance, fight against them with the word of His mouth, THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT. God will always give a time and a period of grace in the life of every person to come to repentance and to make things right. Also, the things I am describing here are the things I covered in my letter to our friend back in Malawi. God is a jealous God, and He will have no other gods before him—that is we must never make something into a manmade idol, and that is what happens when things are taken out of context with the word. They become a doctrine or, as Jesus would say, the doctrines of men, while the Apostle Paul calls them “The doctrines of devils” as found in first Timothy 4:1, “Now the spirit speaks expressly, that in the last days some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils.”

How foolish people can be when they take the teachings of Christ and of the Apostles of Christ out of context and make them into idols and they become a god unto them, thus allowing themselves to be deceived and allowing seducing spirits to operate in their midst. (Along with those seducing spirits, the strongholds of immorality in the lives of the people are not broken. They may be covered over for a time, but somewhere down the line it comes back on them as they are not truly delivered.)

Some of these things were very clearly exposed to me by the mistakes that we (my wife and I) have witnessed and have also been subjected to at times by some of the ministries that have been over us throughout the years! We saw some terrible mistakes made by some of the ministries that were over us, and they were ministries we loved and trusted. Please do not misunderstand, these things are not because I would make myself the standard, BECAUSE I AM NOT; God's Word is the standard. And when God's written principles are being violated, nothing will be able to truly go ahead until God is able to remove the problem, and until there is genuine repentance on the part of every one of us. Then the deliberate wrongs that have been made will be made right, and Psalms 133 will then and only then be able to truly take effect.

When a leader shares things with other leaders, and when they are deceived and not from a true and honest heart, people like me get into big trouble because I cannot go along with the compromise that takes place. Unholy unions cannot create holy communions—not when there are some serious issues in the heart involved and people are too bull-headed and too arrogant to admit their own shortcomings. I have unfortunately run into some serious problems with certain people, even these past two years, and especially some who came from South Africa. (I am only talking about one or two who are white; they also have a general mindset, and they also come from the Apartheid background in South Africa.) Not saying that they think like the extreme mindsets that were in the Apartheid movement, but I have seen the spirit of religion at work in them, and the mistakes they have made, especially when they are managers or hirelings and not true shepherds. And, sometimes there can be irreparable damage done to the work of the Lord by them if these things go unchecked. I have but one desire and that is to see God's Government restored and God's Divine Order put in place and the leadership to become nothing less than what the Lord wants them to be, and that means laying our own agendas down, so Christ can rule and reign in our own hearts.

Then last of all, may the prophetic picture described in Isaiah 2:10-22 speak clearly into this message and into our day!

Enter into the rock, and hide yourself in the dust, for the fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty. The lofty *looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day. For the day of the Lord shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low; and upon all those that are high and lifted up, and upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up, AND UPON EVERY HIGH TOWER, and upon every fenced wall (being walled in by a lifestyle that is contrary to God, and those walls will only bring division and scatter the people of God, and sometimes even destroy the work of God). The loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day. And the idols he shall utterly abolish. And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the Lord and for the glory of his majesty, WHEN HE ARISES TO SHAKE TERRIBLY THE EARTH. In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver (symbolic of redemption – a false hope), and his idols of gold – (Idols made out of the word of God being taken out of context!), which they made each one for himself to worship, (these shall be cast) to the moles and to the bats (the realms of darkness); to go into (to hide themselves from God's indignation in) the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty, WHEN HE ARISES TERRIBLY TO SHAKE THE EARTH. Cease from man (Do not depend upon and trust in man, but follow the Lord who is God and put your trust in Him), *for man's breath is in his nostrils: and wherein is he to be accounted of (or trusted in)?

All this is saying we all must ultimately learn to trust in the Lord, because man at his very best can still fail us, but not the Lord; for He is a friend that will stick closer than a brother, and He will never leave us or forsake us. Also we must never allow ourselves to replace God with anyone or anything else.

We need to make Him the love of our lives, and make Him the king of our lives and keep Him there.

Isaiah 9:19-20 says, “Through the wrath of the Lord of hosts is the Land Darkened.” This is talking about the people’s lives being given over to sin for when the hearts are in deception and darkness, so is the land. We have not had a spiritual awakening in America, and it will not come until God shakes things, and until the hard times come. Only then will people truly begin to seek the Lord and repent of their evil ways, and only then will they truly be able to trust in Him, or depend upon Him.

And the people shall be as fuel for the fire: no man shall spare his brother. And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied, they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm. (Eating from one’s own intelligence and trusting in the arm of flesh when they are not dependant on the Lord.)

Jesus said in John 6:53-63,

except you eat my flesh and drink my blood you have no life in you, whoever eats my flesh (symbolic of creating the very life of God within us) and drinks my blood has eternal life in him, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat indeed; and my blood is drink indeed. He that eats my flesh and drinks my blood gets his life from me and I Jesus will live in him. As the living Father has sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eats me, even he shall live by me. This is that bread that came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat in the wilderness the manna and are dead; but he that eats of this bread shall live forever.

And we know the rest of the story, how many of his disciples from that day forward followed him no more. The things he said, even to the end that his own disciples, the twelve were murmuring against him, offended them. They simply had no understanding. Then in verse 63 he tells them plainly the spiritual symbolism in all that He was saying: “It is the spirit that quickens, the flesh profits nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit and they are life.”

1 Corinthians 2:14, Paul writes. “But the natural man receives not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them because they are spiritually discerned.”

Jeremiah 17:5 tells us, “Thus says the Lord, Cursed be the man that trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from the Lord. For he shall be like a dry stub in the desert, and shall not see when good comes; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in salt land (where nothing can grow), and not inhabited (there will be not the life of Christ in them).”

Both the Father and His Son Jesus want to come and live in us and us in them. This is done through the power of the Holy Spirit whom they have promised, and the Word of God becoming flesh in us (written and engraved on the fleshly tables of our heart and life), so that the same Glory that was given to the Son may also be in the Church of the living God. Isaiah also cries out in Chapter 30 as a warning, “Woe to the rebellious children, says the Lord, that take counsel but not from me: and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin. They walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; TO STRENGTHEN THEMSELVES IN THE STRENGTH OF PHARAOH, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt.”

Revelation 18 covers this well! Also Egypt for those who do not know it represents the wicked evil world we live in, and Pharaoh is the spiritual type of the devil.

In 1 John 2:15-16 we find, “Love not the world neither the things that are in the world. If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of this present life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.”

Christ has called us out, to overcome the sin that is in the world, and to overcome Satan’s influence in our own life.

God’s promises are wonderful to those that love Him and serve Him from a pure heart, which should be our goal in this life. Isaiah 51:8, “For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: But my righteousness shall be forever and my salvation from generation to generation.”

In the end, “by grace are we saved through faith, and not our own works, it is the gift of God.” We do have good works, but salvation alone is the gift from God. Let Him build you up and raise you up into that abundant life He has promised to bring to us and to give us. Jeremiah 3:14-17 tells us,

“Turn, O backsliding children, says the Lord: for I am married unto you, and I will take you one of a city and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion: and I will give you pastors (or shepherds) according to my heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding... and they shall no more say, the ark of the covenant of the Lord, neither shall it come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more. At that time shall they call Jerusalem the throne of the Lord; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the Lord, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart.”

I am so glad that since Jesus came, and the great shake up that took place even to the dispersion of Israel in 70 AD, today the throne of God and of the Lamb are within the hearts and lives of all those that Love God. No longer do we look for a temple to be rebuilt in Israel, but we are looking for a temple of God built in the heavenly realm, where we are the temples of the living God.

Thank you and God bless each and every one of us and may God's Holy Spirit bring us all into a living and knowing relationship with both the Father and His Son Jesus Christ.

Regarding the Nation of Israel: I received the following message on March 7, 2007 and shared it with a man of God who lives in Israel:

March 9, 2007

Dear David Silver:

I just had one of the most terrible nightmares regarding the state of Israel I have ever had: It was like the most diabolical attack against Israel's own security and existence. Everything on the side of the West Bank and including the bridges crossing the west bank including the Israeli lines were taken away. And it was like they had no choice in the matter because their own existence was being threatened. And I saw these concessions on the part of Israel being made to this diabolical force, making Israel more like what the Iron Curtain used to be like—boxed in and they having absolutely no choice in the matter of their very own existence as it was forcing them into these new lines being drawn, and on the part of Israel I saw absolutely there was No Resistance whatsoever! I am shocked at how easy it was for this new force and/or power to overwhelm them and bring the small nation into submission - on the sanctions that they were imposing??? God is God, and we know that, but I did not expect things to become like this—not the way I saw them. Next to the shocking visions and dreams and revelations that I had received in 1981, this dream this morning has left me literally numb.

This morning I am in shock, once again because if things get this bad, it is not going to be good for Israel, but they will survive as a nation, and yet it seems like

God is going to use the wicked and evil systems of this world to squeeze them into situations that they will have no other choice in the end but to call on the Name of the Lord so that the true branch in the end may be grafted back in. (See Romans 11:25) “Until the fullness of the Gentiles come in” – the Great Harvest of the Gentile nations is here Now!

Love and blessings, from us- Desi and Martha Jakab.

(Reply from David Silver, March 23, 2007, a man of God who lives in the state of Israel)

Shalom Desi: I think your dream (nightmare) was very prophetic - most people in Israel and in the nations have no idea of the horrors that lie ahead. God is about to pour out His wrath on the nations for the way they have and continue to treat His nation and the Jews. Please pray into it as you feel led.

Shabbat Shalom, David

This next vision was given to Desi Jakab on April 14, 2008
(Feeding the Hungry Global Ministries)

On April 14, I had trouble sleeping most of the night but just lay there resting in the Lord. After getting up and having a small breakfast, I went back to bed. I finally fell asleep and at 11 a.m., the following dream encouraged both my wife and me immensely.

In the vision (prophetic dream), at first life seemed quite normal. We were in an area where shops were being shown and also a Shell service station for fueling cars, etcetera. It was a beautiful and sunny day. Suddenly I said to my wife and another person there with us that there are two bombs ready to go off, and we needed to get out of here. Our destination, which turned to be a place of safety, was close by: (“Safety is from the Lord” also Psalms 91). Apparently the second bomb never did go off, and was not even needed. Also whom the bombs belonged to or where they came from, and who was responsible for them were never shown. All I know is, there were two bombs and they were both ready to go off, and we needed to get out of there fast. (The bombs as you will see were representative of war.) We walked and turned to our right and crossed the road. We also saw a large, beautiful bus (quite possibly symbolic of ministry) parked in front of the building.

When God first gave to us the ministry “Feeding the Hungry – Global Ministries” in 2005, and when God sent us back to Africa in May 2005, I had a vision in which I saw a small white car, but now the ministry had obviously grown. Also, the first time we had gone to Africa in July 2000, we used to use a small white car much of the time for transportation from the orphanage to the big city.

In only a few moments after just having to cross the road, we suddenly were now at our destination and are inside this giant building—The Building of God’s Kingdom. (“In my Father’s house are many mansions” John 14:1).

There was a separate room just for my wife, Martha and I connected to the giant building. As we come into the building we walked down a hallway and to our left there was a door and a private smaller room where I saw Martha, myself and the third person with us (very likely this third person is either God’s angel or the person of the Holy Spirit), and we were resting and enjoying each other’s company and fellowship. (Only later did I realize that this resting place turned out to be our little town house, and the living room area which is our prayer palace, and where we spend most of our time when at home resting and just soaking in the presence of the Lord.) Then a time came when all three of us went from our room, and we turned to the left. This is when we came to a giant open door more like one of those giant warehouse doors, but it was completely open before us to observe the giant building in front of us (Father’s house).

We were now looking inside this giant building. It was so big and huge I would not be able to tell the size, and we were only being shown only the part closest to us. There was major construction (more like an assembly plant) happening and taking place here and I saw other missionaries who were generals in God's army on roller blades. (Obviously they were building God's Kingdom.)

I only recognized one of the men on the floor on roller blades (Brent B). He had a white paper in one hand, and in the other hand he was carrying a piece of construction material that looked like maybe a two inch conduit pipe possibly three or four feet long, which was green in color. He, as well as others, were literally flying around on the roller blades (very obviously this is indicative of God's acceleration of the times).

There were other people working there as well, some on roller blades, while others were busy assembling the work at hand. Things were being assembled and put together very quickly and phenomenally well. "Reminds me of two scriptures – "Unto Him (Jesus) shall the gathering of the people be, and not unto anyone or anything else, but unto Jesus alone" and also "forsake not the assembling of ourselves together (being conformed into His likeness and the true image of Jesus Christ) even the more so as the day of His Coming approaches."

Christian leaders are so mistaken when they focus on the false interpretations of men when it comes to the mark of the beast and the number of his name. Yes, the World has the mark of the beast, as well as the worldly minded church, but as saints of God we are to be conformed into the Image of Jesus Christ, and nothing of the enemy within us!

Regarding the rest of the vision, I thought to myself, "I wish we could have had roller blades back in my younger days when I was working in construction. The acceleration seemed to make everything go so much faster." In this part of the vision it was as if the Lord was reminding me not to be carnally minded with the earthly things of this life, and also how easily we are distracted from focusing "on the meat (the life of Christ in us) that shall never perish or die” and to get into the natural mind or thinking of man.

Of course this entire picture being shown was the acceleration that has come into the hour that we are living in! Things were happening very quickly, as God’s Holy Spirit was in charge of the building, which was being assembled and put together now at a very fast pace! One other thing that was manifested is the unity God was showing, but it was not in the arm of flesh, as the Holy Spirit was all over this place!

Finally Martha and I (with the other man always at our side) turned around to go back toward the room where we had been resting (the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Rest and Peace), when I said “let’s go and see what is happening outside.” The bus was still parked in front of the building just as we had left it there—our children Reuben and Connie were asleep inside the bus: This part of the vision is a bit of a concern to me personally, for God’s word tells us “arise from your slumber (spiritually) you who are sleeping,” but the building we had come out of and the bus still seemed to be the only places of safety. The next thing I noticed to my amazement were the buildings that were shown at the beginning of the vision across the street as well as the service station, had completely disappeared and were completely gone now as the bomb (symbolic of war) had completely devastated the entire area, changing the landscape completely! At this moment I was told by God’s Holy Spirit, there were other bombs going off as Israel had detonated some of them in her defense.

As a result of the bombs going off, the oceans of the world were suddenly in a giant uproar and raging like never before. (The oceans being shown were symbolic of the nations (Revelation 17:15) as well as natural disasters taking place.) Because bombs had been now detonated in the Middle East with Israel defending itself, the oceans of the world (the Nations) were in an absolute uproar! The devastations as they were being shown were so absolutely phenomenal!

The waves of the oceans, were coming in 60 feet high (2x30), and flooding the land as if they had gone right over their banks. Even the wheels on the bus were standing in about 2 feet of water now, as the wind and the waves and the waters from the ocean was hitting the side of the bus as if it was a major rainstorm, but it was all coming from the uproar of the oceans waves (“the nations raging”).

It seemed like the only place of safety left on the earth was doing God’s perfect will and building His Kingdom. And, even though we were temporarily outside, the third person was constantly with us: (quite possibly symbolic of God’s Holy Spirit or God’s Angel) and what was taking place was not affecting us or our lives in Christ. The safety of God was definitely inside the building of God’s Kingdom, with His Blessing and Protection.

Inside the building (of God’s Kingdom) the people seemed to be completely resting in God’s Shalom (Peace). They were busy building and assembling and yet totally unaffected by the events that were outside, nor were they anxious or worried about all the devastations that were taking place in the world on the outside around them, but in fact they were in a mode of acceleration as the zeal of the Lord had taken over them! Doing God’s will was their joyful and happy focus! They were just zealous with all that the Lord had given them to do! I finally said, “Let’s go inside,” and the vision came to an end and I was now back in my room, wide awake on the bed.

The end of December 2008 my pastor friend from Saskatchewan, Wes Bashforth phoned me to ask me if the vision the Lord gave me was possibly the war that had just started with Israel and Gaza: I personally felt that there would be a much greater devastation coming in the future but was very much surprised at the uproar of the nations toward Israel for defending herself against all the hundreds of rockets being fired at them by Hezbollah terrorists.

The next amazing thing that did take place the day after the bombing stopped in January 2009 was the sixty feet high, ocean waves that were hitting the coast of Spain from off the Atlantic Ocean. Yes, God was confirming what He had shown me by the power and glory of His Might in a wonderful way but only in part! For soon there shall be a greater situation coming as well, and we all know that.

On the other hand, this vision or prophetic dream tremendously encouraged me because it is one thing for the Lord to show us things years ahead of time, and then for us to know how we are going to be able to handle the situations that are ahead of us. Isaiah 24:14-16a shows that in the midst of the devastations being described we find:

They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing; for the majesty of the LORD they shall cry aloud (worship will be heard from among the nations) from the sea. Therefore glorify the LORD in the dawning light, (arise shine for your light is come) the name of the LORD God of Israel in the coastlands (or the islands) of the sea. From the ends of the earth we have heard songs: "Glory to the righteous (the righteous glorifying the Lord)." Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things that God our Heavenly Father desires to do in our lives and through us for His glory and honor, shall be added unto us.

It is His harvest not ours; it is His work, not ours, and it is all for His glory and not for the glory of man. Possessing inside of us the very character of God, honesty and purity of heart, His integrity with humility goes a long way!

Also in January 2008, God clearly spoke to me regarding the Stock Markets and that we were going to experience a one day Greatest Losses the Stock Markets have ever had and at a later date they would collapse completely. On September 16, 2008 the message the Lord had given was published in the Langley BC, Christian News, and the one day greatest loss happened exactly 13 days later, as both the Dow and the Canadian Toronto Stock Exchange both fell to the greatest one day loss they had ever experienced together. The Dow lost 777 and the TSX 846, and there were larger drops that followed but not together. More will be shared in detail in The Prophetic Writings Volume 2 regarding the nightmare that is yet coming to the USA, but in hard times and out of the GREAT SHAKINGS that are now taking place GOD HAS PROMISED THAT THERE IS ALSO COMING A GREAT HARVEST, BUT NOT UNTIL HARD TIMES COME.

We are getting very close to that now as we approach the end of 2011. God bless you, and remember the Bible promises and declares “Blessed is the person that considers and remembers the poor (widows and the orphans): the Lord God will deliver them in a time of trouble. The Lord will preserve them and keep them alive and they shall be blessed upon the earth: and God will not deliver them unto the will of their enemies. The Lord will strengthen them when they are weak, and He will also heal them.” Psalms 41:1-3 was the promise the Lord revealed to me after my terrible sickness in October 2006 and also earlier in December 2000.

In Psalms 33:12-22 we find,

“Blessed is the Nation whose God is the Lord, and the people whom he has chosen for his own inheritance ... There is no king saved by the multitude of a host: ... the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy: To deliver their soul from death and to keep them alive in famine. ... Let your mercy be upon us O Lord as we hope or put our trust in you and depend on you at all times.”

The Great Shakings Are Only Beginning

On January 28, 2010 God’s Holy Spirit said, “God, He Himself is going to send forth His Glory by the power of His Own Right Arm, and no man and no woman will be able to take credit for all that God is yet going to do.” Today many are still taking the glory belonging to God and trying to steal the Glory of God, but in this last move of God’s Holy Spirit this will not be so. Even so Come Lord Jesus! Also those who overcome are marked by the number 7 as they are made perfect in God’s love.

CHAPTER EIGHT

OUR MINISTRY IN AFRICA and PICTURES

Desi and Martha Jakab have been working in with orphans Africa since July 2000. From July 2000 to October 2004, Martha was teaching and helping to run a private school at an orphanage in Malawi, Central Africa. Desi has also been involved in assisting Martha as well as doing ministry and evangelism. Since January 2005 both Desi and Martha have been involved in the charity given to them personally by the Lord God called “Feeding the Hungry Global Ministries.” During the past 7 years from January 2005 to the end of 2011 they have been able to help hundreds of orphans, both in Malawi and Mozambique, as well as build a hospital in a remote area of Malawi. They are currently expanding all with God’s help. The clinic part of the hospital has been up and running since September 2008, as various areas of the hospital are still under construction during September 2011. All donations given toward the cost of this book are for the purpose of outreach and for helping Desi and Martha to continue to work for the Lord in Africa. Thank you for remembering us in your prayers and your contribution to the ministry is greatly appreciated.

Yours Sincerely and In His Service and Love,

A TRIBUTE TO A WIFE OF NOBLE CHARACTER

This is a tribute to my wife Martha and the things that I appreciate about her. Also a big thank you to our children Reuben and Randy who have been more than loving, forgiving and patient with their dad: by Desi Jakab

Martha has been the backbone and definitely a helpmeet to me. She has supported me, our family and our ministry through our life in the Lord over the years. Without Martha's love and faithfulness to God all throughout our lifetime together and also in ministry with the Orphans in Malawi, Africa, she has been a genuine stalwart. She was amazing with the children when she ran the school we started with the orphans back in July 2000.

All the children in our class were able to speak, read, and write English (a vocabulary of over 600 words) within 3 months of our being with them during that first year.

Martha helped run the school for 4 1/2 years until the Lord gave us the ministry, “Feeding the Hungry— Global Ministries” in 2005. Martha has been a genuine gift from God. And may this be a tribute to all the Godly mothers, wives and women there are today!

Right from the first time I drove Martha home from church in the fall of 1968 in Vancouver, British Columbia Canada, she was not only the cutest thing I had ever met (92 pounds and did not look skinny one bit) but the revelation that I had received from the Lord on that first date was “she understands me”! This was very big for someone who left home at the age of nine, and never returned to Hungary to visit his parents and own family until 18 years later. I was so happy when this revelation of meeting someone that was actually able to understand me was given to me by God’s Holy Spirit. It was like a light bulb being turned on within my own understanding, and boy was she ever cute and good looking! There are many women out there who may be the most beautiful looking women on the face of the earth, but they have absolutely no understanding toward their husbands. Martha was definitely not one of them.

We were married in a glorious 600 people strong Friday evening church service at the Glad Tidings Temple in Vancouver, British Columbia on August 14, 1970. We had no less than 60 to 75 unsaved people attending from both our workplaces as well as my Hungarian foster parents’ side of the family. My foster dad was so impressed with the elderly in the service as they were singing and clapping their hands to the joyful songs that he later actually remarked, “Those old ladies were so happy, clapping and so joyful in that service; I have never seen so many people so happy!” He was completely blown away by the Joy of the Lord that was manifested during the service. Another thing that was neat was the change Martha made during the wedding ceremony. Instead of marching down the aisle to the regular wedding song – she actually chose the Hymn Make Me a Blessing: “Out on the highways and bi-ways of life, many are weary and sad, carry God’s sunshine where darkness is found, and making the sorrowing glad. Make me a blessing, make me a blessing, out of my life may Jesus shine!”

What a testimony and what a testament of faith to what God had already placed within my precious wife’s spirit and heart!

Both my foster parents Jim and Julia Sabo came to know the Lord and accepted Jesus years later on their death beds. The greatest gift I could have ever given them was to introduce them to Jesus as Lord and Savior for being so kind and loving to me as they took me in at the age of 9 into their home as a foster child.

My wife Martha and I were at the hospital when my foster dad passed away in 1978. Then twelve years later my Christian foster brother Ivan’s wife Bonnie was able to lead mom Sabo in the salvation prayer only a few days before she died on December 9, 2000. The glorious miracles we experienced regarding both of them coming to know Jesus were answers to a prayer I had prayed back in 1966: “Lord, please don’t allow either Mom or Dad to die without them coming to know you first.” And even though I forgot all about that prayer, God never did, as both of them came to know Jesus on their death beds, many years later!

In 1972 and 1973 we had two beautiful little boys given to us by the Lord—Reuben and Randy, 11 months apart. Martha was an excellent mother when it came to raising our children. She was always there for them. She was never selfish, and always giving of herself, her kindness, and her understanding. We had two babies in diapers when there was no such a thing as pampers—hadn’t even heard of them—two babies, both in cloth diapers that had to be washed for the next two years: 1972 through 1975.

If I were to describe my wife Martha, Proverbs 12:4 tells us, “A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband”. Honey, you have been the best! She was never selfish, self-seeking, wanting her own way but always wanted God’s best for her children and family—no exaggeration! She was always careful with money, and never once did Martha go on a binge, spending money selfishly; she always put her children and family ahead of her own interests.

In that same scripture in Proverbs 12:4, we are also told,
... Any woman that behaves otherwise is rottenness in her husband's bones and the same can be true the other way around.

In 2 Timothy 3:1-7 we read,
There will be terrible times in the last days. People will be full of selfishness, lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without love, unforgiving, slanderers, without self control, brutal (given to anger easily and acting like brute-beasts), despisers of those that are good, treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God. While verse 6 talks about, silly women loaded down with sins, and who are swayed by all kinds of evil desires, always learning but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth: (Jesus is the Truth, the Way and the Life! And no man comes to Father God except through Jesus Christ.)

What a shame that we live in a society today where people have been raised spoiled, full of selfishness, with no restraint, and given everything while other children have virtually nothing because the parent spends everything on drugs and booze. And when they get married all hell breaks loose because they have never been brought up properly, and when they can't get their own way, they resort to acting like spoiled brats: "haters and despisers of those that are good."

In Proverbs 31:10-12 we read,
A virtuous wife (a woman of noble and good character) who can find? She is worth far more than rubies (or diamonds). Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value. She brings him good not harm, all the days of her life. In the King James we read: The heart of her husband does safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

That is my Martha, and even as our long time friend Jim Lockwood said in the early 1980s at the Christian school where Martha worked with him in Nelson, BC, “Martha Jakab is a lady whom we have come to appreciate, but who also has a Mary’s spirit,” making reference to Luke 10:40-42. And that is my dear Martha and the mother of our children: One of the most virtuous women that I have even known.

My children used to tease me in their growing up years. Randy would at times say, “Dad we need to write a book about you, how we raised dad.” Maybe now you will get to see part of that story.

Thank you Martha, and also Reuben and Randy for being so good to me and to us over the many years and thank you God for giving us a Godly heritage.

As I said earlier, Martha has been the backbone and definitely a helpmeet for both myself family and our ministry and life in the Lord over the years. Concerning Martha’s love and faithfulness to God all throughout our lifetime together and also in ministry with the Orphans in Malawi, Africa, she has been a genuine stalwart. She was amazing with the children when she ran the school we started with the orphans back in July 2000. All the children in our class were able to speak, read, and write English within 3 months of us being with them during that first year. Martha helped run the school for 4 ½ years until the Lord gave us the ministry: ‘Feeding the Hungry - Global Ministries’ in 2005.

Our dear Martha with her Mary’s spirit has been a genuine gift from God and may this be a tribute to all the Godly mothers, wives and women there are today!
